Burton L. Bentley is Reported in Hospital in France Was in Battle of Halifax, Nov. 26th.—Word has been received by J. H. Bentley, Bentley and Layton, that his son Burton L. was admitted to a military hospital, France, suffering from cordite poisoning. Young Bentley is a former well known Halifax County Academy student, and is only in his 20th year, but he has seen a lot of active fighting and so far got through all right till poisoned by cordite fumes. He originally enlisted in the 210th battalion, but was later transferred to the cyclists' corps with which unit he went overseas. In England he was again transferred to the motor machine gun corps in April 1917. He has been in France with that corps for over a year and took part in the great Cambrai drive, when that stronghold was captured by the Canadians. From Cambrai onwards till November 1st, he was steadily in the fighting. When he was poisoned his crew of motor machine gunners were driving back a detachment of Huns from a village and the fighting took the form of a huc to huc "scrapping". The crew had rushed into one house thinking to "net" a band of Huns, but the latter had "beat it" leaving the building filled with cordite fumes. Young Bentley and the whole crew, having rushed on sightly into the fumes, fell victims to the poison in them. It is encouraging to know that cordite poisoning is not as dangerous as the regular gas poisoning and the Halifax soldier's recovery is expected.

Cuban Prices for Canadian Products.

Trade Commissioner J. C. MANZER

POTATOES
 Large quantities of Early Rose and Bliss Triumph potatoes are wanted in Cuba for seed within the next six weeks and the supply offering is not nearly equal to the demand at $8 per barrel of Havana. The demand continues good for white table stock and sales are being made by Canadian dealers at $6.75 for barrels of 160 and sacks of 180 pounds of Havana. Cuba's potato supply at present is coming entirely from the United States and Canada. Canada commenced shipping new crop potatoes about the middle of September.

CODFISH
 There is a good demand for the best grades of codfish and sales are being made at $20 per cwt. of Havana. The poorer grades are not in great demand. Considerable quantities are coming forward from Nova Scotia weekly by way of Boston.

HAY
 With small arrivals the hay market continues firm at $60 per ton for a good grade. At present it is almost impossible to secure transportation for hay from Canada.

Germany Will Not Get Back Her Colonies

London, 26.—Winston Churchill, Minister of Munitions, speaking at Dundee, said he would do everything in his power to make a League of Nations a practical and powerful reality. But a League of Nations he contended was no substitute for the supremacy of the British Fleet. The Minister declared that none of the German Colonies would ever be restored to Germany and none of the conquered part of Turkey would ever be restored to Turkey.

The Beaten German Soldiers Eager to Return to Work

American Army of Occupation, Nov. 25th.—Most of the Germans in the retiring army have shown keen eagerness on reaching German soil to return to their homes immediately and engage again in their civilian occupations according to reports. A movement of the other way by Aleutians and Lorrainers who have been in the German army, is in progress. Many of them have been released by the Germans or given passes by soldiers' and sailors' committees and have reached the American lines.

Not a great deal of discipline among the German troops moving along the roads is reported. They are doing much as they please when the officers are not attempting to take severe measure because of the feeling of the men against them. Instances of petty looting in various regions are occurring according to accounts coming in.

The German commanders continue to communicate with the third army by wireless informing them of the Germans progress each day.

Visit to France This Week By the King of England

Paris, Nov. 24.—Great preparations are being made for the visit of King George to France this week. President Poincare and members of the French government will meet the king at the railway station whence a procession will drive to the foreign office where a suite of rooms has been reserved for the use of the king and his party during their stay in Paris.

The official object of the king's visit is to convey personally to the president his congratulations on the successful termination of the war. King George will pay an official visit to the president on Thursday, the day of his arrival, and in the evening a dinner will be given by the president at the Elysee palace. On Friday there will be a reception at the British embassy and on Saturday the king will leave Paris to visit the armies.
