Wall Paper, Cheap.

PICTURES GIVEN AWAY.

1,000 Rolls, regular 5c paper, at 3c per 500 Rolls, regular 8e and 10c paper, Every cash purchaser of $1 worth or more of goods presented with a handsome picture.

E.N. HUNT

190 DUNDAS STREET.

EGERALDINE:

Romance.

So they went on in the April afternoon sunshine across the meadow, skirt-ed the pine wood where James used to "And play truant in company with Tip the terrier, and saw through the slender tree-trunks the blue haze rising from the lower ground beyond, and then they came to the farmyard, and to the old shed with the chickens and the ducks flocking about it just as they used to lo; and there in a corner stood a red wagon, which might have been the very under the shafts of which James had found Deldee.

He looked in, and began to laugh. suppose you don't remember this place, Deldee?" said he curiously.

on a sack, and-Hallo, Mrs. Corbyn. don't you recognize two old friends? he cried out, shaking hands with he "I remember you, of course, sir, and

Mrs. Corby started, and courtesied. as Geraldine shook hands with her. She had exchanged the comeliness of her youth for that of a mature age; but the expression of her face was as kind and good-humored as ever. But, through all the admiration for her transformed favorite, which her shy glances betrayed, James saw that something was puzzling or distressing the farmer's wife; and while Geraldine was engaged in caressing an ugly mon-grel which came jumping about her, Mrs. Corbyn drew him a little on one

"It is the strangest thing in the world that you should bring the young lady here today, sir. Yesterday a gentleman came making inquiries about her and saying he was her father. Geraldine caught these words, and came up quickly, just as James was trying to silence the farmer's wife.
"No; go on, please," she said quietly.

And Mrs. Corbyn, glancing from one brought you here exactly, miss, so that badly off, and, not daring to take it up to the hall herself, she left it here with a letter, which you, miss, being very little, and not understanding the

The girl looked incredulous, but feared. The story alarmed them both. for her that she owed her guardian's There was a troubled pause in the concare and love through all these years rival of the farmer himself, on whom deeper impression than it had made He guessed sooner than his wife had done who the lady was; but, after examining her well, he said, in a one which frankly intimated that in

'You were not so amiable about it, if I remember rightly," suggestsounds a liberty to say it, now you've grown into a fine lady," continued he.

with an undercurrent of pity for her

Well, I would have brought you up the ground at their feet. to the best of my means, and you should have wanted for nothing-in

A Contented Family.....

Fathers, mothers, sons and daughters will enjoy their breakfast if they have RALSTON

Breakfast Food

Pancake Flour

If you wish to enjoy pancakes without suffering from indigestion try Ralston's We have the freshest and

Fitzgerald, Scandrett & Co.,

169 DUNDAS STREET.

than that," he admitted. "But there is no knowing—you have your life before you yet, and there's ups and there's downs. And, if you ever should want the help of a plain man that's not a gentleman, but that has a few nounds at his back and a good say pounds at his back and a good roof over his head, you're welcome to come to me, madam, not for the sake of the fine lady you've grown into, but for the sake of the little creature that, the bye, I remember didn't take me much nineteen years ago." "Thank you," said Geraldine, touched by the genuine ring of the only halfgracious words. "Perhaps I appreciate you better now than I did then, to balance your evident preference for the baby over the 'fine lady.'" Mr. Corbyn laughed constrainedly and left his wife with her, in order o speak to the young gentleman, whom he led straight into the farm-yard, well out of hearing of the women, before unburdened his mind. "I'm the last person to wish to inas a tenant for years of your uncle, Sir Charles, and now yours, and stories have got about these three days, somehow. I don't wish give offense; but I have something tell you which may be of service of Sir Charles, and your sudden arrival, and Mr. Fielding's goings on,

"And what do they say?" "Oh, goodness knows, sir—a lot of ock-and-bull stories for the most part; and I only mention them because, if it hadn't been for all this commotion.

