CARDINAL L. BEGIN, CALLED BY DEATH

Archbishop of Quebec Succumbs After Illness of Only One Week.

Canadian Press Despatch. Quebec, July 19.—His Eminence Cardinal Louis Nazaire Begin, Archbishop of Quebec, and Primate of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada, died early this morning in the archbishop's palace, of uremia, with which disease he was stricken last Sunday night. The body lies in state in the chapel of his residence, from where it will be taken to the basilica and remain until Saturday morning, when his body will be interred in the cathedral.

Cardinal Begin was overcome on his return from St. Nazaire last Sunday. He made a gallant fight against death, and on Friday night the reports issued from his palace were of a hopeful nature, but the aged prelate suffered a relapse on Saturday morning, and sank rapidly thereafter. His eminence was conscious to the end, and died peacefully. It was due only to his remarkably strong constitution that Cardinal Begin battled so long with the illness that had overtaken him.

Yesterday morning it began to be realized that the cardinal was sinking rapidly, and in the course of the afternoon members of the clergy were summoned while the sacrament of holy communion was administered by Monsignor Langlois, coadjutor of Quebec, at 6 o'clock. It became apparent as the evening wore on that the end was but a question of hours, and the prayers for the dying were recited. It was at 12:20 o'clock this morning that the venerable prince of the church closed his eyes as he lay at the bedside as being the end.

His eminence now lies exposed in state in the chapel of his residence, the doors of which have been opened to the public, an unending stream of mourners made their way past his remains to pay their last respects to one who, it is generally recognized, has been one of the most outstanding figures in Quebec province, if not in the whole country, for many years.

STRATHROY MERCHANT SUCCEUMBS TO ILLNESS

John A. Newton Was in Clothing Business For Many Years.

Special to The Advertiser. Strathroy, July 19.—John A. Newton died tonight in Strathroy hospital after a lengthy illness. He underwent an operation some months ago, but this did not relieve his malady. He was born here, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Newton, and learned the clothing business with C. T. Scott. He entered a partnership with Douglas McKellar and George Ashwell, the firm being known as Newton, McKellar and Ashwell, and dealing in clothing and groceries. Later the firm dissolved, and Mr. Newton opened a clothing business under the firm name of Newton and Grant. Three years ago when Mr. Grant died, the name was changed to J. A. Newton and Son.

Survivors are the widow, Marie Stevenson, daughter of Alex. Stevenson, three daughters, Mrs. J. G. Williams of Toronto, and Misses Marie and Amy at home; four sons, Arthur of Toronto, Grant, John and Gordon of Strathroy; two sisters, Mrs. Argue of St. Louis, and Mrs. D. McKellar of Strathroy, and three brothers, William of Strathroy, and Fred and George of Toronto.

MESSAGES FLOOD SCOTT'S PRISON

Another Alleged Confession Received From Brother in Chicago.

Associated Press Despatch. Chicago, July 19.—More letters, telegrams and witnesses have appeared to save Russell Scott from the gallows. All of them are characterized as "fakes" by the state's attorney's office, while Scott's lawyers continue to investigate the various tips, mostly anonymous.

Scott, sentenced to hang Friday morning last for the murder of Joseph Maurer, drug clerk, during a holdup two years ago, was given a reprieve of one week six hours before the time set for his execution.

Yesterday another message purporting to be from Robert and addressed to attorneys for Scott was made public. It was mailed Thursday night in Chicago, and read:

"I hereby swear that Russell Scott is innocent of murder, and that I, his brother, am the guilty party. You want to hang him because you think someone should pay for the murder, but why hang the wrong party? As God is my judge, you will be murderers, hanging an innocent man, if you hang my brother. May your souls rot in hell." The note was typewritten and signed "Robert Scott" in ink, while beneath the signature was a postscript signed "Mrs. H. C. R." and reading: "The above was dictated to me by Mr. Scott, who is apparently near death. I believe it to be the truth from what I have seen. As soon as he is able he promises to give himself up."

If this letter is not a fraud, attorneys say, then the message from Detroit is, for the letter was written and mailed in Chicago the same night as the telegram also purporting to be from Scott, was sent from Detroit.

Scott's attorneys were pinning most of their hopes for a commutation on affidavits they said they had from two women whose identities were carefully concealed. The women were in the drug store at the time of the slaying and both said that Robert, and not Russell, was the killer, and that the killing was the result of a liquor party and not of a hold-up.

