Lower Wakefield Items

The farmers of this place have been busy the last few weeks hauling fertilizer.

The first wagon was seen on the roads April 7.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Annie Phillips.

Mrs. Annie Boyer, Mrs. Geo. Melvin and Mrs. Allen Haley spent a Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Haley.

Quite a few from this place attended the Easter concert last Tuesday evening at Upper Woodstock given by the W. M. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Nodding spent Sunday afternoon at Upper Woodstock at the home of her father, Tom Carr, who is not enjoying good health at present.

The sing was held at Wilmot Melvin's Sunday evening over thirty being present.

Florence Thompson has returned home after spending several months in Maine with her sister, Mrs. Graves.

The place was shocked by the death of Elmer Hemphill who died of scarlet fever at Hartford, Conn., where his parents he has been all winter. The remains were brought here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hemphill and laid in the Lower Wakefield cemetery.

Gordon Melvin and John Haley are still in Lowell, Mass.

Harry Boyer and Miss Phillips took tea Sunday at Mr. George Farnham's, Victoria Corner.

Entertainment Given For Good Cause Has Been Highly Commended

The "Busy Beavers" is the name of the Junior Red Cross branch in Lakeville and that energetic group of young people has chosen a very fitting title. The latest enterprise of the Busy Beavers was an entertainment given on March 27. The entertainment was splendidly successful and the Junior were heartily congratulated on their presentation of an excellent programme. The programme numbered included the Junior Red Cross pageant, piano duets and solos, recitation, and vocal numbers, a fairy drill and a "modern wedding." A sale of fancy work, a fudge table and a guessing contest were also part of the entertainment and the proceeds amounted to the very satisfactory sum of $40.

It is the intention of the Juniors to send $20 of that amount to the Junior supervisor in St. John to be used for the crippled children's fund and with the remaining $20 they will buy something that they have wanted for their school. These coveted possessions include a water cooler, individual drinking cups, and probably a First Aid cabinet.

The Junior Red Cross Branch in Lakeville has been "mothered" by the senior branch, and is a very flourishing organization. Only one other Junior branch in the province has been similarly "mothered" by the seniors, and that is the Junior branch at McAdam.

EARL D. KITCHEN

Earl D. Kitchen of Jackson town passed to his eternal rest on March 15 from his late home, aged 32 years. He had been in failing health for some time and during the last few weeks of his illness he suffered much. The funeral service was conducted from his late home and the Jackson town church by Rev. L. A. Fenwick in the presence of a very large gathering of relatives and friends. He leaves to mourn his passing a wife, mother, brother and two sisters. The floral tributes were beautiful.
