

New Books of Interest

A BOOK WHICH SHOULD BE IN EVERY CANADIAN
HOME AND EVERY SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARY

The Story of Isaac Brock

By Walter R. Nursey

Containing six illustrations in colors from original paintings by C. W. Jefferys, and twenty illustrations in half-tone from original drawings by Canadian artists and from photographs. Bound in Cloth, with Colored Inset, Price, 85c. net.

EVERY MEMBER OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SHOULD HAVE THIS BOOK

Harvests in Many Lands, Fruitage of Canadian Presbyterianism

Edited by Rev. W. S. MacTavish, B.D., Ph.D.

"This is the third of a series of Missionary Text-Books prepared for the young people of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. It presents some of the results of missionary effort in the homeland as well as in other countries where our Church is carrying on her missionary operations."—From Preface.

Illustrated. Cloth, Gilt, 75c.; Cloth, 60c.; Paper, 35c.

JUST PUBLISHED

A Canadian Book of Months

By Suzanne Marny

Prose and Verse

A prose idyll for each month, sentimental or pastoral, followed by verses delightfully fresh and delicate in their nearness to nature.

Cloth, $1.00

AN INTENSELY INTERESTING BOOK

Where the Buffalo Roamed

The Romance of Exploration,
Discovery and Development of the Canadian West

By Edith L. Marsh

In a series of striking chapters the author presents, in a style that will at once captivate young readers—and no less their elders—the story of the great explorers of the West and their arduous journeys and momentous discoveries.

Cloth, beautifully illustrated with pictures in half-tone from original paintings by Paul Kane and from photographs.

Cloth, $1.25

Little Stories of Quebec

By James Edward Le Rossignol

Every page decorated in colors, and six full-page character drawings by Laura Miller.

A beautiful book in which the author, artist, and printer seem to have poured their best talent. "Little Stories of Quebec" contains six finely written tales of those simple French-Canadian folk of old Quebec Province—the habitants. Tales of love they are of hate and jealousy, generous deeds, and patient, long-suffering, told with all the fascinating charm of the true story-tellers' art—tales that have all the picturesque qualities of the people they depict and the country where they live.

Cloth, Decorative Cover, $1.25 net; by mail, $1.37

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher, 29-33 Richmond St.
West, - TORONTO

Please mention THE TEACHERS MONTHLY when writing to advertisers