Passed by the House. Ottawa, Aug. 5. - In the House to day a farewell address to Lord Minto

AN ADDRESS TO MINTO

was introduced by the Premier. The members, said Sir Wilfrid, would be reminded with sincere regret that his lordship's term was about to be closed. Canada had been very fortunate in those who had exercised the func tions of royalty here since confederation. He had come into close touch lege Surgeons and Licentiate Royal tion. He had come into close touch lege Physicians, corner Park and with Lord Minto, and cheerfully bore testimony he was a man above all things unflinching in the performance of his duty. Lord Minto had been a onstitutional governor, maintaining a all times the dignity of the crown, and never forgetting the rights of the pec-

The Premier also paid a graceful tribute to the Countess of Minto Mr. R. L. Borden seconded the address, and expressed hearty concurrence with all that the Premier said with respect to Lord and Lady

The address was carried by a stand ing vote, and a message was carried to the senate desiring their concurence with it.

The fighting along this line was severe for more than four hours, but comparatively few Japanese were hit. The Russians were unable to employ artillery here, although they were using a battery in another fight on the right and afterwards in the valley during the retreat they fired a few shots.

The fog lifting at 7 a.m., enabled Japanese battery stationed on a height to rake the attacking force effectually. The Russians later began to retreat when the Japanese threatened their road of retirement, which was still another detachment of Japanese The Russian officers had collected their companies for retreat in close formation, as usual, making them enlandid targets their dark coats forming huge blots against the brilliant

A RUN ON THE BANK

Depositors in a Big Chicago Institution After Their Money.

Chicago, Aug. 5. - A run began te day on the Drovers' National Bank located at the main entrance of the stock yards. In reply to inquiries regarding the withdrawals, Edward Tilden, vice-president of the bank, who has been one of the spokesmen for the employers during the packing-house strike, said: "As the depositors come they will get their money. mand is senseless, and is caused by the general excitement at the yards." Shortly after the bank opened savings deposit books and demanded their money. The bank began paying, and the officials declared that every depositor who wanted his money would get it in full. Vice-President Tilden declared that the run was started by a statement made by some irresponsible person that the bank had loaned all its money to the packers for the purpose of beating the strikers. Many of the strikers had deposits in the bank, but a majority of the people who thronged crowd of people appeared with their small tradesmen doing business in the stock yards' vicinity.
