THE CRITICAL STAGE.

LONDON, Aug. 28. Negotiations now have reached a critical stage, in the British view, and by a great majority of opinion, including those previous supporters of Home Rule, and those Liberal newspapers such as the Daily News and Manchester Guardian, which in the past have gone as far as Sinn Fein. They have declared that the time has come for dropping all pretensions of principles, and down to the business of armistice. If Sinn Fein proposes the proposals which the British Government has set forth in detail, the belief expressed is that De Valera, having said all that was necessary to assure Irish Sinn Fein's theoretical standpoint, will do this. The outstanding proposition of the Irish Government is that both Lloyd George and De Valera ended their last notes with a desire or willingness to continue discussions.

CONDITIONS BUT NO CONCESSION.

LONDON, Aug. 28. It cannot be permitted to withdraw from the British Empire. This is the outstanding feature of the note Dublin yesterday by Premier George, following consideration of the Cabinet of the whole Irish Government. Mr. Lloyd George declared he will be glad to continue negotiations with De Valera, but the Irish leaders that need prolongation of the conversation wreck the chance of an armistice and terminate the truce. The Premier's reply, and expression of the fact that Mr. Lloyd George declared he was willing to continue negotiations.

Minister Discusses Wife's Troubles in Public Statement

Think It Only Short Time Before Mrs. Sykes Will Be Fully Restored.

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Walker Park Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have ever seen anything to give such prompt results. Mrs. Sykes had been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdowns. I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored." "Tanlac is sold by leading druggist everywhere."

BIRTHDAYS.

I hope we'll never grow so cold that we shall pass their birthday by. So few the festivals of home, so swiftly from us do they fly. That when there comes a glad event, when we may celebrate a bit And fill the home with merriment, we want to make the most of it.

Sometimes I think the birthdays are the most important days we know. They are the milestones of our lives erected in the long-ago. On such a date was Grandma born, on such a date came smiling Jane, and oh, we pray they'll both be here when those glad days come back again.

The birthdays mean a lot to us, not one of them we'd ever slight. We want the decorated cake with every candle gleaming bright; To us it is no small event that one we love has older grown. With gifts and kisses all around we want to make our gladness known.

I hope we'll never grow so cold that we shall pass their birthday by. There are so many common days that Come and go and leave a sigh. That when there comes a happy day when we may celebrate a bit. We want to fill the home with love and truly make the most of it.

The Sailing Ship Still Lives.

Most people have believed that the day of the sailing vessel was nearing its end, but such appears not to be the case. There are more sailing vessels on the seas to-day than in the recent past, and more are being built. British ship owners scout the idea that the time will come when there will be no windjammers on the sea and are laying the keels of many future bark and full-rigged ships. On our own Pacific coast there has been a slight increase in the number of sailing ships. The sailing vessel is still far from passing out.—San Francisco Call.

DO YOU SELL SUGAR?

We say that if you retail sugar out of a barrel you should figure 1 cent per pound to cover cost of bags, twine, time, tear and wear on your scales, loss of 2 or 3 ounces here and there.

If your clerks are human they will make mistakes, they will waste a bag or two now and then, they will waste a little sugar here and there. Why, even you make mistakes.

Tell your clerks to weigh up 30-1 lb. bags, 30-2 lb. bags, 30-7 lb. bags; see how long they take to do this, count the bags spoiled, figure on the twine used, note what other work is being held up whilst the weighing and parcelling is being done.

Note how many customers leave your store because your clerks are too busy to serve them. Compare the weight turned out with the weight you paid for. You'll agree that 1 cent per lb. is a fair estimate of your loss in retailing sugar out of a barrel.

Lantic Sugar in yellow packages costs you less than 1 cent per lb. over the price in barrels and you don't have to guess at your cost. You know it.
