THE LOST TRAIL

While the drizzle falls on the silmy pavement, swelling The yellow gutters' flow, And the ways are dense with the hosts of buying, selling, I know that out in the north the winds are crying Round the willowed shores of the long white lakes outlying,
And the black pine woods where my lost friends are dwelling, And the splendor of the snow.

I know that mysterious land of wood and river,
Where the half-breed hunter's range, The snow wraiths dancing upon the hill slopes ever,
The grey sun, low and strange, The bull moose skulking through winnow and through hollow, The creak and crunch of raquettes where the trackers follow, The dark spruce shades where the forest dreams forever,
But never dreams of change.

A snowshoe track leads up from the swamp and over,
Where the other trappers passed, To the drifted winter hut in the hemlock cover
That shields it from the blast; Are you there, Perry Gaultier, as when we were together, Free in the face of the grim Canadian weather, Learned the changeless spell of the North to hold and love her,
And tuck her at the last?

The snowstorm blindly drives through the woods to another The ancient trail I knew; The track we blazed is lost, and never other Has marked that blind way through;
But the same great roar through the leagues of branches sweeping Wakes the desire of a homesick heart that has long been sleeping, Oh, dark North woods, wild love and ruthless mother,
I cry, I cry to you!

Empire Day was generally observed throughout the provincial schools on the 23rd At Hants Border school, of which Miss Clara Putnam has the first or highest, and Miss Carrie L.
Borden the second department, the exercises were very interesting. Lessons were given on Canadian and British flags, and the British Empire and its vast possessions was reviewed. Patriotic songs and exercises were rendered in a way reflecting credit on the efficient teachers. The school has made excellent progress

OBITUARY

Mrs. MARY JANE SHAW
The news of the death of Mrs.
Mary Jane, wife of Capt. D. B. Shaw of Hantsport at her residence at "Mayhew Gardens," Main Street on Monday last, cast a gloom over the entire community. Her demise takes from our midst one of the noblest of characters. Mrs. Shaw was a daughter of W. A. Porter, now of Boston and a niece of Capt. H. Porter of Hantsport, and Capt. Lockhart now at sea. She leaves five sisters and one brother, as follows: Mrs.
Geseho, of the support; Mrs. Coffill, of Bridgewater; Mrs. J. L. Davison, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Rogers and brother Harry Porter, of Boston; also four daughters and a husband, to mourn their loss. Mrs. Shaw was in her 39th year. The funeral will be held tomorrow, Thursday, at 2 p. m. The relatives have the sincere sympathy of all their acquaintances.

Mrs. MARY L. BROWNE
The death occurred at her residence in Hantsport on Tuesday 28th of Mrs.
Mary Leonard Browne, in her 84th year. The deceased was taken ill some five weeks ago, and gradually sank till the day she passed away.
Mrs. Browne was one of those unusually bright, intelligent ladies, very hospitable, a fine conversationalist, and loved by all who knew her. Until her last illness, she was active and took a great interest in the world's affairs. Her life was calm, serene, self possessed, and an inspiration to her acquaintances. She leaves two daughters, Misses Agnes and Bessie.
One of Mrs. Browne's daughters, Miss Annie, who died about 18 mos. ago, was the first wife of Attorney General Longley. Funeral services will be held in St. Andrew's Episcopal church early Thursday morning.
Rev. John Reeks, rector, officiating.
The remains will then be conveyed by morning express to Middleton, where the interment will take place in Pine Grove Cemetery. We join with relatives and friends in extending in artful sympathy to the bereav-ing ones.

Victoria Day

The Hantsport people did not have a public demonstration this 24th.
Parties went to "Davis" Lake fishing, some went to Bigg's mill, some to Wolfville to take the sports, and a good crowd to Aberdeen Hea-b. During the evening most every body from this place returned to town and took in the Baptist Bean supper.

There was a fine gathering at Aver-den beach. People from Windsor, Mt. Denson, Hantsport and vicinity, witnessed the sham fight and partook of the refreshments provided by the proprietor, Mr. Shaw. Many brought lunches with them and had a regular picnic.

At Bridgewater the horse races were the attraction. Ferron and Perfection Bleed won the races.

Amherst and Sydney also celebrated with a good program of sports.

When it Hurts To Cough

The cough that hurts, the cough that gets tight in the chest is deep, getting deeper and deeper into the bronchial tubes and is making directly for the lungs, to become pneumonia, inflammation of the lungs or consumption.

Such coughs are sometimes referred to as "graveyard coughs," because they usually bring their victim to that last resting place.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has long been known as mother's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, coughs and colds. It gains in popularity every day and now has by far the largest sale of any similar preparation.

It loosens the tightness in the chest, allays the inflammation, cures the cold and prevents pneumonia, consumption and other lung troubles. 25 cents, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., To-
