There is in Standon choir, England, a man nearly eighty-two years of age, born August 18th, 1826; he was singing in the choir as a boy on the late Queen's Coronation Day, and had been a member some time then, exactly how long he cannot remember. One of his sons is churchwarden and a member of the choir, as are two of his children, so that there are the three generations in the choir. Another interesting fact is that two of the old man's sons-in-law are churchwardens, one at Weston and the other at Cotes Heath, both in the Diocese of Lichfield.
