It stands upon the hillside, with the tail elnis And the quaint, old-fashioned garden, gently sloping down before it, but it is a light see it just as in the days of yore.

I wemember how the sunshine fell across the golden meadows,

Beford the woodsh postery, old attiguett a
And how the summer cloudlets cast their Comprisely finding thankows natural.

In the pleasant, roomy kitchen, I see my puttle ballad, father sitting, had git care rannie in use pleasant, roomy kitchen, I see my blanch Annie o' the Banks o' the Dee," (hin's ringmer Annie o' the Banks o' the Dee,"

With leather-covered bibbs open wide I statement of the sagain entranoung every

While my sweet-faced mother listent as the listenth of the sagain entranoung every Lays away her knitting.

Shall we ever in that country, the bright and glorious Heaven.

With back the simply innocence and bliss the remain we knew, when, in our childhood, in the task dear old-home at even,

We received our angel mother's good-night. RENOES:

Niterature. RETRIBUTION

CHAPTER IX.

room was ablade with light, and Tragrant her patrone that her select school for the limitation of the Toront, for the transfer of the three toronts and transfer three toronts are three toronts. At the further end were very large folding doors, which were evidently in mess of her skin, the regal head with its mess of her skin, the regal head with its mess of her skin, the regal head with its glossy chestnut crown, the calm, deep gantly dressed people, comprising some even with the same restful peace in them of the clife and nobility of the great mess of her skin, the regal head with its glossy chestnut crown, the calm, deep gantly dressed people, comprising some even with the same restful peace in them which had so atruck him at their first education of their fair daughters to the care of the accomplished and polished pupillings to be den le was understood, though, that they of the entertainment on the still and

Bour attentative usbers, were in attendinated, and conducted each arrival to his or her seat, according to the number indi-cated upon their part of invitation, which was required to be presented at the en-12 11 Wenter, an orchest is discoursing sweetest music behind a screen of lovely are swaps open by invisible hands, reveal "I shall claim a dance with you, Caro. ing a charining little etage, draped most by and by," he said, when she told him iscotastefully and elegantly. The curtain tises, and a murmur of admiration escapes apiden throne at one aide of the stage. from the forests and meadows, bringing their wealth of trailing vines and levely

In the center of the stage there is a tall ... Ob, that was Miss Leicoster." graceful pole surmounted by a cap, from which stream gayly haed silken ribbons.

The qualcatra plays Hail to the Queen, while the receives bee frageant crows and so-pter, when the music suddenly changes contrated tones, his eyes lighting with a wish at a signal, each look she had never seen in them before. Pibbos, they lightly circle in and out in saw Raiph Durward, with a face full of braid to their extent around the golden when their extent around the golden when their extent around the golden when the said fairly shaking with laugh shaft, when, at another signal, the siry possibly you do not wonder at my of untwining begins.

chatted that so many magpies, convining told you she could heat even your favorite their andience by their wit and reportee, istion and the mastery they had pronounciation and the meet

An excellent essay in English was fol lowed by a recitation in German, which proved rather uninteresting to those who imaginable floating out upon them.

There was a moment or two of delay "I suppose it after this, when suddenly every one was thing," he replied.

they began, gradually growing in richness. corner of the spacious room was filled to its utmost ospacity Every eye was turned upon the stage, and every breath suspended, lest a single A young girl had come quietly forward.

adamd, almost before they were aware of her presence, had begun to sing her glori our song, simply accompanied by the subdued notes of a concealed piano. She stood there, calm, self-possessed, unassurmounted by a coronet of chestnut hair seves which deepened and lighted with every emotion, until no one could discern their true color; an oval face of She was clad in a dress of rich deciry whitness, with the faintest tinge velvet, trimmed with jet ornaments, and of excitament upon the musded cheeks.

and deepening in the delicate finger-tips rare creamy lace which lay full against Lord deepening in the delicate finger-tips rare creamy lace which lay full against folded so lightly over one another. A her white throat and wrists.

Solded so lightly over one another. A But in her manner lay her chief charm.

But in her manner lay her chief charm.

willing forth their glad homage to storm; and when at length the sweet acter, and know the fiber of which he was Lady Ascott to introduce me: this comstrains ceased, and the lovely singer disappeared, a literal storm or applause fol-The hesterful singer respected, her cheeks need like a damask rose, her eyes He hastened to make his apology like twin store, and a witching little smile found himself face to face with the densità de corper of her mouth. She acknowledged their encore with ex-On distant fields of rustling, ripening corn. quisite grace, and then sang that sweet

Three brown-eyed little children, with tangled credit in a reasing from Dance's unitary golden trease.

