A ROYAL RECORD

Instance of a Still-Birth in the Spanish Reigning Family.

Madrid, May 21. - Queen Victoria was delivered of an infant stillborn at out ceremony in the Royal Pantheon of the Escurial Monastery.

When told of her loss the mother wept bitterly. King Alfonso is still in London where he atended the funeral of the Queen's uncle, the late King Edward. The past few weeks had been most trying for her majesty. Early in the present month the approach of the confinement was noted by the royal physicians, and twice during the days that followed the officials of the court were summoned under the impression that the birth was imminent. While this state of doubt existed, his majesty was obliged to go to London for the royal obsequies.
