Agitators Sent Up For Trial

Winnipeg, Aug. 12—The Crown completed its case in the preliminary hearing of the eight labor leaders charged with seditious conspiracy—William Ivens, W. A. Pritchard, R. B. Russell, R. J. Johns, R. E. Bray, Geo. Armstrong, John Queens and A. A. Heaps—today and the accused were informally committed for trial at the November Assizes. Warrant of commitment was withheld pending an appeal for renewal of bail before a county judge on Wednesday forenoon.

Winnipeg, Aug. 12—James Grant, John Farnell and A. W. Martin were committed for trial today in the police court.

The three are each at liberty on $3,000 bail. They were alleged to have been active in planning the silent parade which precipitated the Winnipeg strike riots on June 21.

Oscar Schoppel, branded as an undesirable alien and ordered deported by the immigration board of inquiry, must leave Canada. The Manitoba Court of Appeals refused to grant an application made by counsel in Schoppel's behalf that the deportation order be annulled and all proceedings quashed.

The following was given out for publication by the acting immigration commissioner this afternoon:

At a meeting of the immigration board, held on Saturday, Aug. 9th, an order was made for the deportation of Samuel Blumenberg (one of the alien labor leaders arrested during the recent strike), upon his admission that he had made statements in connection with his entry into Canada which were contrary to the facts within the provisions of the Immigration Act.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 12—Magistrate R. M. Noble, formally committed the eight Winnipeg strike leaders Wm. Ivens, R. E. Bray, A. A. Heaps, R. B. Russell, John Queens, W. A. Pritchard, R. J. Johns and George Armstrong for trial at the November assizes today, and the decision as to bail will be given by Justice Cameron tomorrow.

The prisoners were released until then on the promise of defense counsel, E. J. McMurray, to Crown Prosecutor A. J. Andrews, K. C., that the prisoners would appear. Before Justice Cameron, A. J. Andrews stated that he neither opposed nor consented to admission of the accused to bail. He read excerpts from the communist manifesto put in at the trial as evidence and also from posters advertising meetings to be addressed by one or more of the accused. The activity in spreading propaganda has been not feasible in the present month. He declared that in view of the fact that he had information that lead him to believe that a general tie-up in the Dominion was staged for October 1, he thought such propaganda indiscreet.

McMurray explained the addresses given at meetings by the fact that the accused had to raise necessary funds for their defense in this manner.

Returned Soldiers Reception Public Meeting

The adjourned Public Meeting to arrange matters for the Returned Soldier Reception to be held on Wednesday August 27th was held in the Town Hall last Friday night. Mayor D. P. Doyle presided and the following gentlemen were present.

R. C. Clarke, Wm. Stables, J. P. Ryder, Perley Russell, Wm. Ferguson, A. H. Cole, G. G. Stothart, C. P. McCabe, H. H. Stuart, Chas. Sargeant, J. E. T. Lindon and R. Jarvis.

The meeting devoted the evening to discussions regarding the proposed program to be carried out on the day of the Reception. The views of the different gentlemen present were many and varied and after a number of ideas were suggested the following program was unanimously decided upon, and Mr. A. H. Cole, chairman of the Advertising Committee was authorized to publish the same. The following is the proposed program.

1. Address of Welcome, extending freedom of the Town to the Returned Soldiers, by Mayor D. P. Doyle, in front of Band Stand on Public Square at 9.30 a. m.

2. Review of Returned Soldiers at 9.45 a. m.

3. Automobile (containing Returned Soldiers) and Polymorphian Parade to leave Farrell's Field at 10.30 a. m.

4. Returned Soldiers to be conveyed by automobiles to Dinner at 12 noon.

5. General Field Sports in the Farrell Field at 2.30 p. m.

6. Base-Ball Game in Farrell Field at 3.30 p. m.

7. Speeches by Prominent Citizens from Band Stand at 8 p. m.

8. Fire works at 9.30 p. m.

It was moved, seconded and passed that Ald. Perley Russell be in charge of the Fireworks with power to choose his own committee members. It was moved, seconded and passed that Wm. Ferguson be given charge of the securing of tickets, to be presented to the Returned Soldiers, for their private use in procuring refreshments on sale at the town booths. Adjourned.

Wednesday August 27th the day of the Reception to Newcastle's Returned Soldiers is to be a gala one.

Whitneyville Entertains Her Heroes

The returned soldiers of North Esk and parts of South Esk parish were entertained last Tuesday night in Whitneyville Hall by the Whitneyville Women's Institute. Some 20 soldiers and one nurse were honored, and about 25 of these were present. The hall was crowded, at least 225 people being present.