When evening train and leavest the credit in a reasing from Dance's unitary golden trease.

When evening train and leavest the credit in a reasing from Dance's unitary golden trease.

Come clinging round her neck with loving, soft carcasses,

Then merrily go tripping off to bed.

Then merrily go tripping off to bed.

Then merrily go tripping off to bed.

The product of the contain dropped, the folding doors were shut, and dropped in the sun-

the remainder of the evening in dancing. the room having been cleared for that Resneth Malcolm was there. He, with Lady Durward and Ralph, had occupied seats directly in front, and quite pleasure, and was realy interested in the part assigned to her, and much pleased that she should acquit herself so credit. ably. The other exercises he had considered rather tame and school-girlish, until that pale, calm, queenly girl had with her wondrous song. to any one; and her heart sank within then be set, a startled to any one; and her heart sank within the purpose. Caroline must be Countess Malcolm; the moment, made her feel faint and the heir of vast estates and to thirty night must seal his fate. He could presence had ever done her voice had ever They chatted brightly with each other, thrilled it before a fine meeting, and the simple though elegant attire, with its fragrant garnishing of trail-

They were now assembled to with and fallen back from her rounded and Before the guests retired she led him most attractive aspect.

Nina Leicester had shall peshaps hold her little hand for one brief mement in mine again. I shall ment him to do so while her brief mement in mine again. know who she is -some one will introduce wish the company he sought Caroline, and congratulated her upon her really fine sweetest music behind a screen of lovely performance, matil her cheeks glowed and flowers, and are long the folding doors for eyes sparalled that delight.

they were to have dencing; "and now," the audience at the beautiful tobleau it lady who sang so beautifully?"

Which one? there were several beautiful young ladies who sang," she replied, around a beautiful gri, alting upon a with a dimple of mischief in her cheeks. he added, "tell me who was that young flowers to deck the throne and snown their for he was burning with eagerness to

"Indeed !- Madam's daughter?" " Mes Proces of a mark.

"She is the loveliest person I have ever seen in my life," he breathed, in low, concentrated tones, his eyes lighting with a fairy form leaps to her feet bounds to the center of the stage, and seizing a silken made him turn quickly around, and he their many dance around the May-pole. | boysah mischief, standing by his side.

forms quickly wheel about and the work own enthusiasm now, since you also apof untwining begins ceedingly."

ceedingly."

"What! you cannot mean—surely it they routed call the loveliness on which they could call the loveliness on which were speaking that day!" Kenneth stammered, while his face flushed a deep crimbeauty, the Empress Eugenie, if you re-"Yes, I remember," he returned, and then joined in the laugh at the absurdity of his speech. "Kenneth, would you like an introduc tion to Madam Leicester ?' Caroline asked were not well versed in its deep guttern; anxious to turn his thoughts in another "I suppose it would be electrified by the clearest, sweetest tones. He offered her his arm, and they approached the madam, who was entertain-Soft and sweet as whispering sephym ing her guests with the self-possession and grace of a queen,

A word regarding the madam. She was quite tall and rather stout, and of very imposing appearance. Her hair have been, Kenneth judged, more than forty five or eight years of age. She wore it loosely confined with a comb of rarest Wnitby jet, at the back of her shapely head, while in front it lay about her fair. smooth face in lovely clustering curls. Her eyes were blue and rather sad in their expression, excepting when she was conversing with any one, when they would light up with rare intelligence, while the A form tall and graceful, with the state rest of her countenance was remarkable ly grace of a young elm; a small head, for its high-bred outline, and her fair, soft. almost girlish complextion. It was a face which seemed to ripen into more perfect beauty with every added year.

But in her manner lay her chief charm.

Lively sprays of fragrant trailing arbutus;

a parted line of carlet, revealing two rows of tiny, glistening pearls, as the glorious to have possessed a tithe of the charm or ished, except in a few of the higher class. tones rese sweeter, higher, and fuller, fascination which belonged alone to the ics and ornamental branches," she said, thus became the center of an admiring madam in conversation. One never left smiling. Trailing forth their glad homage to madam in conversation. One never left with the results of th the wendering audience with her exquis- courteous alike to old and young, she was the circles she frequented.

"Lord Malcolm, allow me to present my daughter, Nina Leicester, said madam, hastening, with true hospitality, to relieve him at ease.

