AYLMER vs. No. 1 Company, C. R. I.

The cricket eleven of No. 1 Company, C. R. I., visited Aylmer yesterday and played a game with the club of that place. The visitors were beaten by nine wickets. Minimick and Williams were the only ones making double figures for London, while Montieth, Love and Potias did likewise for the home team, the last mentioned making a pretty 32. The military men report having been royally treated by the Aylmer players. The return match will be played in this city at an early date. Following is the score:

TRAGEDY IN THE BALL FIELD.

A New Orleans dispatch says: At a game of baseball in Carrolltown yesterday afternoon the decision of the umpire produced ill-feeling, and Gabe Jones, the manger of the Allen Baseball Club, whipped out his revolver and opened fire on the crowd, killing Robert Jones, a spectator, instantly, and seriously wounding Louis Foster and Richard Williams. James Brook, manager of the opposing club, fired at Jones, but was a bad marksman and hit no one. A general fight ensued and a number of persons were injured, none seriously.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The world's pacing record went to smash to-day. Old, Johnson, who paced his mile in 2:00½ in October, 1884, at Chicago, has been dethroned, and Hal Fointer reigns in his stead. Hal went around Washingston Park track to-day in 2:00½, making the fastest mile ever gone in harness. As in the case of Nancy Hanks yesterday Hal was hitched to a suiky with low wheels, pneumatic tires and ball bearings. Its weight was the same as that used by Doble in driving Nancy Hanks, 62½ pounds. Morehant Chased Into His Store.

New York, Aug. 18.—Five wild Texas steers escaped from a herd entering Haggerty's slaughter house at the foot of East Forty-fifth street Tuesday morning and ran amuck, with results which, in one case, at least, will probably prove fatal. The five animals in question were in charge of Daniel Reynold, who is now held in Jeffer som market prison swaiting the result of the injuries of half a dozen persons who were gored, torsed and trampled upon by the vicious beasts.

The 'bunch' started on their mad course at First avenue and Forty-fourth street and ran through Forty-fourth street to Third avenue, and thence to Fortieth street. There, turning west again, they went to Fifth avenue, and then through Thirty-eighth street to Seventh avenue, scattering people right and left.

At Seventh avenue the creatures separated and at that point the shouting of affrighted men, the screams of hysterical women and the barking of dogs drove them almost crazy, and there they overturned fruit stands and hucksters' wagons, while pedestrians rushed into the nearest house or stores. Then they went on in various directions and trampled upon scores of people. They weeked shops and smashed windows as they passed along, carrying consternation with them and leaving destruction in their wake.

At Nineteenth street and Seventh avenue Edward Hagan, 40 years old, of 252 West Nineteenth street, a street sweeper raised his broom and attempted to stop one of the steers.

The brute rushed at him, with a loud to the pedestrian and leavered head, and tossed him It is stated that the entries for the Aylmer races are coming in very fast.

The brute rushed at him, with a loud roar, and lowered head, and tossed him high in the air. The man fell some ten feet away, striking upon his head. His scalp was cut, and he was so badly bruised that it was found necessary to take him to the New York Hospital.

At Washington and Bank streets a big red steer attacked Edward McGavern, 19 years of age, of 524 West Fitteenth street. He gored the young man and trampled upon him, breaking four of his ribs, and then tossed him several feet. NEW WAY TO MEND A TIRE.

In England they have found a way to mend the pneumatic tire in a successful manner. The invention is patented, but our wheelmen can infringe without any danger. Supposing a puncture has been made in the tire, the neccessaries for its repair are a hollow punch, a soild stem of composition, at one end of which is fixed a circular piece of canvas, and this is folded umbrella-like to fit into the punch, and composition included, so that when inserted in the hole previously made by the punch the canvas will be spread out inside the tire, will be glued on to the interior thereof, and the hole filled with the stem of India-rubber. If the puncture is a large one, more than one hole can be made, and aseries of mushrooms inserted till the wound is healed. It will be at once seen that the process is simple, effective and neat.

The London Gun Club's fishing resort at Dorchester promises to become a magnificent place if the enterprise of the organization is allowed full scope. It wants but the third reading of the bylaw by the township council to give the privileges of the charming sport. Five thousand dollars capital stock will at once be subscribed, and the big pond there stored with trout, boats will be built, and every possible improvement made. The company is composed of leading citizens who propose making it unsurpassed as a pleasure and recreation ground, conducted on sportsmallike principles.

THE STORY OF A KISS. A Vienna Student Who Said the Wrong Thing at the Wrong Time.

A Vienna Student Who Said the Wrong Thing at the Wrong Time.

The following story goes lar to prove that the Austrian capital has learned judges who are as expedient as a Cadi of Bagdad in solving the difficult problems that come up before them. It was a young student named Bierogger, who, returning home at 6 in the morning, after a night of it, felt "all the poetry of his nature called into play by the euchanting appartion of a blooming maiden of 19 summers walking toward him in the street." Unable to resist the temptation he snatched a kiss and found himself in the arms of a policeman, and, next morning, denure and sober, he was brought up before the judge. The court was in a genial mood, and, doubtless having once been a student himself, he played the part of counsel for defendant and addressed the young lady, conciliatingly, thus:

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellegg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.
