

Why Potatoes are $1.90 a Bag in Ontario while they are Rotting in Prince Edward Island

(An Actual Conversation Between Neighbors)

Said a citizen recently, "I don't see why potatoes are $1.90 a bag in Ontario while they are rotting in Prince Edward Island."

His neighbor replied: "The reason is simple. There are no freight cars available to bring potatoes from that market to this. The only way to beat the price, is to grow your own, the same as my wife and I did."

"I don't want to rub it in," he continued, "or say I told you so, but you and I could have equal sized gardens (50 ft. deep by 40 ft. wide). They are right next to each other, so it is fair to assume the soil is equally workable."

"We both have a fair amount of spare time, yet I well recall that last spring you had a lot of quiet fun with me when I was plugging away in the garden getting the ground ready to put in vegetables."

"What has been the result?"

"By a little study, and a little work, and a disposition to laugh at our mistakes and forget our disappointments, the wife and I took off that patch all the salad vegetables we needed during the summer, and we were able to put into the cellar enough potatoes, carrots, beets, onions and parsnips to last us until the end of March. Besides which, the wife made pickles and canned tomatoes and corn to last us even longer."

"We made mistakes of course, and we didn't get all we expected out of the ground, but we learned a whole lot, and we feel certain that this year we shall get better results."

Quebec, June 6.—Permission was granted to-day for the organization of a charge of light infantry by Major-General Sir John Dill, commander of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

APPRECIATE BRITISH RULE.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, June 6.—(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency).—Hon. H. Burton, minister of railways and harbors, who will represent South Africa at the imperial conference, has arrived in England. Interviewed by Reuters, he said that Republicanism was really unpopular even among the Dutch-speaking South Africans. These people had lived a generation under the British system of government and valued its advantages and liberties which they were not prepared to exchange for the problem-at advantages of republicanism, regarding which they were skeptical. Mr. Burton said that a substantial

NORSE SHIPPING SUFFERS.

Washington, June 6.—Norway's shipping losses through German submarine warfare and other war causes continue heavy, despite the Norwegian Government's protest against the submarine warfare. During May, said a cablegram to the Norwegian legation to-day, fourteen vessels of 11,791 tons were sunk. Two seamen lost their lives and four are missing.

CHARGED WITH HETEROXOXY.

By Courier Leased Wire
Windsor, Ont., June 6.—Alleged heterodox statements made by Rev. Dr. Knowles were under consideration at the ministerial session of the London Methodist Conference this morning. The plaintiffs who charged the minister with attacking the deity and saying that Christ was not a perfect man were William McIntosh, J. M. Morris of Petrolia, and Dr. Calder of St. Catharines, who formerly lived in Petrolia. Rev. J. Powell of London appeared as counsel for plaintiffs and Rev. S. K. McVittie of Windsor for defendant. The board of arbitration heard evidence and although no definite announcement has been made, it is understood this body threw out the charges.

NEW SIOUX CHIEF IS WHITE MAN

Capt. A. B. Welch, Only
"Paleface" Ever Adopted
Into This Indian Tribe

Mandan, N.D., June 7.—(Associated Press).—With the passing of Chief John Grass, of the Sioux tribe of Indians, who recently died at Fort Yates, the headquarters of the Standing Rock agency, his mantle falls upon the shoulders of the only white man ever adopted into the tribe. Thus Captain A. B. Welch, by Mandan, adopted son of the old chief, becomes, according to ancient customs of the Sioux, the chief of the tribe.

The new Sioux chief, whose Indian name is Mato Watake, is with the United States Infantry in France and is the aide of Major General Hunter Liggett. A grandson of John Grass, Albert Grass, is serving with the same division.

Although there were formerly four chiefs of the Sioux, only one line remains, and the old chief's sons all being dead, Captain Welch, by reason of being an adopted son, takes precedence over a grandson in the direct line.

The name Mato Watake is the Sioux war name of the old chief and means "Charging Bear." When he was adopted Captain Welch chose this name as the one by which he would be known among the Indians.