Kenneth bowed low, while Miss Leicesthe critical world would regard his inwith ecstasy.

He could not bear to remove his eyes light of her presence.

He could not bear to remove his eyes light of her presence.

He returned home with his heart and said, enchanted every one who came within range of her glance or the sound of her deem were again thrown open, and may whose, and by her pharms transfixed them pleasure manifested by Lady Durward's the state of the evening in dancing willing to be thus transfixed by this calm.

She had marked his introduction to proud girl, with her wonderful magnetism, if she would only bestow upon him the light of her smile, and the sound of her sweet voice.
Poor Caro, standing by during the intro fuction, marked the sudden change in She saw the quick lighting of his eye, and indeed of his whole face, his look of profound admiration, and heard his voice avoluntarily soften to a tender cadence when he spoke her name. She saw his lips quiver with suppressed delight, and temples throb with the quickened pulsa-tion of his heart as he touched her hand. She heard Miss Leicester claim a "previous acquaintance," and greet him with a frankness and cordiality which the darling? And she would leave no stone thrilled its before. The grew white with jealous vigilance, crept away her ballow air. the intensity of his emotion, and the de-light of once more beholding the sweet misery which she could not control. which had been so indelibly stamp. Later, when Kenneth sought her to bloomed; trees leaved into schest evening star, and that I shall be an-

but Lady Durward discovered her, when green, and spread their soft shadows athematized for depriving them of its desired, but they were abut now, while

His been critical glance took in, at one iter ther the of pasts were arranged in weep, all her wonderful beauty, her heavy damask curtains of a window, accommodation of queenic, seenes formethe seenen white. queens, perfect form, the areamy white-ness of her skin, the regal head with its > CHAPTER X. THE STAR OF THE BALL.

The remainder of the evening, while in

The full, graceful sleeve of her dress the presence of the beautiful Miss Leices would give him to do so, while he men. know who she is—some one will introduce tally asserted, with a glance at the lovely me, and then—ah! how I shall delight in Man, that he should need no second in

Ally asserted, with a glance at the lovely the final that he should need no second in itation, nor any more coaxing from Caro.

Miss Leicester favored him with one tion, in prevailing upon Madam to allow draperies and fragrant flowers floating by his side, reaching out her dainty hands to him in the changes, lifting her rare, sweet fragrance to him, and all his life, from trailing arbutus better than all other blos

The dance over, they wandered away to a distant corner of the room as by common marriage, consent, where they sat chatting during Nina I had asked her to dance.

"Why, that tall, queenly girl who sang in halfan, he said, a trifle impatiently, for he was burning with the tall, and the said as trifle impatiently, and the said as trifle impatiently.

my rescue that day on Regent street. I have thought it a little strange that we did not meet again, since I got out every day." she added.

His heart bounded at her words. She had thought of him, then, even as he had thought of her. She had wondered they lid not meet, and had perhaps looked for ountered in her walks.

"No. I have not; and I scarcely ever trable armor.

"No. I have not; and I scarcely ever trable armor.

"Young men with amuseme maidens, disa looked, while you held him suspended in mid-air, as if he thought the earth for ever care to come in contact with me igain; and it will be just as well if he eturned 4 Thank you. I often think that these and I always feel more like helping to lift them up and teach them better things then like crushing them for the evil they all she held dear on earth to possess. have done," she said, with a tender, pityng look in her grave eyes.

" I fear such cases as we are discussing are almost past redemption; and a boy broad daylight ought, in my opinion, to of hatred for the gentle, unsuspecting be brought to justice."

"Perbaps so," she returned, musingly; then added: "But I believe in carrying into practice now that divine compassion ways was ready to extend the helping come act of mercy, then tenderly point two beautiful charges, was present.

He could almost have worshiped her them so simply, as if it was a commo thing for her to talk thus. He looked the admiration he dered not eicester asked, smilingly:

"Do you enjoy school exhibitions?" "I have enjoyed this one exceedingly." Upon her neck, arms, and in her ears are replied, with an earnest glance at her. and hair, she wore carbuncles of purest "Ab, yes!" she answered, appearing not to interpret his meaning; "doubtless you are interested in Miss Durward's progress; and really she has superior talents and seems bent upon cultivating them to their fullest extent. Mamma says she was draped, with almost Oriental luxury has seldom had a pupil who could grasp in bronze and richest lace, and filled an indea more quickly than she does." "Yes, Caro is a bright child, and seems London.

crowd.

ing season at the same time with her To no one but Kenneth would permit the privileges of friendship. After a few moments spent in pleasant conversation, he turned away to make room for others, and as he did so he ratter carelessly trod upon the dress of a lady behind him, who was chatting with one of the stream the guests.

