Dr. Lemmon At the Citadel.

A crowd which completely filled the large auditorium and gallery listened to the Rev. Dr. Lemmon at the S. A. Citadel, last night. Brigadier Morehen was in charge of the meeting and introduced the speaker. Dr. Lemmon thanked the Brigadier for his kind words of welcome and expressed his pleasure at being able to attend the service. He then read from Rev. 22nd chap. and made a running comment on the portion read, referring to the old Patriarchs, to John the Divine, the Apostle Paul, John Knox, Luther, Wesley, Catherine Booth and the old General. Where are they? he asked. They are among the company which John saw, they are all inside. But without are dogs, the snapping, snarling curs which hound the steps of the children of God on earth, but said he, God has no room in heaven for a cur; let him be a canine or a human one, and sorcerer and whoremonger and murderers and idolaters and whosever loveth or maketh a lie.

The address all through was a powerful one and the delivery most pleasing. At the close of the service the Doctor asked for volunteers for Christ and in response to the appeal many rose to their feet and a number went publicly forward to the Mercy seat.

THE HAGUE, To-day.

Dr. Bos, Liberal democratic member of the Chamber of Deputies, who for some time has been endeavoring to form a coalition Cabinet, was relieved of his task by Queen Wilhelmina. Bos was unable to carry out the wishes of the Queen by reason of the fact that the Socialists declined to accept portfolios in the coalition Ministry. The formation of a new Cabinet made necessary by the resignation in June of Premier Hoensbeek and ministers following the elections in the second Chamber of States, the general result of which left the coalition parties supporting the ministry without a majority in the Chambers.

SASKATOON, To-day.

Local militia was in a ferment yesterday morning over a flag incident which disturbed the parade of the 105th Fusiliers. When the parade was passing down Central Ave., a young girl passing in an auto waved an American flag in front of one of the members of the Bugle Band of a regiment. The man broke the ranks, and smacking the flag, broke the staff in two and trampled it under feet. The young man instantly was taken from the ranks. At the conclusion of the parade, he was court-martialed and discharged from the regiment. The rest of the members of the Bugle Band threatened to resign permanently if the decision was allowed to stand. The regiment held a consultation, and the man was reinstated. The second decision was the signal for a triumphant outburst which lasted until late. The members of the regiment in uniform marched through the streets near the armories with the Union Jack at their head singing, "God save the King" and "Britannia."

PEKING, To-day.

An announcement from Canton that three divisions of Cantonese troops are preparing to march against the Northern forces is welcomed at Peking. The government say they will anticipate their coming. It will enable the government troops to inflict a crushing defeat on the rebels without risking the sacking and perhaps the burning of Canton City and disruption of the Southern trade. Provisional President Yuan Shi Kai issued a manifesto which asserted that most of the supporters of the rebellion belonged to Kwo Ming Fan party. He demanded a cancellation of their membership, threatening the law would be sternly enforced if he received an unsatisfactory reply. The President also ordered General Tuan Chi Kwei, Commander-in-Chief of the Government forces at Yang Tse River region to arrest and punish rebel leaders. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, as in the previous proclamation issued by the Government, is again mentioned in President Shi Kai's manifesto.
