METEOROLOGICAL SERVICE OF CANADA.

Fine Weather.
Toronto, Aug. 29, 11 p.m.—The depression has moved from Lake Michigan to the Province of Ontario, and has caused showery weather and strong winds in the Lake Region. The pressure is about average, with fine weather and light winds in the Maritime Provinces, and an important depression, accompanied by five, warm weather, covers the North-west Territories.
Minimum and maximum temperatures:— Calgary, 46°-88°; Prince Albert, 40°-78°; Qu'Appelle, 46°-78°; Minnedosa, 32°-70°; Winnipeg, 42°-74°; Toronto, 54°-72°; Montreal, 50°-66°; Quebec, 46°-66°; Halifax, 54°-76°.

Indications:—Lakes—West to north winds until night; fine, cool weather.

THE PRESENT SOLAR CALM.
M. Tacchini, the Italian astronomer, who keeps ceaseless watch on solar disturbances, reports to the Paris Academy that his observations in April, May and June show a low augmentation of sun spots, and concludes that the summer of 1890 is the veritable period of minimum disturbance.

On the prevailing theory which, not without reason, connects important changes in terrestrial magnetism and meteorology with great outbursts of solar activity, we might infer that the climatic eccentricities which have marked the seasons for the last twelve months will be repeated, though in a lesser degree, during the coming autumn and winter. It will be worth while for astronomers and meteorologists to note what climatic changes on the earth follow the remarkable variations of the sun's activity after the present calm period is passed.

M. P. for Haldimand, who purchased taking up his residence in this city shortly, is Canada.

The mother of the infant which was left street, the other afternoon has had her baby returned to her. The unfortunate girl is in poor circumstances, and it is not likely proceedings will be taken against her for child desertion.

Wingham Times.—The many friends of Mr. John Baile (of London) till recently conductor on the L. & B., will be sorry to learn that he has been removed from conductorship on the G. T. R. He is one of the oldest railway men in the Province, having entered the employ of the G. W. R. Co. in 1854. He was a careful, faithful and efficient officer, and was highly appreciated for his sterling honesty and worth by the travelling public. His advancing years and supposed want of activity was the reason of his removal.

Seaforth Expositor.—The numerous friends of Mr. Wm. Hawkshaw will sincerely regret that he has decided to leave the town, having read his hotel to Mr.
Jas. Murray, baggage-master at the station.
Mr. Hawkshaw has moved a new hotel in London, near the G. T. R. station, known as "the Thompson House." It is situated on Richmond street, we believe, not far from the Grigg House. It is a four story building and contains 45 rooms. It has never been occupied before. Mr.
Hawkshaw goes on the strong invitation of quite a number of the leading inhabitants of London who assure him he will do well in London. He was a popular and useful citizen, and his genial face will be missed on our streets. He served his apprenticeship at the council board. Most of our citizens have frequently enjoyed Mr. Hawkshaw's cheerful and witty remarks. He is pre-eminently a good neighbor and a kind hearted man and will long be remembered among us. He was a leading member of the Caledonian Society, and as he says himself, "was the best Scotchman of the pile," which is saying a good deal for an Irishman. Mrs. Hawkshaw is also a kind, unassuming lady, and was an acquisition to our town. Many will regret her departure. We wish them success in their new home. The people of London will find that Mr. Hawkshaw is "a jolly good fellow," and that they have no better hotel keeper in their midst than the man who leaves our town next Tuesday morning.

A union picnic of the Sunday schools of Hyde Park, Byron and Iderton was held 12 years—Will Routledge 1st, H. Price ledge 1st, Geo. Henderson 2nd, R. Ormond 3rd. Girls' races—all ages—Mabel Wickerson 1st, M. Fortner 2nd.

son 2nd. Committee race—G. H. Routledge 3rd. A base ball match—Hyde Park vs. a picked nine from the city—resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 9 to 7. At the close of the sports the contents of the baskets were disposed of. During the afternoon the children, led by Miss Wade, sang a number of hymns to the delight of everyone. Before dispersing the picketers passed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Routledge for the use of his beautiful grove.

Regarding the arrest of the two Clouses for stealing a team of horses from Mr. A.
W. Murdock, of London West, the Brantford Courier says:—"It appears that the harness was taken from one place and the horses from another. When the horses were harnessed where the harness was stolen a letter addressed to Saul Chatterton, Simcoe, was found by Detective Allen.
He called at Chatterton's place at Simcoe, but found that he had gone away. Allen came here hunting for him, but found him at Burford with the aid of Constable Adams, who also informed the London detective that the two Clouse boys had driven through a going last with the team. Constable Adams and the London officer followed and found trace of them at Cainsville, next at Onondaga, on the Reserve side, and again at Devers, near Caledonia, and later at Canfield, where trace was lost, and the officers returned to Brantford on Sunday.
Constable Adams on Sunday forenoon warded the information as to where the harness had been disposed of, and which way the gang had gone. Both before and after disposing of the horses the two Clouses stopped close to Brantford, and no doubt had it not been for the information supplied by Constable Adams they would still be at liberty."

On Thursday evening a company of citizens, comprising the Mayor, Councillors C. H. Fawcett and Robinson, and Messrs.
L. J. Danaher, P. O. Currie, A. McPherson, J. S. Macraut, J. H. McIntosh, Jas.
Woods, W. Macdonald and John and Jas.
Barry, waited upon Mr. Harry Clouse, the popular contractor of the new Post Office, at the Queen's Hotel, Stratroy, and presented him with a beautiful gold headed cane. The presentation was made by Mayor Johnston, and suitably acknowledged by the recipient. After the presentation a very enjoyable social evening was spent. The cane bore the following inscription, "Presented to Harry, by the boys, Aug. 27th, 1890."

Douglas R. Pelly, the principal witness in the Burchell case, arrived at Victoria, B.
C., on the 12th, after stopping at Regina, Calgary, Banff and Vancouver on the way.
On the 14th he left for San Francisco, where he will remain a couple of days and then start for the east, reporting at Wednesday on the 16th. Col. Benwell will also be on hand about the same time.

The Commercial Travellers' picnic to Port Stanley this afternoon, should the day prove favorable, ought to be largely patronized. The travellers are as a rule a jolly class of fellows, and will endeavor to make their friends comfortable and pleased beyond expression. The train leaves at 1.30 p.m.

Richard Mortimore, G. T. R. foreman on the work out near Parkhill, where the accident occurred about six weeks ago, gave him self up to P. M. Wells when he heard that a warrant had been issued for his arrest. It seems that he is accused of criminal negligence in connection with the fatality.

George Tierney, a little 7-year-old boy, who came here from Montreal with his parents a short time ago, wandered away from home and lost himself in London West yesterday. He was able to tell his name, and a Detective Graham restored him to his family, who lives on the Hamilton Road.

Blyth Standard.—Mr. Wm. Phillips, on Chatham street, Windsor, where the ground is being plowed up for laying of the pavement. The remains were only two feet under ground. The jaw bone was well preserved.

Mr. W. H. Ebbage, who has for several years occupied the position of foreman of the Georgetown Herald, severed his connection with that journal the other day. In parting with his employer, Mr. Warren presented him with a handsome gold-headed cane, bearing his initials.

Notwithstanding the cool weather a large crowd gathered on Victoria Park last night, and were well repaid by the music rendered by the 7th Band. The programme was one of the 7th's best, "Nearer My God, to Thee," the "Plantation Melodies" and national airs being especially admired.

Brantford Expositor.—"The 16th annual birthday of Clara Lady Dufferin was celebrated as usual on the 25th of August, at ber of ladies were present, coming from Muskoka, Oka and Montreal, and other
