IMPRISONED BY A SNAKE.

TWENTY years ago I was the managing clerk in an English merchant's office. My work was heavy. Many nights I sat at my books until far into the small hours of the morning. Once or twice I actually dozed off into a sleep, to be awakened by the woman who cleaned the various rooms coming to her work. The house I was connected with had a branch establishment in India doing a large business, and many curious consignments of goods, quite outside of our usual articles of commerce, passed through our hands.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

THE Sportsman has received 500L. from Sullivan to bind a match with either Smith or Kilrain, or both, for the Championship of the World. He will fight one at the beginning of April, and the other the first week in May, for 1,000L. a side.

On Thursday afternoon a meeting took place at the Sporting Life office of Smith and Kilrain, their seconds, and other officials, and a numerous body of the supporters of both men. The fact that the meeting was to be held was generally known, and as a consequence, at the hour when it took place Fleet-street was packed with spectators, who loudly cheered both the American and English champions, as they drove up.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY. THE Liverpool Journal of Commerce states that one of the most startling and important inventions of the day with regard to the propelling of steam vessels is now under consideration. Should it prove successful and meet the expectations of the inventors it will entirely revolutionize the whole of the steamer service of this country.