Miss Fern MacLean presided. An address to the returned heroes was read by Rev. Stanley Weaver, Baptist pastor, and presentation of a monogram the clip to each was made by Misses Eliza Touchie and Fern MacLean.

Albert Whitney and Jas. McColm very feelingly replied on behalf of the recipients. A programme of music, recitations and readings were carried out. The soldiers present gave three cheers for the Women's Institute, to which several ladies very cordially replied. Sapper was then served to all in the building.

Those remembered in the address and presentation were the following: Nursing Sister Miss Edith MacGregor, of Cassilis, Edward Touchie, Wm Touchie, Warren Touchie, Stillman Allison, Hiram Allison, Jas. Allison, Thomas Allison, Harold Whitney, Albest Whitney, Arthur Walsh, John Hutchison, James McColm, Morrison Jordan, Homer Goodfellow, Walter Goodfellow, Harold Hill, Albert MacKay, Sr., Clarence MacIntosh, Vincent Holland, Wilbur Matchett, Harry Tozer, James Travis, James Somers, Walter Burns, Harry Johnston, Walter Matchett, Samuel Mullin, Charles Mullin, Fred Gordon and Neil Gordon.

Fitting reference was made to those heroes who died in action. Redbank and vicinity will have a similar celebration for South Esk parish at an early date.

St. John Honored Returned Heroes

St. John honored the Returned Soldiers of the Province last Thursday in a right royal manner.

Threatening in the morning, the weather man, after all, proved kind and the sun came out gloriously by the time the parade had assembled in King street east and the crowds had turned out to admire the decorations.

It was high noon before the parade had made the round of the route mapped out and by that time, many of the citizens had seen it more than once and saw it break up with a sigh of regret. This parade with the place of honor in Joy Day's events reached and surpassed all that was expected of it. Marvellous ingenuity and wonderfully elaborate care were shown in the gorgeous floats of the spectacular procession which, starting in good time and marching with perfect order wound through its wide spread course to the strains of martial and patriotic music rendered in spirited style by the bands that formed part of its imposing whole. The people of the city and all the many visiting soldiers and civilians flocked to the route of march and thronged it in some places ten rows deep, cheering and clapping with hearty vigor and often livering up proceedings, by witty and playful criticism of those taking part in the parade.

The crowd got as good as it gave and never had the city witnessed a more cheery and good natured turnout. The route of march was sufficiently long to enable some people to get more than one look at the parade by striking across the city to a different viewpoint, and the procession itself took fully an hour to pass a given point.

Soldiers Warmly Greeted. The judges had a difficult task in choosing the best of the floats. Every conceivable variety was represented but one and all had a welcoming greeting for the soldiers in whose honor and for whose pleasure the events of the day were held. Those who walked in the procession, uniformly distinguished by badges, or wonderfully arrayed in parade costume, sturdily stood to their undertaking and with few exceptions made the complete route. Along the whole length of it they met none, but smiling faces and when the starting point in King Street east was reached once more and the parade disbanded every float had its group of eager congratulators. The weather man, as stated, had done his best in giving a warm and clear, but not too hot, morning and from start to finish the Joy Day parade was an unmitigated success. There was nothing half-hearted or lukewarm in its welcoming and grateful message to the soldiers.

Respected Citizen Dies Suddenly

The death of Mr. Patrick Keating Sr. occurred suddenly early Sunday morning at his home in the Post Office Building. Deceased had been in good health up to about two weeks ago, when he suddenly took ill at the home of his daughter Mrs. P. J. McEvoy. He rallied from this illness and was beginning to feel well again, and awakened Sunday morning, apparently in very good health. While awaiting his breakfast he suddenly collapsed and died within a very few minutes. Death was due to heart trouble. The late Mr. Keating was well and favorably known and his sudden death has cast a gloom over the community.

Deceased was born in Newcastle, and lived here all his life, dying at the age of 84 years. His wife predeceased him eight years ago. He leaves to mourn the following children Mrs. P. J. McEvoy and Edward, of Newcastle, and Byron of New Haven, Conn. The funeral will be held from his late residence at 9.15 a. m. Wednesday. In terment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Longshoremen Strike

The laborers employed by the Fraser Lumber Co. Ltd., of Nelson, to load the steamer docked at their wharf went on strike this morning demanding a nine hour day and wages at the rate of 65 cents per hour. After refusing to load the steamer at Fraser's the strikers paraded to the Ritchie Mill wharf and succeeded in getting the men employed there to join them in their demands. After accomplishing their purpose, the strikers then decided to go to the D. J. Buckley Mill at Nordin and were successful in getting the men employed there to join them.
