FIREMEN RETURNED HOME
Chief Fallon returned Friday, with the ten members of the Newcastle Fire Department from Charlottetown, P. E. I. where they attended the Firemen's Tournament, which was held in that city last week. The Newcastle Firemen enjoyed their visit and are loud in their praises of the hospitality extended to them while away. The information and knowledge gained by the firemen on this trip will be of the greatest help not only to the firemen themselves but also to the community as they were in close touch with the Fire Departments of all the larger cities in the Maritime Provinces and in consequence derived a vast amount of valuable information regarding the best methods of fighting fires. While away Chief Fallon was given an opportunity to take part in a fire which occurred in the city and by so doing had a chance to see the value of a chemical engine at work at a fire in its early stages. The Newcastle Fire Department wish to thank the Town Council, the Lonsbury Co. Ltd. and all others, who helped in any way to make their trip possible and feel satisfied that much good will come from their visit.

Changes in The N. B. Government

Announcement Will be Made Shortly Before Election.

FREDERICTON, July 16—Changes in the New Brunswick cabinet will not take place until shortly before the provincial general elections are called on, Premier Veniot stated today. Reorganization of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission with the Premier as Chairman will probably take place next Monday as forecasted, and the reorganization commission will meet at once to award the first contract in connection with the development of Grand Falls tenders for the construction of the spurline railway to the power house site at the lower basin closing on Saturday.

Premier Veniot was asked, this morning before he left for Gagetown to attend the Government convention in Queens County, when Barton M. Hill, now Chief Highways Engineer would succeed him as Minister of Public Works. "That will depend upon when the general provincial elections take place," was the Premier's reply. He said that he would continue as Minister of Public Works in the meantime, and there would be no cabinet changes until shortly before the election.

Before leaving for Gagetown the Premier is understood to have had a conference with Angus McLean, President of the Bathurst Companies Ltd., who arrived here about midnight last night.

TWO THOUSAND HARVESTERS FROM EUROPE

Over two thousand harvesters from European countries are expected to pass through Quebec on their way to the Canadian West from now until the fifteenth of August. The majority of them will be from Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Germany, and the remainder from other countries of central Europe.

In order to obviate the danger of these immigrants becoming public charges when the harvest is gathered arrangements have been made with Western farmers to keep them on throughout the winter at a salary of twenty-five dollars a month. The first detachment of harvesters will reach this city on board the Empress of France towards the end of the week.

No Decision in Regard To Election For Some Time

Ottawa, July 15—Premier MacKenzie King said this evening that there would be no decision in regard to an election for some time to come. The Prime Minister made this statement at the conclusion of a cabinet meeting which was attended by but five members of the government.

Those present in addition to the Premier, were Rt. Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor and Hon. A. H. Copp, Secretary of State.

Mr. King said that the meeting had been called for the purpose of disposing of a number of routine matters which have accumulated during the ten days respite of the Cabinet. "When will the next meeting of the Cabinet be held?" he was asked. "Not for a couple of weeks," he replied.

When asked whether there had been any decision in regard to the calling of a general election, the Prime Minister laughed. "You may be quite sure of one thing. There won't be any decision in regard to an election for a good time to come," he replied.

THE SPIRIT OF COURTESY

"The secret of society is a certain heartiness and sympathy. A man who is not happy in the company cannot find any word in his memory which will fit the occasion—A man who is happy there finds in every turn of the conversation equally lucky occasions for what he has to say."—Emerson.

The spirit of courtesy springs from a desire to contribute to the comfort and happiness of all. This makes one look and behave so as to give pleasure to those with whom he associates. It means to take a real interest in those about you, to treat all kindly though not patronizingly, to be gentle and sweet tempered, to show deference to other persons and to the opinions of all.

It means to be unselfish, looking out for the pleasure of others, at the expense of personal sacrifice. It leads one to shy to the other, "sit higher," while he himself takes the low seat. It never crowds to the first table treading upon the toes and rights of others.

If one cannot conform to the spirit of courtesy he may as well give up hope of attaining the gloss of a polite manner. His natural boorishness will be sure to crop out sooner or later, and he will be valued at what he is, and not what he has been trying to fool society into believing he is.