Who had heretofore dishiked the gay depend of the could call the rich color the hastened to make his apology, and throng, and had almost ignored it, found to her faultless cheek or make the bean himself already impatient for the meason to her faultless cheek, or make the to come, that he might have opportunity white lids droop until their dark lashes to cultivate the acquaintance of beautiful Miss Nina Leipsster.

He never asked himself whither such emotions would lead him, nor whether cynosure of admiring eyes, and, as she While my sweet-faced mother listening are about 1 feeting are about 1 feeting and 1 feeting are about 1 feeting are about 1 feeting and 1 feeting are about 1 feeting are about 1 feeting are about 1 feeting and 1 feeting and 1 feeting and 1 feeting are about 1 feeting and 1 feeting and 1 feeting are about 1 feeting and 1 feeting an stowed upon him, and of the displeasure. out to dance, and afterward when he haughty grace from him. It was fell from her sweet lips.

She knew, too, what had occasioned her finger tips. Caroline's distress and feverishness, He knew that she did not repulse although she wisely forbore making any remark upon it; but she resolved that her, and he felt that she was drawing the young nobleman should receive no him nearer and nearer every moment more invitations to Madam Leicester's by the sweet, gentle influences which receptions, for had she not decreed that surrounded her, yet had become like unturned to accomplish her purpose.

Caroline must be Countess Malcolm; as only a Malcolm could love, and—this the moment, made her feel faint and like electric sparks through every fiber of his beautiful being of whom his had been full during the past the weeks.

They weeks:

They have met before—she is the one thoughts had been full during the past the thoughts had been full during the past they will, learn to love each other!' were the thoughts which burned like fire in her they brisence moved him as no other presence had ever done her voice thrilly and the heir of vast estates and to thirty thousand a year besides, could not be resigned without a struggle. But the aspiring lady reckoned somewhat with the thoughts which burned like fire in her they will, learn to love each other!' were the thoughts which burned like fire in her brisin, leaving her bewildered and almost numb with the sudden knowledge and pain.

They brisence moved him as no other pain, leaving her bewildered and almost in mumb with the sudden knowledge and pain.

They have met before—she is the one of without a struggle. But the aspiring lady reckoned somewhat without her host, for Kenneth received a card for every reception from that time forth, independent of the family; and it is needless to say that he availed himpain.

They have met before—she is the one of without a struggle. But the aspiring lady reckoned somewhat without a struggle. But the aspiring lady reckoned somewhat without her host, for Kenneth received a card for every reception from that time forth, independent of the family; and it is needless to say that he availed himpain and the heir of vast estates and to thirty bear to longer.

"Are you tired?" he whispered, as she laid her white hand upon his arm thought her the music ceased.

"Are you tired?" he whispered, as she laid her white hand upon his arm the thought hand a proper of the family is not the part of the family is not the part of the family is not the suddent hand a proper of the family is not the heart of th self of every invitation, much to the can be quiet for a little while," she said > her balmy air. The days grew warm and full of soft, exulted over it. over the emerald turf beneath ; birds light," he answered, lightly. sang their sweetest lays, and the whole earth arose from her long winter's nap.

The regular London season had begun, der satellites, fortunately, else it were the "British Lion" and his family had of short duration," was the somewhat come up to town to visit their city scornful reply. friends; Parliament was in session; the "Court" was at home, the opera in full that gay throng which had yielded her blast, and the parks presented their such unusual homage.

again to ber mother, and revealed the rich bracelet, which he recognized as the was he who had rendered her wound that his own hands had bound up so tenderly.

She was already wearying of it, and Nina Leicester had become for the fact that it was he who had rendered her time the guest of Lady Ascott, who had fallen in love with her beauty the first time she saw her, which was when she that it is now meaning to the fact that it was he who had rendered her time the guest of Lady Ascott, who had fallen in love with her beauty the first time she saw her, which was when she that it is now meaning to the property in the property of it, and she was already wearying of it, and she was already wearying of it, and she was already wearying of it, and the property is the property of the property is the property of so tenderly.