His attorneys also were looking into a statement made in Detroit by James Ball, telegraph operator, that he was present when Maurer was shot and that Robert Scott shot him after an argument over payment of a bill.

BURGLAR STEALS JEWELS AND CASH

Wallaceburg House Ransacked Early Sunday Morning by Bold Thief.

Special to The Advertiser. Wallaceburg, July 19.—A daring robbery took place early on Sunday morning at the home of Clayton Baughman, Elgin street, when jewelry valued at over $1,000 and cash $400 and $500 in cash were stolen.

The occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Baughman and her sister, Mrs. W. Meredith, retired about 2 a.m., and upon rising at 10 o'clock they discovered their loss.

The thief had entered through a front window which had been pushed open by a screwdriver after the screen had been removed.

The robber rifled the pockets of Mr. Baughman and of his sister, and took out a large amount of money, being the proceeds of Saturday's business at the store's furniture department on James street. Then the thief also stole two valuable rings from the dressing table in Mrs. Meredith's room, and extracted a purse from a writing desk in the living-room and stole $64 belonging to Mrs. Meredith. Then he also sorted over the contents of a box in an adjoining closet, taking away six rings and a 32nd degree Masonic charm set in diamonds, only overlooking one other article of value, a pair of diamond earrings. Other jewelry of less value was not touched.

The rings stolen included five diamond rings, two pearl and a wedding ring.

This theft appears to be the work of some person or persons fully acquainted with the layout of the Baughman home. Excepting for the trousseau, which were found in the dining-room, the house was in no way disarranged.

The screwdriver was found outside the house and also fingerprints by the window through which entry was made, and it is believed that exit was made by the front door, which was found unlocked.

Horse Instantly Killed in Smashup On St. Marys Road

Special to The Advertiser. St. Marys, July 19.—A bad smashup, in which the participants narrowly escaped serious and perhaps fatal injury, occurred on the St. Marys road about one mile east of the town last night, when a car driven by a Stratford man crashed into a horse and buggy in which Alvin McMaster of St. Marys was riding. The accident occurred when the horse was being turned off the road into a laneway, and the driver of the car, coming directly behind, was unable to avoid a collision. Sarnia Gives Way To Joy As Old Boys Flock Home For City's First Reunion

Three Thousand Expected As Big Week Is Auspiciously Opened.

PARADES, CARNIVAL

March of Fenian Veterans Feature Drumhead Service On Sunday.

Special to The Advertiser. Sarnia, July 19.—Sarnia is now in the midst of the greatest celebration in its civic history, the city's first old boys' reunion. Hundreds of former residents have already arrived in the city, and the trains and ferries are rapidly adding to the total every hour. By tonight it is expected that at least 2,000 of the promised 3,000 will again be in their home city.

Bright shiny weather, with the heat not too pronounced, is bringing smiles to the faces of the busy executive, and with the opening day and military day now gone by, even greater successes are promised for the remaining week.

Home reunion week was formally opened in Victoria Park, Saturday morning, but as it was realized that the greater part of the visitors were yet to arrive, the addresses of welcome by Mayor James C. Barr, Senator F. E. Pardee and R. V. Lesueur, M.P., were reserved for Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when there will be a band procession to the park, over a route announced that Duncan McIntyre, of Sarawak, Borneo, the ex-Sarnian, returning from the longest distance, would make the reply to the welcome addresses.

Celebration Opens. The celebration on Saturday opened with a parade of decorated vehicles from the fire department, department of public works, and other civic bodies. Headed by the city band and Imperial pipe band, the long line wended its way to the athletic grounds, where 3,000 people saw Sarnia trounce Blenheim in a league baseball game.

In the evening, the midway, which covers an area of the city blocks, was in full swing, with crowds estimated at about 20,000 down town. The midway is by far the largest ever seen here, and includes a street dancing floor, with accommodation for six or seven hundred.

Saturday night's throng was very orderly, and the police department intended to allow no unseemly conduct, particularly with regard to the O. T. A. spread quickly. Nevertheless, the enjoyment was noticeable everywhere. It was early Sunday morning before the last of the revelers found their way home.

Sunday was set aside for church and military observance, former pastors occupying pulpits in the morning, and basing their sermons appropriately on the special nature of the occasion.

Drums Lead Service. The military units paraded at 3 o'clock for drumhead service in Victoria Park, where already every available vantage point was taken by a crowd estimated at 4,000. Service was conducted by Rev. Canon D. W. Collins, chaplain of the Legion of Regiments, who is step of the public library, where the military units deposited on the drums the royal and Lambton regimental colors.
