During the course of the afternoon life memberships were presented to Mrs. Callard, London; Mrs. Wallace, CLINTON'S SPRING FAIR London; Mrs. Bernice, Listowel; Mrs. Langford, Listowel.

Junior Branches Meet.

Following this meeting at 4:30 o'clock, there was a meeting of all the junior branches of the city, and the hall was filled to overflowing. His Lordship the Bishop conducted the meeting, and the principal addresses were given by Mrs. Ward, of Waterford, and Miss Young, a returned missionary from Japan. At the meeting a life membership was presented to Miss Brought to a Close. The 22nd annual meeting was brought to a close in the evening by an illustrated lecture on "The Goodly Heritage of the Church of England." His Lordship Bishop Williams presided, and the lecture was delivered by Rev. Mr. Chadwick, of Windsor, in place of the Rev. R. S. W. Howard, of Christ Church, who was indisposed. Mr. Chadwick was introduced by the bishop to an audience that crowded

The lecture dealt largely with the issionary aspect of the great Anglican Congress which was held in London, England, last year.

There were over 30,000 people pres-There were over 30,000 people present at the conference and 245 bishops from all parts of the world. There were representatives of almost every country in the world present at the conference.

Canada received large benefits from Agricultural medical properties.

Canada received large benefits from the congress, not only through the spiritual impetus received, but of the great thankoffering contributed Canada received as its share $200,000 for the work of evangelizing the great North-

The Great Congress.

Views were shown of the places most directly connected with the congress, interesting description of these historic places was given. Lambeth Palace, the home of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Westminster Abbey, where a special service was held for the delegates to the congress. Albert Hall, where the meetings were held, the largest gatherings ever gathered under one roof, along with many interesting views of old London. In concluding Mr. Chadwick made an appeal for a closer understanding of missions by the young people, and pointed to the Laymen's Conference now meeting in Toronto as a sure indication of the spirit of the times in an increasing interest in the needs of the heathen world.

Washington, April 1.—Retiring President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, it was stated today, in receiving from President Taft yesterday a tender of the ambassadorship to Great Britain expressed to the chief executive both his appreciation of the honor and the belief that he would be unable to accept the post.

President Taft it is understood asked Dr. Eliot to further consider the matter before making a formal declination and this was agreed upon Dr. Eliot, however, told the President that he hesitated to accept foreign service at this time though he felt in perfect health and capable of many years of energetic work yet to come. Harvard graduates throughout the United States it is stated are anxious that Dr. Eliot should accept the appointment, and will bring whatever influence they have to bear on him. It was said today by those who talked with Dr. Eliot that they felt, however, that his own views as to declining the post would eventually pre-
