The Young Liberal Drummers.

The Young Liberal Drummers.

Perple near the center of the city thought the entire force at the camp had turned out for a route march last night about 10 o'clock. The rattle of snare-drums sounded like the continuous discharge of muskerry from the whole army. It proved to be the drum corps of the Young Liberal fleet. Last night was the occasion of theirst rehearsal, and they were experimenting on their brand new instruments. The triel was a perfect success; the drummers kept capital time, marched well and handled the sticks like experts. Headed by President Wanless, they traversed a number of streets, and in passing serenaded the Avertises and Free Press.

Eider Evans Recovering.

Elder Evans Recovering.

Mention was made in these columns some time ago of an accident that befell Elder Evans, of the Latter Day Saints' Church here, while in Detroit. Mr. Evans was returning home from Chicago, and was visiting triends at Detroit. While riding a bicycle a wagon coming in an opposite direction pressed him too close to an electric car which struck him with such force as to throw him some distance. He was picked up for dead and conveyed in an ambulance to the house of a friend, where he was cared for. Mr. Evans reached home the other evening feeling very weak. He desires to thank his many friends in London and elsewhere for letters and telegrams of sympathy extended to him. Garden Party at Dr. Eccles'.
