MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—An advertisement in another column requests all parties having books from the Mechanics' Institute to return them by the 4th prox, so that a catalogue may be prepared.

The Orangeville Sun is glorying in the fact that he has been shown eight potatoes of the garnet chili variety, grown on the farm of Mr. A. W. Hughson, West Mono, which weigh 1 1/2 lbs. or over two pounds each.

AGENCY.—We direct the special attention of suitable persons to an excellent opening in this district to push the business of the North British Food Cattle Company. See advertisement in another column.

CANADIAN ALMANAC FOR 1873.—This exceedingly useful publication containing information to every business man in particular, and to the public generally, is for sale at the popular bookstore of Mr. T. J. Day, Wyndham Street. Those not already in possession of one should not fail to get it without delay.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF GUELPH.—Mr. John Anderson has sent us a photograph of the bird's eye view of Guelph, cabinet size, which has been executed by Mr. Burgess. It is beautifully done, every street and house coming out almost as clear and distinct as in the lithograph copy. The photograph is of a convenient size to send by post to friends at a distance, and will give them an excellent idea of Guelph. Copies for sale at Anderson's at 25 cents each.

ALMA BLOCK.—The attention of housekeepers is specially directed to the advertisement of John A. Wood, and which enumerates an endless variety of articles suitable for domestic consumption, and purchased with a view to meet the extensive demands of Christmas and New Year's festivities made up Mr. John A. Wood's establishments of Alma Block and Lower Wyndham Street. See advertisement for yourself.

SLIPPED OFF THE SIDEWALK.—On Sunday evening as Mrs. McLagan was returning home from church, in the darkness she slipped off the sidewalk at Howard's corner into the hole which the Town authorities have stupidly left at the intersection of the streets. She was carried home in an insensible condition, and it is feared she may have received some internal injury, the extent of which Dr. Keating has not yet been able to ascertain.

THE ELORA NEWS.—Mr. F. Frankland having purchased the stock in trade of the Lightning Express, has removed it to Elora, and last week issued the first number of the Elora News. The prospectus informs us that the News will be a temperate but uncompromising advocate of Reform principles—not of the measures of a party merely, but of the great truths which underlie and force into vigorous growth the social, political, and moral progress of the Canadian people. It will recognize the necessity of, and endeavor to give its fullest aid to the Reform party of Ontario and the Dominion.

A SOVEREIGN FOR A SHILLING.—Such is the title of the Bow Bell's annual for 1873, and contains an amount of enlightening reading that cannot fail to make this Christmas annual a welcome visitor at the winter fireside. Numerous illustrations by Gilbert Huard, T. H. Wilson and Adelaide Clayton adorn its pages; and a novelty that must ensure a tremendous demand for this annual, is introduced in the shape of Baroness Mother Goose, or the Golden Egg by T. Dibbin, printed from the original M.S., with twenty-one illustrations of the most whimsical character by Mattie Prior. We do not wonder that the publishers should name this annual "A Sovereign for a Shilling." No doubt there will be a great rush of exchange business done immediately at the enterprising establishment of Mr. John Anderson, Market Square.

The Titusville Press says that Stanley, when he lectures in this country this winter, will be dressed in his best of clothes made by a Ujiji tailor, consisting of a twine stry wound around his big toe, and a straw hat cut low in the crown.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Squadron for Zanzibar.

Suppression of the Slave Trade.

The Fenian O'Leary.

Mr. Justice Quain's Idea of a Martyr.

Boston Fire Contributions.

Large Fire in Utica, N. Y.

London, Nov. 25.—The United States steamship Yantic arrived at Aden on Friday, bound for Zanzibar. The United States flag ship Colorado, orders have been changed, and it is rumored she will also go to Zanzibar.

The British steamship Briton is at Aden, awaiting the arrival of Sir Bartle Frere.

The naval officers are enthusiastic over the anticipation of an expedition against slavery. The Khedive will also send troops to Zanzibar. He desires to anticipate the English expedition in the seizure of the lake regions of the Nile.

London, Nov. 23.—Later dispatches from Devonport bring intelligence of a lamentable disaster in that harbour, causing additional loss of life among the crew of H. M. troopship Himalaya. A boat belonging to a heavy sea while proceeding to shore, and ten persons were drowned.

London, Nov. 23.—O'Leary, one of the leaders of the recent Hyde Park demonstration in favour of the release of the Fenian prisoners, made an application to Mr. Justice Quain for withdrawal of the summons to appear, as the charge against him was abandoned, and the summons to six other persons to present themselves for trial had been withdrawn. The applicant stated he contemplated emigrating to America, where his prospects would be injured should the summons remain in existence. Mr. Quain, in reply to the application, denied that the petitioner would be reproached in America for his acts here, and expressed the opinion that, instead thereof, he was more likely to be regarded in the United States as a martyr and given a public dinner and other honours. The magistrate in conclusion refused to grant the application.

The gales continue in the English Channel, and have been very destructive in the vicinity of Devonport. The transport steamer Himalaya has arrived here with the loss of eight of her crew.

London, Nov. 23.—Sir John Bowring, the English politician and author, formerly editor of the Westminster Review, member of Parliament and British Minister to China, died yesterday.

Boston, Nov. 24.—The contributions for the relief of the sufferers by the fire, up to to-night, amounts to $140,000.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Last evening the shoe store owned by the Reynolds Bros., of this city, was set on fire in the basement and was nearly all destroyed. The loss will probably be between $140,000 and $150,000. Boats are moving on the canal without obstruction.

The Rev. Centenary of John Knox.

Sunday, the 24th, was the three hundredth anniversary of the death of the great Scottish Preacher and Reformer, John Knox. When in nearly every Presbyterian pulpit throughout the world on that day his life and work was the universal theme, we may fittingly give another estimate of such life and work from the pen of a great countryman of Knox's, Thomas Carlyle:—

This that Knox did for his nation, I say, we may really call a resurrection as from death. It was not a smooth business; but it was welcome surely, and cheap at that price, had it been far rougher. On the whole, cheap at any price—as life is. The people began to live; they needed first of all to do that, as whatever cost and cost soever. Scottish Literature and Thought, Scotch Industry; James Watt, David Hume, Walter Scott, Robert Burns; I find Knox and the Reformation acting in the heart's core of every one of these persons and phenomena; I find that without the Reformation they would not have been. Or what of Scotland? The Puritanism of Scotland, became that of England, of New England. A tumult in the high church of Edinburgh spread into a universal battle and struggle over all these 130 years—there came out after fifty years a struggling, what we call the Glorious Revolution; and again the honor of Scotch Literature and Thought, Scotch Industry; James Watt, David Hume, Walter Scott, Robert Burns; I find Knox and the Reformation acting in the heart's core of every one of these persons and phenomena; I find that without the Reformation they would not have been. Or what of Scotland? The Puritanism of Scotland, became that of England, of New England.