"And that was--" "A man loafing about the hall, sir, "My industrious relative, Mr. Lindley Fielding, I suspect, on vulture's

"No, sir, not Mr. Fielding."

"I don't know, Sir James-a man I never saw before" to laugh the matter off "Thanks, Corbyn: I'll have the strong-room watched." But the farmer guessed, as the gencome after the plate.

CHAPTER XVII. Geraldine and James returned to-ward the hall, anxious and unhappy. "I remember you, of course, sn, and I'm very glad to see you back; but—" ward the hall, anxious and unnappy. "But you don't remember the lady At first each tried to hide this fact from the other; but the attempt was followed and at last she said, in a a failure; and at last she said, in a met the man, and I don't like him." James stopped.

"It is not true. Be sure, whatever happens, not to let any one persuade you that it is. That man, under another name, has been my ruin; for some reason or other, he is now workhappiness, don't have anything to do from experience so bitter that, if I reasons: were to live for a hundred years, I 1. An irreverence towards Scripture could not outlive the effects of it-he child; it would shock you, disgust you, and all I want is to warn you against falling into his hands. He is a plausible scoundrel, and can cheat himself as well as the rest of the world. His love of pleasure and of his own ease "He—he described the—the lady who he mistakes for philanthropy, and he ness in an oath. It recognizes as the is constantly complaining, in all good motive to speak truth the fear of could see her again as he spoke, and faith, of the unkind feelings cherished against him by the victims of his own had been forced through difficulties to leave for a time, and he said—he said will have nothing to do with him."

he was a cousin of poor Sir Charles', "I can promise you that I do not sir, and his wife knew that, and so want to do so," she answered, simply. he was a cousin of poor Sir Charles, I can promise you that I do not of the spirit of right and sir, and his wife knew that, and so want to do so," she answered, simply, occasionally from the ter of iniquity, as James described him to be, might do to her, she instinctive 3. The respect w ly knew that life had no dangers for her compared with those it had for her importance of it-which you went and stalwart companion. The disgust sh had felt at Reginald's revelations of the manner in which James had spent James confirmed the statement by a the evening before his return home had grave nod. Questioned further, the description Mrs. Corbyn gave of the genfor him which had never died out since tleman left no possibility of doubt that her childhood, and the gratitude which it was Lindley Fielding, as both the had sprung up in her heart on learnoung man and the girl had at once ing that it was to his childish fanc versation when they learned all they This fact gave the young man a right could, which was broken by the ar- to reverence in her eyes, and she wa now far more ready to accuse hersel the sight of his wife's visitors made a for her ungrateful coldness the day be fore than him for his vices or his crimes; and she ingenuously thought it was very good of him to bear no malice for the snub of the morning before. So she walked along. his opinion she had not lived up to her side, enjoying a subdued and timid happiness in his society, until the reached the park; and James, not wish mite, if ever there was one! I would ing yet to exchange the pleasant tete have given my head to bring you up a-tete for the more restrained inter-as my own." would like to come round the garden She assented willingly, yet with hesi tation: evening was closing in, and she had dragons to fear both at Waringham Hall and Copsley James led her round to the front entrance, and to the gate opposite, confident that this result can be ac degredation; "but I never took to a child, before or since, not even to my own, as I did to you, miss."

His wife tried to check the exuberance of his reminiscences, thinking two broad beds full of blush-roses, and suntered along the box-bordered path between two broad beds full of blush-roses, will be. Those of the first and second ance of his reminiscences, thinking two broad beds full of blush-roses, will be. Those of the breaking into leaf and lilac in full blossom; while guelder-roses, syringa.

A decision has been practically reachthey might not be agreeable to the lady's ears. But Geraldine liked the blossom; while guelder-roses, syringa, and laburnum gave faint promise of encouraged him by thanking him for later beauty, and the petals of the almost all the property of the almost all the property of the propert

Geraldine was delighted with the charm of this nook, and pained by the should have wanted for nothing—in reason," he added, prudently. "I dare thought that she had never been there say you think you have done better with her guardian. James saw the shadow cross her face, and, to divert stored. There will also be a rebate on tin used in canning fruit and fish to be exported.