Although the chief of to-day has not the same powers of the chief of years gone by, the title still gives him the respect of the Indians and they recognize him as their leader. A chief still represents his tribe in all the disputes or conferences with the government.

Captain Welch for many years has been a student of the Indian customs and formed many friendships with members of the Sioux tribe. In 1913, because of a mutual regard that had grown up between the captain and the Chief, John Grass, the latter asked the captain if he would be willing to be adopted as his son.

The captain consented, and, conforming to the ancient ceremonies of the Sioux, was taken into the tribe by a service held at Fort Yates, the old trading centre. The service began at dawn and lasted until sundown.

The Sioux now look for the return of their "pale face chief" from the great war to assume control of their affairs and act as their spokesman in all matters in which the tribe is involved.

PRODUCTS HIGH.

Washington, June 7.—(Associated Press).—Fishery products of Alaska in 1917 were valued at $51,405,260, or more than seven times the purchase price paid by the United States to Russia for the entire territory, according to the Bureau of Fisheries.

Salmon represented 93 per cent. of the year's total catch, amounting to $47,778,081, as compared with $1,120,226 for halibut, $767,729 for herring, and $744,876 for cod. Whaling operations returned products worth $553,852.

BLOODLESS WOMEN

Feel Weak, Depressed and Worn
Out All the Time—Do Not Eat
Well or Sleep Well.

It is an unfortunate fact that nine women out of ten are victims of bloodlessness in one form or another. The girl in her teens, the wife and mother, the matron of middle age, all know its miseries. To be breathless after any slight exertion—you feel depressed and worn out all day. You turn against food and cannot digest what little you do eat. At night you do not sleep well and in the morning you wake up tired and feeling unfit for the day's duties. Perhaps there are splitting headaches, or pains in the back or side. Often a feeling of dizziness and despondency. These are the signs of anaemia, or bloodlessness. There may be only one or two of these signs noticeable, but the more there are the greater are the ravages of the trouble. There is only one way to cure anaemia, and that is by increasing and enriching the blood supply, and there is only one medicine can do this speedily and effectively—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills purify the blood. It is in this way that thousands and thousands of weak, ailing girls and women have been restored to the joy of energy and good health through their use. Give these pills a fair trial and you will enjoy that health and strength that is the birthright of every woman. Mrs. W. H. Neff, Hughes avenue, Toronto, says:—"For several years I suffered from a weak and watery condition of the blood. At times I would be so bad that when I walked up stairs I would have to sit on the top step and rest. Sometimes my face would swell to about twice its natural size, and at other times my feet would swell so that I could not put my shoes on. Frequently I would take fainting spells and was wholly unfitted for any work. I was under a doctor's care most of the time, and if I felt better for a time it was only to have the trouble worse than before. While in this condition I was visiting a friend, who had great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and she got me three boxes. By the time I had taken these I felt so much better that I got six more boxes, and before I had taken them all I was again enjoying the best of health; had increased in weight, my appetite improved, and I have not had a symptom of a relapse to the old pitiable condition."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any dealer in medicines, or by mail at 50¢ a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"BLUE BOOK" BEST SELLER.

London, June 7.—(Asso. Press).—All the big book stores in London report that the "War Cabinet Report for 1917," issued as an official Blue Book and sold to the public at 25 cents a copy, has had a better sale from the day of issue than any other book on the market. Six editions or printings were exhausted within a month.

"Winged Warfare"

By MAJOR W. A. BISHOP,
V.C., D.S.O., M.C.

First they gave him the M.C.—Military Cross. As he continued to down Germans they added the D.S.O.—Distinguished Service Order. Still his record grew; so they awarded him the V.C.—Victoria Cross. Again was added a bar to his D.S.O.

This is not the story of a conqueror vauntingly told—it is the simple narrative of one of the world's greatest heroes—its very simplicity and inherent veracity but add to the marvel of Major Bishop's achievement.

A book of thrills which leaves the reader breathless after the swerve and dip of battle.
