We had a pleasant call on Wednesday from Mr. Harlan P. Shaw, who is spending his vacation at the home of his father Mr. Isaac Shaw, at Weston. Mr. Shaw, who is a former student of Acadia, is now teacher of mineralogy in the State Normal School, at Bridgewater, Mass. During his vacation he is making a collection of mineral specimens of this Province or the school.

Burpee Witter's Discount Sale is already attracting the attention of cash buyers.

NEWFOUNDLAND.—The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia has directed that a collection be made in all the Churches of his Diocese on Sunday, July 31, and that the money so raised be sent to him "for transmission to the Bishop of Newfoundland, to be expended by his committee in the effort to restore to Church people whose fire has been destroyed." In accordance with this injunction notice is hereby given that the offertory on Sunday next, July 31st, in St. John's church, Wolfville, outside the parochial envelopes will be given as the Bishop of Nova Scotia directs. "We see that our brother hath need, let us not shut up our bowels of compassion from him."

The celebrated stallion, Palo Alto, the head of Senator Sanford's stud on the Palo Alto stock farm, died of pneumonia Thursday afternoon. Several other fine animals are suffering from this malady and it seems to be spreading rapidly. The king of stallions won his crown on the kite-shaped track at Stockton on Nov. 17 of last year. On that day, with the only Marvin in the seat, he covered a mile in 2:08 1/2.

A July Song.

"Backward, turn backward,
Oh time, in thy flight,
Give us a frost again just for to-night,
I am so weary of weather so hot,
The sweat it produces, would fill a large pot.
Weary of collars that will like a rag
Weary of toiling away for the "wag,"
A snow-storm or blizzard would go very nice,
Put me on ice mother, put me on ice!"

Prat & Collins are offering Sugars at "cut rates" for cash.

Travellers on the Truro accommodation this morning came to the conclusion that there was no immediate prospect of the entire depopulation of the country. Mr. J. F. Armstrong and wife, of Wolfville, were on board with twin girls, aged 14 months, and Mr. W. E. Margeson and wife of Agricola street, Halifax, were on board with twin boys, aged 18 months. As the two sets of twins were particularly healthy and good-natured, as well as pretty, they attracted a good deal of attention from the passengers. The children bore the scrutiny and criticism of the fellow-passengers with most distinguished composure.—Halifax Echo.

The following address accompanied by a handsome mantle clock was presented to Mr. G. H. Mackinlay on his retirement from the position of station agent for the Windsor & Annapolis Ry. at Richmond, and goes to show the high regard in which Mr. Mackinlay was held by his associates.

KENTVILLE, JULY 29th.

G. H. MACKINLAY, Esq., HALIFAX.

DEAR SIR:—We learn with feelings of sincere regret that our connections with you are about to be severed by your retirement from the position of station agent at Richmond.

The associations existing between us have ever been of a most pleasant and agreeable nature.

Our regret at your withdrawal is only exceeded by the hope that every success may attend your contemplated undertaking; and it is with extreme pleasure we ask your acceptance of the accompanying remembrance of our goodwill and esteem which carries with it the best wishes of us all for your future welfare and prosperity.

ON BEHALF OF THE STATION AGENTS AND CLERKS IN THE SERVICE OF THE WINDSOR & ANNAPOLES RAILWAY.

W. NEWCOMB, Sec'y. Com.

MR. MACKINLAY'S REPLY.

DEAR SIR:—Will you kindly convey to the station agents and clerks of the W. & A. railway my hearty thanks for the handsome present of which I am the honored recipient, and of which I beg to assure you I shall greatly prize; especially as it will continue to remind me of my pleasant connection with the donors during my twenty years of busy railway life.

I highly appreciate the kindly wishes expressed for my future welfare.

Although it may not be my lot again to labour side by side with my comrades of the past years, I trust that we shall each make a successful run on the Railroad of Life, and pull into the great terminus "on time."

With heartfelt wishes for the success of each of the boys,

I remain,
Sincerely yours,
G. H. MACKINLAY

Tips to Trippers.

The "Land of Evangeline Route" is again well to the fore with exquisite summer time-tables and other reminders that this favorite road is always ready to do its level best for the travelling public. The first of the time-tables is the "Evangeline" card, with its lovely presentation in colors of Longfellow's heroine, while on the back is a valuable little sketch map of Nova Scotia, framed in blossoms. We need scarcely remind our readers that one of the features of the summer time-table is the running of the "Flying Bluenose" expresses, four times each way a week, in addition to the usual express trains, with their magnificent equipment of Pullman Cars and Saloon Coaches. A timetable now before us is devoted purely to recording the running of the "Bluenose." It is a dainty specimen of the printer's art in colors, the attractions of our lovely land being set out therein vividly for the benefit of the tourist in words and illustration.

We must give just a line to a prettily colored little announcement which reminds all and sundry that "a thing of beauty is a joy for ever." The bearing of this remark, as Jack Bunney used to say, lies in its application, viz., to the cheap return Saturday Excursion Tickets at one first-class fare, by means of which you can visit any one of the beautiful and healthful resorts that cluster along the Windsor and Annapolis Railway.

Weston Notes.

Rev. Mr. Craig, who takes the place of Rev. E. E. England, at Berwick, preached here last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Craig made a favorable impression upon his audience. It is anticipated that his pastorate will be a success.

The Rev. Thos. Trotter and family, of Toronto, are having their vacation at Mrs. T.'s old home at Canning. They gave Mrs. I. Shaw, Mrs. Trotter's aunt, a visit on Monday last. Mr. Trotter expressed himself as being highly delighted with our beautiful valley and with the progress his little boys are making in gaining health and strength since coming to Cornwallis.

Mr. W. H. Skinner and wife, from Brookings, Dakota, are making a trip through the province. They arrived in Berwick last Saturday, and are visiting friends there, here and at Wolfville, his old home. Mr. S. is one of Acadia's students and taught school in this county previous to his going "West." This training prepared him to gain prosperity in the land of his adoption.

Mr. Edward Lyons and wife, are on a visit to his father, John Lyons, Esq., Berwick.

Rev. J. Brown and family of Newton, Mass., are visiting friends at Grafton and Wolfville.