"It is not quite so pretty as the vi-carage garden, is it? And we have no "The applied vestry meeting of St carage garden, is it? And we have no lilac half so fine as that I saw in your hands vesterday."

The annual vestry meeting of Standard vesterday." hands yesterday.' "It was very lovely: Mr. Reginald Bamber gave it to me," she answered.

not without a spontaneous impulse of year: Clergyman's warden, John Bell "Ah, I suppose you wouldn't look at legate to the Synod, O. M. Maybee. a flower of my gathering after that!" said he, with, however, no very wild display of jealousy.

"Oh, I might look at it for the sake of the flower! I like flowers." answered she, demurely; and she accepted a handful of little, scentless white Scotch roses with carelessness which gave no intimation of the care with which they were to be treasured.

The vestry meeting of St. John's DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS, which restore the kidneys, making them filter the blood properly. DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS are the blood properly. DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS are the only specific for ard; people's warden, J. H. O'Neil: lay delegate to the Synod, J. M. O'Neil. pounded just for that purpose. They have cured hundreds of cases. They which they were to be treasured up.
"You are very hard, aren't you?" hispered James, as he

'What do you mean by 'hard'?" she "Why weren't you very unkind to me yesterday morning?" Her breath came quickly, but at first she did not answer; then she said, almost in a whisper: "Please forgive me. They had been telling me shameful things about you."

"They means Reginald Bamber. I suppose?" said he, angrily. "And what presided at each of the above-named things and have been cured of the congregation.

Rev. George W. Racey, incumbent, presided at each of the above-named things and have been cured of the congregation." stories did he tell you?"

"Oh. no, no! Don't be angry; he only than those of past years. said—he said you were—I don't like to say it—I assure you I don't believe a Make Various Representations to Those in Authority.

Opposed to War, Capital Punishment and Intoxicants.

They Are Also Against the Taking of Oaths.

Special from Our Own Correspondent Ottawa, April 24.-Mr. Lount, mem ber for Center Toronto, and Mr. Pettit, member for Prince Edward, have fere in anybody else's affairs, sir," met Premier Laurier and several of began, ominously. "But at the same his colleagues and represented to them met Premier Laurier and several of the views of the Society of Friends, at I am bound to feel an interest in family—that you will understand, of that body. The members of the sothe solicitation of the yearly meeting ciety, in their petition, urge in behalf of the stability of the Dominion, that "self-reliance, integrity and peaceful This sudden illness and death methods receive the fostering care of the Government quite as much as trade and commerce." The Society of Friends having preached for more than 200 years the settlement of all press pleasure that Parliament has I shouldn't have thought much of what declared in favor of international arbitration. "With gratitude," they say, "we note a widespread conviction that yesterday and today, after no good, in the English-speaking world at least there should be blotted out for ever the unchristian and execrable practice of war. We desire that legislators shall keep in view continually not only differences by peaceful methods, ex-high purposes of the Dominion but of the empire, and an Anglo-Saxon unity, James looked uneasy, though he tried the excellence of whose moral force the world will not be able to withstand." For this reason the Friends oppose the promotion of mili-"Well, I do. It was just in this corner that I found you sitting on the ground that I watch by Waringham Hall had not capital punishment. "We would not," they say, "withhold punishment that is of value, nor allow the freedom of citizenship without cause; but urge in the case of murder, as in all other crime, that restitution, so far as possible, to the injured, and the reformation, not the destruction, of the crim-"Oh, I hope it is not true! I have inal be the chief aim of justice in the infliction of punishment." The Friends favor the prohibition of the liquor

Probably the most interesting feature in the petition of the Friends is ing to effect yours. If you have any trust in me, any care for your own trust in me, any care for your own law is now required. These are their and Truth, to which the frequent has wrecked my body and soul!" and Truth, to which the frequent "What has he done?" she asked, careless and formal use of the oath

> 2. The false and superstitious idea which it tends to create, namely, that men are not responsible to their Creator and to society except when His

3. The respect which a Christian Government and a Christian people ought to have for the Scriptures, and for the admonition of the Founder of Christianity, who said, "Swear not at

4. Inasmuch as the declaration has already taken the place largely of the affidavit, it does not appear why it does not find complete acceptance.

