On the Level, I Don't Know What It's All About Myself: By "Bud" Fisher

LONDON TRIMS PETES IN the game on ice, London came right back and scored two runs in the next inning, Neale starting it by driving out FIRST GAME OF SERIES Brant, who made an error, allowing Neale to score and Deneau to reach Beebe Pitches Fine Game and Although Hit Hard Was Able to Pull Himself Out of Trouble-Bierbauer Has Perfect Day at Bat and "Dad" Stewart Made a Double Play Unassisted-Peterboro Battery Quarrel and Make Burlesque of Part of the Game.

There is at least one member of the Peterboro team who did not have as good an opinion of himself when he finished the game with London on Monday night as he had when he started two hours earlier in the day. Monday night as he had when he started two hours earlier in the day. That man is Belting, pitcher of the Petes, who, although pitching a good game, was like a child's book to a large a child's book to

Not that Belting did not play a art filed out, retiring the side, with good game, in spots, but he and Mc-two runs to the good. Neal, who did the backstopping, had a fall out in the early part of the game, and several of the innings were made to look like burlesques by their childish actions.

London Played Well. London played good ball. They were there with the hits when hits were needed; there with sacrifices when sacrifices were needed, and in fact nearly every man on the team was there with anything that was called for by Manager Deneau. Beebe pitched an excellent game and was given good support at times, and the London team was hitting to eat the band, as is evidenced by two three-baggers grabbed off, one by Oskee Neale and the other by Dad Stewart, and seven other minor hits.

Peterboro Was There. However, gentle reader, do not go away with the idea that Peterboro of first a little, and Belting threw, was not there with the willow, for a glance at the box score will con-errors, London seeming to be right on to get the former. A throw to the home the spot to take a base or score every plate to cut off Dunlop gave Deneau time one of those ballplayer's horrors were made, and if it had not been did so. Myers then hit to third base, for the errors there might have been and was thrown out.

Petes Score in First. Harry Brant, former London shortstop, and side-kick of Frank Fox, also a former London player, opened the game by striking out. Chapdelaine followed, and looked as if he would go him a free trip to first base. Trout then struck out, and up stepped the mighty Hilliard, of strong-arm fame, who, after offering at two Beebe's twisters, slugged one to right field, right up against third base. When third, and Chapdelaine was home. Swartz drove one to Myers, who threw sent a sizzler, that went

London tried to recover that run in their half, but although Bierbauer hit one in the vicinity of second, and later stole second and reached third on a passed ball, he was caught while trying to work a double steal with Stewart, who walked

And when the game was finished, and the score stood 8 to 5 in London's havor, not only Belting, but every member of the Peterboro team must but Belting, who got it, threw wild to McNeale, and Myers pranced around to third and Beebe to second. Linneborn flied out, and Matteson sacrificed down the third base line, scoring Myers and advancing Beebe to third. Bierbauer hit to right, scoring Beebe, but Stew-

"Looey" Had Perfect Day.

After that it was all London, Looey Bierbauer had a perfect day at bat, in the seventh, when they copped off three counters, and had the bases filled twice, but Beebe merely steadied down a little, hitched his mighty right a little more, and held them down.

London Scores Again in Sixth. London did not score again after the to centre, and Dunlop sent one near second, which was stopped neatly by Thompson, who put Stewart out before he could reach second. Dunlop got offirst a little, and Belting threw, trying to catch him, but the ball bounced out of McNeale's hands and Bierbauer scored. Neale then drove one between second and third, adone control to the server the fifth and pitched great ball.

In the eighth, Forgue got a hit, and local hitters drew charities in the first and score:

With only apair of safe plants to their credit, when seventh the locals had only a pair of safe plants to their credit, when strong down a pretty bunt, and Forgue scored. Dorbeck and Baker were the opposing twirlers, the visiting pitcher having the best of the arguitcher having the best of the arguitcher having the best of the seventh. Baker settled down after the fifth and pitched great ball.

Boosters' Day Will Advertise London, Says President Fitzgerald

"I am glad to hear that London is taking such an interest in baseball, and that the citizens appreciate good clean sport," said President Fitzgerald, of the Canadian League, over long distance telephone this morning, in commenting on Boosters' Day. "Not only will such a thing help the Londor team and the Canadian League, but i will advertise London in every city on the American continent, as being a city where people taken an interest in baseball, and where they are good

"I hope the weather will be fine nd that success will crown the efforts of the London management, and I feel sure that the people of London will turn out in full force to give their team a boost.'

DECISION CONTRARY TO BASEBALL RULES

Cincinnati, July 29.—August Herr-mann, chairman of the national baseball commission, in discussing the "unwritten law" of calling a player out who slides into first base, which upheld by President Thomas Chivington, of the American Association, today said it was not only preposterous but directly to the contrary to the rule covering the point. "A player is allowed to reach any base by running, walking, jumping or in any other manner as long as he remains within the lines prescribed," said Mr. Herrmann. "This is laid down in the rules of the game, and no umpire, president of a league, or anyone else, has any right
