LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

The "Beautiful Snow" paid us its first visit of the the season yesterday.

Messrs. Bell & Gore's advertisement will appear next week.

Brakeman Doucette had his right leg broken while shunting cars at the Railway yard at Georgetown, on last Saturday.

The Benevolent Irish Society will meet in their Hall, Prince Street, on Monday evening next, the 20th inst., at 8 o'clock.

The Charles E. Lefurgy, a handsome barque of 980 tons, was recently launched from the shipyard of Hon. John Lefurgy, of Summerside.

Mrs. Burris, who for many years taught our young men and maidens "to trip the light fantastic toe," has removed to Truro, N. S.

The Northern Light arrived from Pictou last Saturday. Her repairs will be continued at the Railway wharf, where she will await winter service.

It is reported that the schooner P. L. G., owned by Capt. J. Anderson, from Pictou to Charlottetown, coal laden, has been lost, and fears are entertained as to the safety of the crew.

John Bell, Esq., a native of Cape Traverse, and formerly of the firm of Bradley & Bell, Barristers, of Ottawa, has settled down to the practice of his profession in Summerside.

In this issue is concluded the story of "Tom, the Bootblack," which has been running since first July. Next week we shall commence an original story, written for the Herald, entitled, "My Brother the Professor."

As will be observed, the greater portion of our space is devoted to the Exhibition and Dairymen's Association, and we are, therefore, unable this week to give our readers the usual amount of editorial and news matter.

A boy named Connolly had his right hand seriously injured while playing with a shot gun, in this city, on last Saturday afternoon. On the same day, a boy named Patrick Hughes had one of his legs broken by falling from Mr. Worth's water cart.

Mr. George Gardiner, Manager of the Printing Establishment of John Coombs, Esq., was married on last Wednesday evening to Miss Nellie Strong, daughter of Robert Strong, Esq., Public Lands Department. To the young couple we offer our hearty congratulations and good wishes.

Capt. McDonald, of the fishing schooner Ivanhoe, met with a fatal accident on last Friday, near Souris. The captain and one of his men went aloft to spy for a shoal of fish. The captain got up the gaff, which fell, and he slipped, falling to the deck a distance of 73 feet. He died about 40 minutes afterwards.

Our columns to-day contain the announcement of the death of Mrs. Mary Hogan, widow of the late Martin Hogan, of Charlottetown, at the advanced age of 76 years. She and her husband were old and much respected residents, and her funeral on Sunday afternoon last, attended by an immense number of persons, attested to the regard and esteem in which she was held in Charlottetown.

H. Price Webber closed his engagement here on Saturday night last, having played all week to crowded houses. He and his company return to the city for 6th and 7th November, when the play of "Aurora Floyd" will be presented to the citizens of Charlottetown for the first time. Mr. Webber left on Monday last for Souris, and will visit Georgetown and Summerside before his return. We trust that the residents of these places will accord him the patronage that he so well deserves.

The annual sessions of the Teacher's Institute were held on Thursday and Friday of last week, in the hall of Upper Prince Street School. Several members read papers in relation to various branches of education. On the first evening a public meeting was held, at which many excellent addresses were delivered, and on Friday evening a concert was given. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. John McSwain; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. R. E. Gaul; Corresponding Secretary, Miss E. E. McKinnon.

On Wednesday evening last, Watson Duchemin, son of Mr. Albert Duchemin, of this city, was accidentally shot. From the evidence at the inquest, it appears that the boy, on his way to the exhibition, called on his friend, Charles T. Hughes, a lad of about 15 years, son of F. W. Hughes, Esq. Young Hughes was amusing himself with a gun, and, in a friendly contest for the fatal instrument, it accidentally went off. The charge entered Duchemin's jaw, penetrated the brain, and resulted in almost instant death. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was "That the deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound accidentally received."

The Supreme Court opened at Summerside on the 7th inst., Chief Justice Palmer presiding. The docket consists of but one criminal and eighteen civil cases. D. S. McNutt and others vs. Matilda Crawford—an action for ejectment—verdict given for defendant. Harshman vs. McNeill, an action on promissory note, verdict for plaintiff. The case of Alexander Crozier vs. J. F. White, arose out of the Canada Temperance Act. It was alleged that the defendant gave liquor to a voter on the day of the Scott Act election. The defence applied for a non-suit on the ground that the 80th section of the Act did not apply to the case in question, and on points touching the validity of the election. The Chief Justice refused the non-suit. The trial then proceeded, and a verdict was returned for the plaintiff, subject to law points reserved. Hodgson, Q. C., for plaintiff, Davies, Q. C., for defendant. On Saturday, J. M. Whitman, commonly known as the "Tramp," was tried and convicted of an indecent assault on a girl named Catherine McKinnon, a servant in the Grady House, Summerside, and on Monday he was tried for a common assault on Mrs. Grady, but acquitted. For the former offence he was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment with hard labor in the Prince County jail.
