The term "warrant," in the case of any foreign State, includes any judicial document authorizing the arrest of a person accused or convicted of crime. ^{"Warrant :"}

REPEAL OF ACTS.

27. The Acts specified in the third schedule to this Act are hereby repealed as to the whole of Her Majesty's dominions ; and this Act (with the exception of anything contained in it which is inconsistent with the treaties referred to in the Acts so repealed) shall apply (as regards crimes committed either before or after the passing of this Act), in the case of the foreign States with which those treaties are made, in the same manner as if an Order in Council referring to such treaties had been made in pursuance of this Act, and as if such order had directed that every law and ordinance which is in force in any British possession with respect to such treaties should have effect as part of this Act. ^{Repeal of Acts in third schedule.}

Provided that if any proceedings for or in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal have been commenced under the said Acts previously to the repeal thereof, such proceedings may be completed, and the fugitive surrendered in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.
