Plumer Must Be at Mafeking

On March 6 He Was Only 32 Miles Away.

Indications That Little of the Railway Had Been Destroyed Between His Position and the beleaguered Town—News From Lady Wilson.

Nothing New From Lord Roberts—Lord Methuen's Movements—Gen. White Gone to East London—The Canadians Have Joined Roberts' Main Army Near Bloemfontein—Another Canadian Dead.

Lobatsi, Tuesday, March 6.—Col. Plumer's force reached here this morning. It is believed that only a single bridge southward has been destroyed, and otherwise the railroad is intact within five miles of Mafeking.

Cape Town, March 14.—Col. Plumer occupied Lobatsi without opposition on March 5. The Boers had retired the previous day. The railroad is damaged, but can be repaired easily.

PUSHING ON.
Col. Plumer has already dispersed several Boer police outposts in the neighborhood and is actively pushing his advance southward.

London, March 13.—A number of cablegrams have been received from Mafeking today, including one to a Birmingham firm, asking it to ship goods immediately, thus indicating belief of the speedy relief of the place.

FROM LADY WILSON.
Lady Georgina Curzon also received the following dispatch from Lady Sarah Wilson at Mafeking: "Delighted to receive your cable of Feb. 20; all well, March 1. The latter message was dispatched from Mafeking, March 4, by way of Col. Plumer's camp. The indications are that Col. Plumer was at Lobatsi, March 4, and it is only 37 miles thence to Mafeking, definite news should be speedily forthcoming."

It is believed that relief is near Mafeking. Col. Peakman was sent by Lord Roberts from Kimberley with a strong mounted force to succor Baden-Powell, as soon as French entered Kimberley. This fact was not permitted by the censor to get out until the white flag had been hoisted on the column is so near Mafeking that knowledge of its advance need no longer be held back.

HOUSE OF COMMONS RUMORS THAT
Mafeking had been relieved were in circulation this evening, but they still lack confirmation.

FURIOUS BOMBARDMENT.
London, March 14.—Lady Sarah Wilson wires the Daily Mail from Mafeking, under date of March 6 (by native runner to Lobatsi, March 9), as follows: "On Saturday, March 3, the Boers furiously bombarded the brick fields and trenches about a mile from the town, for three hours, killing one and wounding two colonials. On Monday, March 5, they made a determined attack. Owing to a misunderstanding, the colonials evacuated the foremost trench. This the Boers occupied, but reserves were called up and the trench was recaptured with a rush."

WE HAD NO CASUALTIES.
The Boers continue very active, and it takes Col. Baden-Powell and the garrison very heavily to prevent them from encroaching on our lines. Since Commandant Snyman returned from the north the siege has been prosecuted with renewed vigor. Distant explosions were heard during the last two days of February. The Boers have been blowing up sections of the Northern Railway, showing that they fear the approach of Col. Plumer's column. The new 5-inch gun made here has proved very satisfactory and accurate.

"Col. Baden-Powell warned Commandant Snyman that unless he disbanded and dispersed the native levies filling the Boer forward trenches by March 3, he (Baden-Powell) would no longer be responsible for restraining Chief Linchwe in the Sequani district."