These declarations are signed by Serena A. Minard, Sam P. Zavitz, Granville H. Haight and Isaac Wilson. The Premier has promised that his Government will give their earnest consideration to the requests of the AMERICAN TARIFF.

The Senate Committee Still Wrestling With Details-The Tax on Wool.

Washington, D. C., April 24.-The Re publican tariff sub-committee of the Senate finance committee want to report the tariff bill to the full commit tee on Tuesday next, but are not at a ready fading almond-blossom strewed of an increased duty on lead ore ar held on Monday, when the following officers were appointed for the ensuin people's warden, George Wade; lay del meeting was a very enthusiastic one. and the church was found to be in a flourishing condition financially. The financial affairs of this congrega tion were also in excellent condition. ispered James, as he rearranged The Belmont vestry meeting was held Fifty center in her hands and tried to look in the evening, and the following officients. The Belmont vestry meeting was held Fifty cents a box. For sale at all

Wm. G. Wade. 940 Queen east, Tocers were elected: Clergyman's war-den, W. H. Soole; people's warden, Victor Cline; lay delegate to the Synod, Dodd's Kidney Pills, and am cured o David F. Moore. The Churchwoman's Bright's disease after all else had Guild in connection with this congregation has done an almost incredible T. amount of work during the year, and to, says: "Never expecting a cure of to their indefatigable efforts may be Bright's disease, I have been agreeascribed, in a large measure, the excel-lent financial condition of the congrega-Dodd's Kidney Pills."

meetings, and they were much better

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial.

Close of the 86th Annual Conference of Ontario Public School Teachers.

Toronto, April 23 .- The annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association, which closed last night, proved highly successful and instructive. There was a wide range of topics discussed and some severe criticisms of details in the educational system of the province. On all hands it was conceded that good will result from the discussions and that the educators themselves will profit greatly from this their 36th annual conference

Mr. Mills, of the Agricultural College, Guelph, gave an address on the public chool course as a preparation for the duties and responsibilities of life In the trustees' section, Dr. McGillivray, Whitby, read a paper on examinations, and announced that there were too many and they cost too much. Hon. G. W. Ross quoted figures to show that the cost was less than in any other country where a like effiiency was maintained. As to the charge of jobbery, the Minister said it was a base insinuation against the teachers of the province, which would not be heeded by any right-thinking

Dr. B. A. Himsdale, of Ann Arbor. Mich., lectured on the psychological spects of education. Prof. Tracy read a paper on "Child

What can be done by means of our chool system to advance agriculture?" was the title of a paper handled Mr. R. H. Knox, B.A., Iroquois. Too much attention, he said, is paid to the ornamental and not enough to the "Dogmatic religious instruction in the schools is out of the question and is not really necessary," was the idea promulgated by Rev. Mr. McGregor, M.A., of Tilsonburg, in his paper on The character of the teacher as a fac in education. A very sensible paper on "Manual Training in Public Schools" was con-ributed by Mr. R. H. Cowley, M.A., Inspector Brebner, of Sarnia, spoke fail?" These reasons he alleged: A lack of adequate knowledge of the subects required to pass the primary ex- Mr. Wright runs the large Point Farm, minations, lack of self-control schoolroom, lack of resource or tact, ceremony. ck of conscience or sense of the serius responsibilities of the teacher's of-a teacher, but a combination will cause Mr. E. Y. Godfrey, Meaford High School Board, condemned the suggested removal of arithmetic and English grammar from the junior leaving exmination and the substitution of two oreign languages.

fice. Any of these defects will cripple

P.S.I., and answered in the negative Rev. W. T. Wilkins, B.A., Trenton, dealt with the subject, "Has not the to have been made by the doctor that time come when a literary qualification should be required of school trustees and especially of high school trus-

The jubilee resolution, as drafted by the sub-committee, was read to the association, and contained the usual congratulatory expression of loyalty to guson was injured by a boiler explo engrossed, signed by the president, con. 12, Yarmouth, last December, and to the Queen.

been in great demand throughout the meeting, gave an able address on "Citizenship and higher education."

