BEFORADE Lan 90 Official confirm

BELGRADE, Jan. 20.—Official confirmation is given to the report that a recon tion is given to the report that a recon-ciliation has been effected between ex-King Milan and his divorced wife Natalic. What the political result, if any, of this reconciliation will be cannot be prophesical but the efficial statement that the differ-ences between the ex-King and Natalie have been settled, has caused great popu-lar rejoicing.

The Khedive's Doings. Losdon, Jan. 21.—It is reported from Cairo that the Khedive has conferred the highest decoration of the Order of Osmanie nignest decoration of the Order of Osmanich upon Takri Pasha, and that he has also promised Fakri Pasha the post of grand master of ceremonies. Some student disorders, similar to those which preceded the rebellion of Arabi Pasha, have recently occurred in Cairo. They have in no way been discountenanced by the Khedive.

Distress in Vienna. VIENNA, Jan. 20.—Three new soup kitchens were opened here yesterday. The soup kitchens of the city are serving 30,000 soup kitchens of the city are serving 30,000 meals daily, but have been able to relieve only a small part of the misery of the unemployed. Bixty thousand men are out of work. The social Democratic agitators have organized committees to help the starving. Bread is given out in exchange for tickets previously distributed at Socialistic meetings. In consequence of this arrangement the Socialists are having enormous success with their agitation in spite of the bitterness of the weather. All the meetings are crowded with workingmen, who want the bread. Violent speakers are present, and incite the men to riot in case the Government makes no eilort to help them. The police force has been doubled. A triple guard will watch the Homburg during the weeding feativities of the Archduchess Margaret Sophie and Duke Abert of Wurtemburg, as a demonstration before the palace is known to have been planned.

Terrorized by Wolves. BUDA-PESTH, Jan. 20 .- The whole district around Temsoar has been terrorized by the woives, who have been driven by hundreds from the forests by cold and hunger, and now prowl about the city and through the villages. A pack of woives ran through the streets of Temsoar to-day, caught and devoured three women, and tore two men so that both will die. Gendarmes were called out and fred upon the pack, but not until five wolves had been shot could the rest be driven away. All families living in the outskirts of the city have bought fivearms. Nobody dares venture cut after dark save in the most frequented streets. Most of the schools have been closed, and the children who attend those still open are accentified by armed men. Reports from three villages near Temsoar say five young children have been torn or devoured by wolves within the last three days. The provincial authorities have offered a bounty of 5 florins each for all wolves delivered to the authorities. by the wolves, who have been driven by the authorities.

The game preserves in Hungary have been practically depopulated. All the birds which winter in the country are dead. Scores of deer have died along the highways and on the outskirts of villages. The losses suffered by the owners of preserves are estimated in the stillons.

A Sensational Arrest.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Dr. Cornelius Herz

LONDON, Jan. 20 .- Dr. Cornelius Herz was arrested at midnight on a warrant issued at the demand of the French Government on the charge of heen fraudulently implicated in Pranama awindling and corrust Herz was sick in bed and been fraudulently implicated in the Panama swinding and corruption. financiers have excited general apprehension. Outside of Royalist and Socialistic circles the arrest is regarded with a feeling closely akin to panic. Every-body feels that the worst will come out as soon as Herz shall come before the examining magistrate.

There are three counts in the indictment against Cornelius Herz. The first concerns the 600,090 francs received by him from Charles De Lesseps, the second 2,000,000 francs received by him from Baron De Reinsch, the third menacing letters written by him with the intention of black-mailing Baron de Reinach.

M. Andrieux told the Parliamentary commission of inquiry to-day, that some years ago he received from Brazil a letter signed "Amal" in which Baron de Reinach was accused of having hired the writer to poison Cornelius Herz. When the letter was shown to him Reinach pretended that he had wished merely to frighten Herz into leaving Paris. The letter from "Amal", however, was in no way jocular, but apparently meant business.

