You Just Simply Can't Go Without Soap

Show us the human who does not use soap, and we will show you a human with no interest in life. Society, work, play and pleasure all demand the daily consistent use of a good soap. Toilet soaps are so called because they are intended for toilet purposes. Pure soaps nicely odored, put up in attractive sizes and colors.

HUNS ESTABLISH LOW MARK IN SINKINGS

London, Oct. 3—Eleen British merchantmen of more than 1600 tons each and two vessels under 1600 tons were sunk by mines or submarines last week according to the British Admiralty statement made public this evening.

The above statement of the British Admiralty again lowers the aggregate of British merchantmen sunk by mines during any week since Germany began her intensified submarine campaign. As against fifteen vessels sunk the previous week, which was the low record since February only thirteen merchantmen are shown to have been sent to the bottom last week.

The shipping summary follows—

"Arrivals 2680; sailings 2742."
"British merchant vessels sunk by mine or submarine over 1600 tons including two previously, eleven; under 1600 tons two; fishing vessels sunk, none."
"British merchant vessels attacked, including seven previously, sixteen."

German Aviator Killed

British Headquarters in France, and Belgium, Oct. 2nd.

The body of Lieutenant Vosse, the famous German aviator, has been found in th British lines. The Lieut. was killed in a combat with British airmen. He died fighting. The death of Lieut Vosse was reported unofficially from Amsterdam last week. He was said to have been killed with his fiftieth adversary.
The Lieut. was credited in German official reports with having brought down 42 airplanes up to Sept. 10th.