One of the main points which Dr. Ross strove to make was that whatever the state might spend in aid of university education would be amply repaid by the indirect benefits she would derive the statemann throughout the statemann throughout the meeting, gave an able address on "Citizenship and higher education."

A gas well was struck in Tilsonburg a few days ago in the neighborhood of one of the old wells that had been sunk in the search for oil in years past. A match was applied, and a flame fully 25 feet high was the result. It was with great difficulty that the een in great demand throughout the Mr. Ferguson $755. the indirect benefits she would derive from the useful experimental works and resulting inventions the scientific and otherwise learned men turned out by the university would carry out. politics and throw some light on such ppics as the tariff. The Minister co luded with an appeal to the members to repay to their country the services they had received from it in the shape This closed the convention.

THE ONLY ONE

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cure Where All Other Remedies Fail.

But There's Only One Cure in the World, and That We Have Named-Hundreds Testify to Cures - Never a Failure ated in the city. Recorded.

It used to be said, "If you have Bright's disease it won't be long before ple are walking slow behind you. Bright's disease affects brainy men particularly. The brainier and more ctive a man, the more liable is he to Bright's disease. It is the name given the fatty degeneration of those organs. It is caused by excessive use alcoholic drinks. It may be caused by excessive eating of rich food. It moisture. It may be caused by im-But it's not with the cause we have

o deal. It is with the cure. It used to be thought that Bright's disease was incurable. We know better now. Restore the kidneys to health, and you may eat what you like, drink what you like, work as hard or be as active as you like, and bid defiance to death-dealing Bright's disease. But woe to the man who doesn't take care of his kidneys! When they cease to filter the blood, the blood reeks with poison. Urine actually flows in the veins. You die a lingering death. The spine and extremities first; the brain last. Dying at the bottom while liv-

Bright's disease may be cured by have cured hundreds of cases. will cure your kidneys. Try ronto, says: "I have used 36 boxes of Bright's disease after all else had T. E. Craig, 769 Queen east, Toron Miss Maud Cotterell, Belleville, Ont says: "I have used two boxes of Dodd's

Mr. James Went, Orillia, Ont., says: "I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills

Western Ontario.

Gas Well Struck in Tilsonburg This Week.

A Raleigh Township Farmer Held Up Twice in Che Day, and Robbed of $65.

R. McCully, Southwold, who was severel kicked by a horse recently, is recovering.

The Wallaceburg town council has imposed a tax of $30 on storekeepers who sell cigarettes. At the public meeting on Monday night in Thamesville, G. J. Hopkins was elected to fill the vacancy at the

The agricultural societies of North Oxford, East Oxford and Blandford held their spring stallion fair in the county town on Wednesday afternoon, with a fair measure of success. Rev. S. J. Allin, of Brussels, is undergoing treatment for catarrh of the stomach, and is in exceedingly delicate health. His pulpit work is being council board.

done in the meantime by Rev. Mr. Rice, of St. Thomas. The loss by the burning of the Norsworthy foundry at Ingersoll on Thursday is given as $3,000 to $4,000. The building was insured in the London Mutual for $6,000, and the insurance will fully cover all losses. Mrs. Mary E. Smith, of Albany, N. Y., resided in Windsor from 1878 till 1888, but since then her relations have lost sight of her. Chief Wills has been requested to look her up, as a legacy has been left to her. Hiram Jarvis, a Raleigh township farmer, while driving home on Thursday on the 8th concession, was held up by two highwaymen and robbed of Hurrying back to Chatham, Jarvis was again held up, but had no noney to be taken. On Tuesday afternoon, at the resion the subject "Why do teachers dence of Mr. George Griffin, Guelph minations, lack of self-control and a summer resort at Goderich. The elf-possession in the discipline of the Tilbury has formed a baseball club, with the following officers: Honorary president, W. C. Crawford; president, president, W. C. Crawford; president, Dr. Sharp; vice-president, F. E. Beauce; manager, W. Walsh; captain, Dr. Milligan; secretary-treasurer, A. Aubin; ground committee, S. H. Shaw, W. Milligan, W. Walsh. Under application of the defendant, reign languages.