ous manner, and further elated him by hoping that he would favor them often with his presence at their monthly re and usited Madam Leicester to secure the entrance of her second daughter, and to or lessen it? He resolved to know within that hour; and his grand, > dance, a dance which he never forgot, nor the fair, stately figure in white silken duced with Lady Louise. to do, perhaps, had not her own daugh- and others; past elegant suites of rooms face to him, and meeting his glance with ter been secure from any danger result- leading from it on the opposite side, to her clear, beautiful eyes, in which there ing from Nina's superior charms. Not-> tay no suspicion of hauteur of coldness. withstanding that she had not yet been and separated from it by curtains of red the every movement waited a breath of introduced, her heart was given and she velvet, looped back with golden cords. man of great distinction, who was only which it looked, and was accessible by awaiting her appearance in society that means of glass windows reaching to the he might urge the hastening of their floor. It was most luxuriously furnish-Nina Leicester's appearance in the little spot of retirement for reading or ashionable world created a great sensa- meditation. tion, as Lady Ascott knew it would, and being presented by a lady of such unex- precious stones, stood in the center ceptional standing, no disagreeable ques- upon which was a golden ice-pitcher and tions were asked as to her antecedents. goblet. Near by was an inviting chair Lady Ascott vouched for her, and of green velvet, with its enticing little that of itself was sufficient guarantee of foot-rest just within reach, while beyond her fitness to be introduced among the there was a couch of the same material fashionable circles of Belgravia.

From the very first, Kenneth Malcolm Have you ever again seen the boy vulnerable point in his hitherto impene- marble basin beneath.

Young men watched the pretty game with amusement and curiosity; young maidens, disappointed of their longed.

Kenneth seated his fair companion in the velvet chair, where she could look upon the scene of enchantment beyond.

He drew the little footstool beneath toes not," the young man said, with a compassionate look at the fair wrist which lay in her lap.

"Let him go free, please; for, aside from the fright I received, there was no great harm done," Miss Leicester pleaded.

"It shall be just as you wish," Kenneth land with the spent trying to devise some content in his handsome eyes.

(To be continued.)

(To be continued.)

She had not ceased to keep herself informed of his movements, and it was poor children, brought up as they are not long before she discovered that Nina re not half to blame for their wickedness Leicester had won without an effort the

She grew pale, thin, and hollow-eyed How he admired her for it, but he re- Her hitherto bright, sparkling eyes lost she refused to eat; she could not sleep. their light, and burned with the lurid tire of jealousy; while day by day she who would use such desperate means in nursed in her bosom the fiercest flames girl, who would not intentionally have harmed a hair of her head. One evening when the season was pretty well advanced, there was a grand ball given by the Earl and Countess of Bathurst, and Lady Ascott, with her Louise, the purest kind of blonde looked lovely in clouds of soft, filmy ace, garnished with beautiful, feathery for those sweet, tender, womanly words—sentiments so different from anything he ferns. The dress just suited her styl-had ever heard a young and handsome of beauty, and she was just as charming woman advocate before; and she said as it was possible for her to be. Nine Leicester looked a queen every inch in a pearl-colored silk of heaviest peak, and then, to turn the subject, Miss and richest texture. It was heavily corded with garnet satin, of which the sleeves and body were also trimmed. Upon her neck, arms, and in her ears

Like some fair, proud lady of royal birth she looked as she entered the with the most aristocratic people in her a common compliment—one glance

"No, I have not. I do not think I from her calm, deep eyes was enough to her wondrous gift of song.

A hush fell upon the crowd in that the soleman data thick the soleman data thick calm that precedes a violent tating look, as if she would read his characteristics.

Into not think I for not think I from her calm, deep eyes was enough to are so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a confess to having some curiosity about to the young sarl very graciously, although the noticed that she bent upon him a penedath-like calm that precedes a violent tating look, as if she would read his characteristics.

And a many a latter as the former class.

Madam acknowledged her introduction to they oung sarl very graciously, although the so-called fashionable world, and mamma has finally consented to allow cur than a titled peer, after pouring into her calm, deep eyes was enough to care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a confess to having some curiosity about the so-called fashionable world, and mamma has finally consented to allow cur than a titled peer, after pouring into her calm, deep eyes was enough to care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will him beyond recovery; and many a care so very much for gay society. Still will have not the care so very much for gay society. Still will have not the care so very much for gay society. Still will have not the care so very much for gay society. Still will have not the care so very much for gay society.

swept its velvet softness.

He came to her now as she stood beneath the central chandelier, the turned her glance upon him, he caught proached her without his whole soul being stirred with the great and mighty love which he knew must soon find vent in words, or else he be banished from her presence forever.