New York, Jan. 21.—A meeting in behalf of Mrs. Florence E. Maybrick, who was convicted of poisoning her husband, was convicted of poisoning her husband, and who is now in jail in England, was held yesterday afternoon in this city. The meeting was called by Dr. Helen Dinsmore, Miss G. E. Fuller and Dr. Harriett Keating, and was for the purpose of arousing interest in Mrs. Maybrick's behalf. Among the speakers were Col. A. H. H. Daws, who presided; Prof. Geo. Gunton, Rev. Dr. Charles, H. Heaton and Dr. Henrie. Dr. Dinsmore gavoan expansivereview of the Daws, who presided; Prof. Geo. Gunton, Rev. Dr. Charles, H. Heaton and Dr. Henric. Dr. Dinsmore gavoan expansive review of the case which, if true, proves Mrs. Maybrick to be a greatly wronged woman. A committee of five was appointed to further arrangements to arouse sentiment. The subscriptions raised will be used for the purpose of sending orators to England and to arouse public interest here. This is helieved to be the only feasible method for procuring a re-trial or discharge. Letters expressing sympathy were read from Mrs. S. Van Renselaer Curger; Mrs. Williams, formerly of the Board of Education; Mrs. Abraham S. Hewitt, Col. Ingersoil and Chauncey M. Depew, all of whom consented to the use of their names. It was agreed by all present that a large public meeting should be called at Cooper Union at which eminent speakers should make addresses in aid of the cause.

Port Stanley Lease.

The Cleveland Syndicate Are Independent of It.

They Can Fall Back on Two Good Offers.

What Mr. Miller Says of It-They Can Operate the Port Burwell Line or Buy the Erie and Huron Railroad-Two Alternative Routes-If Not Settled the Pert Stanley Lease Drops.

Mr. F. S. Miller, of Cleveland, the mem ber of the Ohio syndicate which has been negotiating for the lease of the London and Port Stanley Railway, is still in the city, and will remain here, pending the cutcome of the adjourned meeting of the board on Monday.

"What action will you take?" an Abverriser reporter asked him this morning.
"I cannot say just yet," replied Mr.
Miller; "we have under consideration other offers which make us independent of board on Monday.

Miller; "we have under consideration other offers which make us independent of the Port Stanley route."

"Is it true that the syndicate has been asked to build and operate a road from Port Burwell to Tilsonburg."

"Yes, and the offer is a good one. The parties interested are very anxious that we should take hold. Bonuses for its construction have been already passed by the various municipalities, and this will be supplemented by the Government grant, and it is said it will only need $30,000 additional to complete it. As far as the syndicate is concerned the terms are more favorable to us than those of the Port Stanley lease, which requires us to pay $28,000 a year. The other people do not ask a rental."

"Would you make Port Burwell your coal harbor in case you accepted the offer?"

"Yes; Port Burwell possesses a better harbor than Port Stanley does at present. It has a draft of water sufficient for our purposes. If we adopt the Port Burwell route instead of Port Stanley we will in all probability make Ashtabula our shipping port on the other side instead of Cleveand."

"And what town or city will be your distributing center for coal in place of Londiers."

"And what town or city will be your distributing center for coal in place of London?" the reporter asked.
"Woodstock, I think," said Mr. Miller.

"Woodstock, I think," said Mr. Miller.
"By the way," he continued, "we have received another offer equally as good. We have been asked to purchase the Erie and Huron Railway, running from Rondeau to Sarnia, and are seriously considering it. Rondeau has a good harbor. If we decided upon the Port Burwell route we may run our boats to both harbors. By this means we could supply ecal to both the western and & eastern sections of this part of the Province by the lake route. This would be of great advantage."

Province by the lake route. This would be of great advantage."
"Would not the large outlay necessary to purchase the Eric and Huron Railway be a drawback?"
"Nor at all. The capital behind us is unlimited, and if we can make working expenses on it that is all we want. Our immense traffic in coal would assure us a return. We have already entered into a railroad contract for 400,000 tons, as has been publicly stated, and that is a big thing in itself."
"Could you fulfill this contract as well by the other routes as by the Port Stanley?"

been publicly stated, and that is a big thing in itself."