"Are our readers up to date?" was de question handled by Mr. D. Robb, against him for $10,000 for slander. The

The action commenced by D. E. Feruson, of Yarmouth, to recover $2,000 damages from the Stevens Manufac turing Company, London, has been settled. It will be remembered that Ferer Majesty. The resolution will be sion on the farm of Arch. Ferguson, resident-elect and secretary, and sent it was alleged that the accident was due to the negligence of the company's The Minister of Education, who has servant. The Stevens Company paid once to pipe the gas, which appears to have a steady flow.

On Thursday evening a prominent resident of Dunwich joined the ranks of the benedicts. The pleasant social vent occurred at the residence of Mr. John Kendall, near Iona Station, being the marriage of his second daugh-Miss Kate, to Mr. W. A. Galbraith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Claris, of London. The bride was supported by Miss Marie McColl, of Wallacetown, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. John Galbraith.

The Chatham electric railway bylaw has passed in satisfactory form, and will be voted on, May 20. The city is to pay the company $7,500 per year for twenty years, in return for the electric ighting of the town, for 100 arc lights, BRIGHT'S DISEASE NOT INCURABLE at half a cent per hour. Railway to be complete to Cedar Springs by next and incandescents for public buildings New Year's Day. Car service in city every fifteen minutes, with 5-cent fares; return fares between Chatham and Lake Erie; five miles to be operconvicted of bigamy in the recorder's erican Nervine, and no words ourt at Detroit on Tuesday, and sentenced to one year in the house of correction. Duncan was married in 1877 to Nina Wigle at Gosfield, Essex county. Last fall he went to Detroit, boarded for a time with Mrs. Harriet Smith, made love to his landlady, and finally married her. A day or two after his marriage a friend frightened the woman into paying him sum of money, which he claimed Montrose owed him. Subsequently her suspicions became aroused, and she prosecuted Duncan.

Mrs. Matthew Gilbert died on Tues day at her home, Edgeware road, Yar-mouth, in her 71st year. The deceased Strathaven Campbell, of the River

VICE-PRESIDENT-A. T. MCMAHEN.

April Showers Don't Affect Trade Much

208, 210, 2102 & 212 DUNDAS ST.

₹ RAIN OR SUNSHINE ₹

The Big Store's always busy and always bright. There's not a corner in the whole house, upstairs or down, that is not well lighted, and in the darkest day you can judge goods and see what you're buying. Just received ex S. S. Siberian, among other things, the very latest in Silks and Dress Goods. One lot of shot Surah Silks, in a variety of shades.

Should be seen at once, as they are scarce goods and very popular. Also ten pieces Irish Table Linen, three-fourths bleached, 70 inches wide, Satin Finish, and prime value at 60c, will go at 43c for Saturday and Monday. This line staggers anything in the trade, and you'll say so when Millinery Masterpieces.

Last Saturday night our Millinery Room was a wreck, but with extra help and hard work we are now able to show a good variety in the latest styles at our popular prices.

The Boot and Shoe Department

Will be in great demand Saturday and Monday, if the prices we've planned for these days count. Don't skip the boots and shoes. Here's a breeze from the basement, bringing bargains for Saturday and Monday. This Big Department's getting more popular every day, as cusomers get better acquainted with the stocks and prices. Tinware Department.