As he drew near she unfolded her And first and guiteless days is full of rest ting, with the company, congratulations of heart and district and guiteless days is full of rest ting, with the company, congratulations of heart and district and guiteless days is full of rest ting, with the company, congratulations of heart and brain fully, wholly unmindful of the in Rome, of a stately princess, who, it was jealous cooks and from with his heart and brain fully, wholly unmindful of the in Rome, of a stately princess, who, it was jealous cooks and from which Caroline led her away the observed of all observed of all admirers. vers, the admired of all admirers. Scarcely a word was spoken by them during the dance, but their silence to-

She had marked his introduction to night seemed more expressive than Madam's daughter with anything but language. It was enough for Kenneth to be near her, to look into the peaceful She had watched him as he led her restful face, which never turned with sat absorbed by her beauty, and tisten-ing so intently to every word which and feel it rest confidingly in his, when he knew that others scarcely dare touch him with her confidence, and how he

Her lips curled a trifle. "One evening star rises, sets, and is and dressed herself once more in her forgotten as soon as it is followed by accustomed, yet ever new garb of leauty another. My happiness, Lord Malcolm, is not dependent upon the favor of yon-

Her happiness did not depend upon

She was already wearying of it, and time she saw her, which was when she that it in any measure depended upon know within that hour; and his grand, St. John, N. B, October 20, 1886 Becoming better acquainted with the strong face took on a look of resolve and fair girl, she was more charmed with intensity which told how much of either her, and conceived the plan of bringing weal or woe might come to him within that time.

He led her out of the ball-room, down through the grand wide hall, upon paintings from the brushes of Rubens, This she would not have been anxious Murillo, Titian, Sir Joshua Reynolds, and others; past elegant suites of rooms leading from it on the opposite side, to a cozy little alcove at the further end, and separated from it by curtains of red velvet, looped back with golden cords. It was next to the conservatory, into which it looked, and was accessible by means of glass windows reaching to the floor. It was most luxuriously furnished, and was evidently intended as a little spot of retirement for reading or meditation.

A small table of ebony, inlaid with precious stones stones are the medital paper.

Fredericton, July 21, 1886. was betrothed to a distant relative, a It was next to the conservatory, into where one could rest if weary. Through the large plate-glass windows had been her attendant satellite, and it could be seen the rare foliage, ferns, and soon began to be whispered that the flowers of the conservatory, while the She probably read something of his houghts, for the color came a little into pelled to yield to the love-tipped arrows their ears as its crystal spray was ner cheeks, and then she asked:

Kenneth seated his fair companion for prey, shrugged their aristocratic her feet, pouring her a draught of sparkmid-air, as if he thought the earth for him was about to come to an end."

"Little wretch! I hardly think he will and tossed their haughty heads in destance back, and leaned his elbow ision.

spon the carved marble mantel, and Lady Durward was furious, and the looked down upon the lovely picture he a Earl likewise, and many were the hours had arranged, a smile of tenderness and Absolutely Pure.

Thoroughly cleanse the blood, which is the fountain of health, by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good digestion, a fair skin, buoyant spirits, vital strength, and soundness of constitution will be established. Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the common pluple, blotch, or eruption, to the worst Serofula, or blood-poison. Expecially has it proven its efficacy in curing Saitz-heum or Tetter, Fever-sores, Hip-joint Discase, Serofulous Sores and Swellings, Enlarged Glands, and Eating Ulcers.
Golden Medical Discovery cures Consumption (which is Scrofula of the Lungs), by its wonderful blood-purifying, invigorating, and nutritive proporties. For Weak Lungs, Spit-High of Children, Schotlers of Breath, Bronchitts, Severe Colustas, Asshma, and kindred affice. muritive properties. For Weak Lungs, switting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Condens, Ashma, and kindred affections, it is a severeign semanty, It promptly cures the severest Couple,

For Torpid Liver, Billiousness, or "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, it is an unequalled remedy. Sold by druggists. DR. PTERCE'S PELI.ETR — Anti-Bilious and Cathartic. Sc. a vial, by druggists.

Day and Night

During an seute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hourseness, and sometimes chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bron-It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep. I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from anunal attacks of Brouchitis. After exhausting all the Without Relief, I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveali, M. D., Carrollton, Miss. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. — M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me. -M. A. Rust, M. D., South Parls, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally Cured By Using two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—

S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.
For years I was in a decline, I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous, In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.
Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured.—Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

TO STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PA NEW BRUNSWICK

Arrangement of Trains --- In effect October 24th, 1886.

