Business Embarrassments.

Messrs. McClung, Houston & Co., dealers in woolens and tailors' trimmings, Bay-street, have assigned to John Ferguson. They say that their failure is due to insufficient banking accommodation. They state that they deposited their capital at the Traders' Bank, but when it was withdrawn they could not get customers' paper put through. The li bilities are about $24,000 and the assets nominally the same. The firm has been in business 11 months.