Three-Quart Dinner Pails, all complete, regular 15c, for 9c. Tea Pots, regular price 32c, 3oc and 28c, Saturday and Monday 25c, Wringers, best make, $3 25, $3 and $2 50, Saturday and Monday, $2 62, $2 50 and $2 10. Paint Brushes, Scrubbing Brushes, and Whitewash Brushes, at manu-

Very Special, 115 Quadruple Plate Tea Pots, elegant goods, and well rorth $4, Saturday and Monday $1 95 each.

In the Grocery Department

Silver-Plated Spoons, Knives and Forks at less than manufacturers' prices. And balance of Souvenir Spoons, worth $1 25 each, for 25c while they last. Pickle Cruets, regular price $1 50, for 97c.

We'll repeat probably for the last time the Tea and Sugar Bargains. One Pound of our Imperial Blend Tea, Black or Mixed, regular price oc, for 25c, and Seven Pounds Standard Granulated Sugar for a Quartor. This is for customers only. Other stores have been trying to buy this Superior Blend of Tea, to sell at a profit or give their own a flavor; but we're on to them, and won't serve runners from neighboring stores.

Departmental, Runians & Butler.

All Letter Orders Promptly Attended to.

road, Southwold, and was born in Lanarkshire, Scotland. With her parents she came to this country over 60 years ago. Two of her brothers, Lach-lan, of St. Thomas, and Dugald. of Southwold, and one sister, Mrs. Mc-Coll, of Plymouth, Indiana, are still living. Her three children al her-John A. and Mrs. R. W. Ballah. who remain at the family and Mrs. Martha Sherk, of South Dorchester.

LA GRIPPE SCOURGE.

Who Has Not Been a Victim?-Who Has Not Had Just the Experience of Mr. Curtis?-Who May Not Have the Relief South American Nervine Afforded Him

"As a result of a severe attack of a grippe I suffered greatly from weakness and loss of appetite. I saw testi-monials of the curative powers of South American Nervine and determined to give it a trial for my case. Purchased t, and almost immediately began to improve. My strength returned to me very rapidly. When I had taken three bottles I had developed a ferocious appetite. I am as well today as ever I was, and am safe in saying David Duncan, alias Montrose, was that I can attribute it to South Am-C. J. Curtis, Windsor, Ont.

> BOY KILLED WITH A BAT. West Lorne, April 24.-At this place the other day a score of juveniles as-sembled to play baseball. The elder son of Mr. Jacob Mistele was in the act slipped from his hands and struck hi omach. Dr. Brock was summoned but the boy died the following day.

> Sold by C. McCallum and B. A. Mitch-

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

color, cleanliness, evenness of the cut-Gold Dust Corn Meal gives unequaled satis-

For equal quality,

'Gold Dust' Corn Meal

never varies in its goodness either. What's to be gained by experimenting if we guarantee the quality?

THE TILLSON CO'Y, Ltd. Tilsonburg, Ont.

Cures all Blood Diseases, from a common

Piraple to the worst Scrofulous Sore.

PRESIDENT-C. W. BELTON, M.D.

The LEAP YEAR

E. D. CRODEN, SECRETARY,

Consolidated Gold Mining Company of London, Ltd

NON-PERSONAL LIABILITY, Capitalization, 1,000,000 shares. Incorporated under Ontario Laws. Par value of each share, $)

COPY TELEGRAM

HEAD OFFICE, LONDON, ONT. STOCK NON-ASSESSABLE.

Rossland, B. C., April 22, 1897. E. D. Croden, Secretary The Leap Year Consolidated Gold Mining Co., of London, Ltd. Work well under way; property looks O. K.; beyond expectations. Main tunnel in 35 feet. 8 or 10 tons of clean ore on the dump. Particulars by mail.

JAS. C. BELTON. Applications for stock (10c per share) to officers of the company or word of it, James—Sir James; but he said—"

The be continued."

The be continued."

The be continued.

The land a bout six weeks ago, have taken three boxes, which have cured me perfectly of feet without any pain. What it has boxes, which have cured me perfectly of Bright's disease."

CLEGHORN & WETHERILL, Brokers, Dundas Street, London