"Could you fulfill this contract as well by the other routes as by the Port Stanley!"

"Equally as well. The Ohio coal mines from which we draw our supply have an annual output of 1,250,000 tons, and new mines are constantly being opened up. We shall be able to supply the whole of Western Ontario, and this means a big traffic."

Mr. Miller repeated that his a light of the state of the service of merchandise.

Mr. Miller repeated that his colleagues, owing to these two alternatives, were now entirely independent of the Port Stanley route, but as the matter was in such an advanced stage they would await the result of Monday's meeting of the railway board, "and if it is not settled satisfactorily we will drop it," were his significant words. Apropos of the Port Butwell offer, Mr. W. S. Lawson, of Tilsonburg, was in the city yesterday to urge Mr. Miller's acceptance of it. Bonuses of $103,200 have aiready been passed. Tilsonburg voted $10,000, Malahide $4,000, Vienna $3,000 and Bayham $35,000. The Government bonus is $61,200. traffic."

Wreck of a Lake Erie and Western Train.

Henry Griffin, the engineer who was so severely scalded, died at 7 o'clock to-night, Putt, Ind., Jan. 20.—This morning's wreck was one of the most disastrous ever recorded in the history of the Lake Erie and Western Railway. Train No. 16, the fast north bound express, struck a broken rail at the southern part of the Wabash River bridge, derailing the cars. The engine rail billiards. at the southern part of the Wabash River bridge, derailing the cars. The engine reached the abunnent of the second span when the whole thing collapsed, taking the entire train down into the bed of the frozen river, 30 teet below. The bridge span of over 100 feet also fell. The train immediately took fire and was consumed.

Only one person was killed, George C. Dorland, of Laporte, whose back was broken.

Following is a list of the injured:
Henry Griffin, engineer, probably fatally;
Fred Forbes, conductor, dangerously;
Richard Nefl, baggageman, dangerously;
W. F. Bryan, Roanoke, dangerously; A.
Wertheim, Peru; Willard Fisher, Munele;
Mrs. Rilla Raber, Denver, Ind., fatally;
Frank Wade, fireman.
There were fourteen passengers and not one of them escaped serious injury. Another serious wreck was averted by the coolness of Nefl, who, despite his injuries, ran back and signaled a freight train which was stopped almost at the edge of the bridge. Following is a list of the injured:

Rev. A. Browning, the elequent preacher, conducted special services during the past week at Queen's avenue. The attendance has been very large. One of his topics was found in the text Matthew viii., 34: "And behold the whole city came out to meet Jesus and besought him to depart out of their coasts." He said: "Gadare lived by its hogs. The quadruped hogs outside supported the biped hogs inside. Christ came and saved two of their men at the expense of 2,000 hogs. The whole city was aroused. Hogs meant revenue, money, luxury. The men were of no account; let them perish but save the hogs. And so the whole city came out and asked Christ to get away as fast as he could. This is the language of the State with regard to the liquor traffic: We must have revenue—money we are after. Let the distillers, brewers and saloon-keepers live, they bring so much hard cash; but let the thousands of men perish. This was the voice of the majority of your voters on the 7 o'clock bylaw. Hogs before men. This is the vardict of too many churches—fine buildings, large collections, large-salaried preachers. Great men sit at ease in cushioned pews and warn the preacher they hold the money bags, and he must take care how he preaches, or he or they will leave. Outside men are perishing. Hogs before men! This is the language of too many Christians: "I must look after my business. It will never do to offend customers by making religion prominent." Hogs before men! This is the language of too many Christians: "I must look after my business. It will never do to offend customers by making religion prominent." Hogs before men! If Christ saved two men at the expense of 2,000 hogs, to save twenty would mean a loss of 40,000 hogs, and that would be commercial revolution. "Don't disturb the old state of things! leave us as we are; let our men and our hogs alone!" Get out of the old ruts if they are wrong, cost you what it may.
