The Cardinal's Funeral. (Toronto Catholic Register.) The remains of the late Cardinal Taschereau were on Monday afternoon, April 18th, translated from the Palace to the Basilica, amid every manifestation of reverence that religious and civil ceremony could impart.

Frank Ryan (representing the Archbishop of Toronto); O'Brien, Halifax; Bruchet, Montreal; Bishops McDonald, Charlottetown; Dowling, Hamilton; Emond, Valleyfield; Larocque, Sherbrooke; Moreau, St. Hyacinthe; Decelles, St. Hyacinthe; Labrecque, Chatham; Blais, Rimouski; Gravel, Nicolet; Lafloche, Three Rivers; Harcourt, Providence, B. The caquet outside was covered with black cloth, caught up by tassels in graceful folds. The crucifix upon the top and the plate were of brass. The simple inscription on the plate had the date and place of birth and death of the Cardinal Archbishop of Quebec.

Students of the brotherhood also took part in the cortege. The fire brigade's detachment had its wagon draped heavily. The Governor-General was represented by Major Denison, A. D. G., and Sir Wilfrid Laurier by Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick.

Arrived at the Basilica the office was closed by Cardinal Gibbons, assisted by Fathers Rankin and Rosebush. The caquet was placed on a catafalque in the sanctuary to await the final ceremonies.