LEAVE FREDERICTON:

(Kastern Standard Time) A. M.-Express for St. John, and inter N. M.—Express for St. John, and for mediate points.
 O. A. M.—For Fredericton Junction, and for McAdem Junction, and St. Stephen, Vencer oro. Bangor, Portland, Boston and all points West; St. Andrews. Houston, Woodstelk. Presque Isle. Grand Falls. Edmundston, and all points North.
 D. B. M.—FOR Fredericton Junction, and for St. John, and points East.

ARRIVE AT PREDERICTOR 11 35 A M — From Fredericton Junction, and from St John, and all points East.

3 35 P. M.— From Fredericton Junction, and from Vasceboro, Hangor, Portland, Bratton, and all points West; St. Andrews, St. Stephen, houlton, Woodstock, Prague Iale, Grand Falls, and points North.

6 40 P. M.— Express from M. John, and intermediate points. Humshreys Med. Co., 109 Fulton St., N. Y.

LEAVE GIBSON 7 00 A. M.-Express for Woodstock and points ARRIVE AT GIBSON

4 30 P. M.-Express from Woodstock, and points hern Division.

J. F. LEAVITT.

Gen'l Pass. and Ticket Ager

ALBION HOTEL. IN STORE AND LANDING: Fredericton, N. B., 200 Casks CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN Extra No. 1 Green Head Lime.

Middlings, horts and Bran, CALCINED PLASTER, &c., W. E. MILLER & CO., Feed, Lime and Seed Merchants, BURNED OUT.

BUT STILL ALIVE

THE Subscribers, than kful for past favors, be to inform the public that they are sgein to work at the old stand, where they will be please to see their old friends and as many new ones a Wish to call.
We have now on hand for purchasers to select CARRIAGES which will be sold Cheaper than the Cheapest. We are also prepared to make to order from the best stock and good workmanship, any style of make of Carriages required.

BER Repairing in all its brunches attended to with neatness and despates. COOPER & PINDER.

Dry Goods

Ladies' Dress Goods. in various Styles. Textures, Shades, and at all prices—suitable for Fall or Winter wear. Wool Squares, Wool Jerseys, Ulsters, Mantles, Fur Caps, Gents' Furnishing Goods Capes and Trimmings, Skirts, Corsets, Hose and Gloves, etc. etc. Ulster Cloths. Mantle Cloths. $2 Scarfs and Ties, Suitings, Cretones, Prints Wool Flanne's, Cuttons, Swandowns, Dicki s Towellings, Table Linens, Shirtings.

BLANKETS,

in Grey, White. Blue and Garnet Wool, Hemp and Brussels Carpets, Floor and Table Oli Cloths. Men's Youths' and Boys' CLOTHING n Ulsters, Overcoats, Reefers, Coats, Pants, Fests, Shirts, Irawers, Norrs, Collars, Ties, Fraces, Fur Caps, in Astracan, Persian Lamb, Istida lead and Conney. Knitted Wood Givres, Id Gloves and Mitts Canadian and Scotch Buckwheat Flour

eeds, Worsted Coatings, and Furnishing ids. Hats, Caps, Trunks and Valise. Horse inkets. A large stock of Sleigh Robes. Prices as low as the lowest in the trade. Remnants of all kinds always on hand, OWEN SHARKEY. Shingles, Clapboards.

THE Subscriber keeps constantly on hand significant and significant for the property of the subscript for the subscript for the subscript for cash, or in exchange for country produce.

STOVES. STOVES. F you want a Stove at a Low Price, either Conk, Hall or Parior, call at NEILL'S HARD. WARE NORE, opposite the County Court

D. LUCY.

EBEN MILLER & GO.,

CARRIAGES.

King Street.

Concord Wagons,

Miller Spar Wagons,

Fredericton, N. B. Iver's Tagons Piano Box Wagons, White Chapel Wagons, Top Pheetons, Brewster Wagons, Oronin Wagons, Open Phatons. Sole Manufacturers of Miller's Patent Shifting Rail.

These Shifting Tops have no rival, as a giance at the cut will show for itself; it is so simple, trequires only one person to take itself or put it on, and when off no one would think a Top had sen on, as no unsightly ends are sticking out. When the Top is on it is as first as a rivek. It can be put on any carriage in use. Persons ordering flugicles or Canopy Top, Carriages should see that bey have this Rail, as it will be greatly to their interest.

These Tops were awarded a Diploma at the Provincial Exhibition in October, 1880 Particular attention given to orders. Repairing done in the best manner, and the shortest notice

CALL AND SEE THE

With Large Improved Arm. at Phœnix Square. Fredericton, N B

These machines can be had at the following offices, vis to redericton, N.B., Newcastle. Mir michi, N.S., Chatham, Mirmichi, N. B., Gloucester Co., N. B., Campleton, Restigouche Co., N. B., St. Stephen. E. .

> Agents wanted for P. E. Island and Nova Scota. D. McCatherin.

Corsets, Bustles and Skirts UMPHREYS' JUST OPENED—8 cases Christis, Shifts and Bustles of surerior quality, direct from the nanufactory. Prices very low—Cash. S. NEALIS. Veterinary Specifics

Horses, Cattle, Sheep In use for over 20 years by Farmers, Stockbreeders, Horse R. R., &c. TRUNKS AND VALSES, JUST OPENED:

> S. NEALIS. May 26 Hats. Hats. Hats. JUST OPENED:

S. NEALIS.

ONE very superior 7 1-8 Cetave SQUARE PIANO; TWO high toped double reed ORGANS.
The above instruments are first class in every particular, and will be sold at a sacrifice to clear.

PREEMANS WORM POWDERS. Are pleasant to take. Contain their own Purgative. Is a safe, sure, and effectual destroyer or worms in Children or Adults.

HEALTH, JOY and PEACE INSTED OF PAIN and MISERY is obtained by the use of TAPLEY'S REMEDY

NOW LANDING :

HATS and CAPS. PLATE BEEF

A. F. RANDOLPH & SON

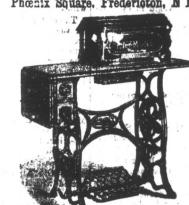

ADVERTISERS can learn the exact cost of any proposed line of advertising in American papers by dressing Geo. P. Rowell & Co.,

JUST OPENED:

Queen St., Wedere

Price List.—BUGGY TOPS, $82 to $50; CANOPY, $15 to $25 Patented in Canada, March Stat, 1877, and in the United States, Dec. 10th, 1878 ALL WORK WARRANTED.

NEW "RAYMOND." D. M'CATHERIN'S SALES ROOM

DOGS, HOGS, POULTRY,

Used by U. S. Government.

Mounted on Rollers & Book Mailed Free

LUMPEREYS'

HOMEOPATHIC OO

SPECIFIC No. GO

Nervous Debility, Vital Weakness

and Promration, from over-work or other causes $1 per vial, or 5 vials and large vial powder, for $5
Sold BY DEROGETS, or sent postpaid o.; receiptor price,—Mamphrers' Mcdicine Co., 105 Futton St., N. Y.

Queen Street, Opp. Peoples Bank

THE KEY TO HEALTH.

Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the Bowels, Kidneys and Liver, carry-ing of gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same system, all the impurities and foul hunors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Billiousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Disziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Erysipalas, Secretula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of SURDOCK BLOOD BUILDERS.

T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto.

FRANCIS DOHERT

has now in stock a very large and choice

BOOTS and SHOES,

READY-MADE COTHING

of every description, which will be

Give us a call and examine our goods and prices before purchas-

SILVER HULL

Buckwheat Flour.

JUST RECEIVED—17 barrels and packages of bend and shabd lamps. We she bave beau-ful Handing and Table Lambs, Side Lamps, bandelers, etc. Prices very law at

S. S. STEEL

APPLES

60 BARBELS Nova Scotta, No. 1, Apples.

GEO. HATT & SONS.

Lamps.

Lamps.

LEMONTS.

sold cheaper than the cheapest.

ing elsewhere.

BURDOCK BLOOM

Manager for Maritime Provi Address all communications P. O. Box 162, Fredericton, N. B. Fredericton, May 18, 1888

WANTED Index on Months of the property of the

THE best and cheapers, secontment of Trunks and Valless and Patcheld, yet offered to the Piano and Organs:

BELL & CO., Guelph, Ont 45 Bbls.

OATALOGUES PREMILES

For Sale Low.

Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 Spruce St., New York, and 10sts. for 100-Page Pamphis TUST RECEIVED—Direct per S. S. "Novs" Notion, 41 Bris. S. Steel, all lengths and widths, which will be sold at prices that cannot Z R EVERETT.

OPP, STONE BARRICES

NEW 5 and 10 SENT STORE