Backache

Is only one of many symptoms which some women endure through weakness or displacement of the womanly organs. Mrs. Lizzie White of Memphis, Tenn., wrote Dr. R. V. Pierce, as follows:

"At times I was hardly able to be on my feet. I believe I had every pain and ache a woman could have. Had a very bad case. Internal organs were very much diseased and my back was very weak. I suffered a great deal with nervous headaches, in fact, I suffered all over. This was my condition when I wrote to you for advice. After taking your 'Favorite Prescription' for about three months can say that my health was never better."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. Tones and builds up the nerves. Do not permit a dishonest dealer to substitute for this medicine which has a record of 40 years of cures. "No, thank you, I want what I ask for."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement once a day.

Extra Buttons.

"It takes stout people to break all rules regulating the number of buttons on a coat or waistcoat," said the tailor. "They can't follow the fashion; their size won't let them."

"Three buttons on a coat this year," tailors' conventions may decree, or two or four or five, or whatever number they think proper, but the man with a figure that is constantly trying to escape its environment does not care about conventions. What he wants is buttons enough to keep his clothes in shape.

"Put 'em closer together," he says, "so the strain won't all come on two or three buttons."

"So we put them closer together, and the result is that stout people frequently have twice as many buttons on their clothes as fashion calls for." —New York Times.

An Able Manager.

A western senator was telling a story about an able campaign manager. "He is a remarkably economical chap," said the senator. "He can make a dollar go further in a campaign than any man I know. They tell a story about him—a story that shows what a manager he is. It seems he went into a cigar store one day to get a light. Well, as he was lighting up a man entered, and bought three five-cent cigars. As soon as the man left our friend said quickly: "These cigars are six for a quarter, ain't they?"

"Yes, sir," said the salesman.

"Our friend laid down a dime.

"Gimme," he said, "the other three then." —New York Tribune.

Kitchen Hints.

If eggs are to be stuffed they must be put into cold water as soon as they are taken from the stove. This will keep the whites in better shape.

If salt fish is required for immediate use it will freshen much more quickly if soaked in milk instead of water. Sour milk will answer as well as sweet.

To remove iron rust from white material wet the goods with lemon juice, rub on salt and put out in the sun. If the first application fails, try it again.

Mix stove polish with equal parts of household ammonia and turpentine and apply to the coal stove. Rub off with a soft woolen cloth. It gives a high polish.

The white mayonnaise prepared by foreign chefs calls for cream, lemon juice and white of egg. Instead of the oil, vinegar and egg yolks of the ordinary mayonnaise.

In baking biscuits have the oven quite hot at first, but lower the temperature just a little before the biscuits are ready to take out. This will aid materially in making the biscuits light.

Matrimonial.

IT IS NOT IN THE BLOOD

Medicine Taken Internally Cannot Cure Eczema. It is Caused by Germs.

Eczema cannot be overcome by ordinary treatment and the old-fashioned way of dosing the system with drugs. Eczema is caused by a parasitic germ that bores into the skin. It is generally a contagious disease. Until the parasite is completely destroyed and removed, eczema cannot be cured. Fully one-third of skin diseases are in the form of eczema.

We so thoroughly believe that Rexall Eczema Ointment will overcome eczema and allied skin ailments, that we unhesitatingly promise to promptly return the money paid us for it should it in any way be unsatisfactory to the user.

Because of its remarkable cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, soothing and healing influence, Rexall Eczema Ointment has a very pronounced value in the treatment of skin diseases, especially where the form of ailment is of the chronic, aggravating sort. We highly recommend it for the dry scaly form or the weeping type, where there is a constant flow of ill-smelling excretion.

Rexall Eczema Ointment is very prompt in relieving pimples, blotches, skin discolorations, ringworm, acne, nettle rash, tetter, bites, ulcers, insect bites, and for healing sores and wounds. It is a pleasant smelling, grayish-white ointment, and is very cleanly for use. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store.—The Rexall Store.

Another Ten Commandments.

For gross worldly wisdom it would be difficult to surpass the "Ten Commandments" hanging in one of the many salmon canneries at Steveston, Western Canada:

1. Don't lie. It wastes my time and yours. I am sure to catch you in the end, and that is the wrong end.
2. Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short; and a short day's work makes my face long.
3. Give me more than I expect, and I will give you more than you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profits.
4. You owe so much to yourself you cannot afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt, or keep out of my shops.
5. Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men, like women, never see temptation when they meet it.
6. Mind your own business, and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.
7. Don't do anything here which hurts your self-respect. An employee who is willing to steal for me is willing to steal from me.
8. It is none of my business what you do at night. But if dissipation effects what you do next day, and you do half as much as I demand, you'll last half as long as you hoped.
9. Don't tell me what I'd like to hear, but what I ought to hear. I don't want a valet to my vanity, but one for my dollars.
10. Don't kick if I kick. If you are worth while correcting you are worth while keeping. I don't waste time cutting specks out of rotten apples.

Bad Omens for the Bride.

The girl who is superstitious will do well to avoid certain acts on her wedding day, that while quite natural—so natural, indeed, that it will take a good memory to avoid doing them—are from olden times said to presage misfortune.

First of all, the bride must not cry on her wedding ring; and it is even unlucky for her to look at it until the bridegroom has put it in place.

To tear one's wedding gown or any of its trimmings is also unlucky, doubly so if one repairs the damage with a pin; and to try on the gown before the wedding also forebodes misfortune.

Hardest to avoid of all, perhaps, the bride must not look at herself in a mirror until after the ceremony. On her way to the church she must not look over her shoulder, nor must she cry, even for joy.

The bride should also never receive a telegram of congratulation until after the ceremony; while to forget the bridal bouquet is disastrous in more senses than one; nor must it be dropped, for that, too, brings ill luck.

If a bride observes all these precautions, she is making a good bid for happiness, but what a lot of pleasure she foregoes in the way of being natural and enjoying her wedding gown in advance.—New York Weekly.

DAD'S DOPE.

If a woman could keep a secret like she does her age the world would wear a different complexion.

The Bulgarians are taking their portion of Turkey without any cranberry sauce on the side.

Ripening fruit by electricity is too slow a process for the small boy who has his blouse full of green apples stolen from a neighbor's orchard.

A number of New York doctors have agreed to give their bodies to science after death. This is probably not their first contribution of material for anatomical research.

It is understood that there will be a considerable saving in the cost of heating Rideau Hall this winter. The Duke received enough of addresses during his Western trip to keep the furnace going until Christmas.

A New York chef is giving demonstrations on how to carve the Christmas turkey. Information regarding where that noble table bird can be purchased without mortgaging the home would be of real interest.

FOR HOUSEHOLD ACCIDENTS

Zam-Buk is so Very Useful.

Read how Beneficial it Proved in this Case.

Mrs. H. Sawyer, of Keene, Ont., writes:—"My husband is engaged on a farm, and one day, while chopping wood, the top of the axe broke and fell upon his foot, cutting a nasty gash. The wound was so bad that we first thought we would have a get a doctor, but we finally decided to dress the cut with Zam-Buk.

"Well, the Zam-Buk treatment proved a great success. It not only eased the pain, but it prevented any inflammation; and right from first applying of Zam-Buk, the cut began to heal. It is now completely healed, and my husband says he will never be without a box of Zam-Buk in the house, for we are sure it saved us a great deal of expense."

Over and over again Zam-Buk has been proved to be the worker's best remedy. As soon as applied to a cut, a burn, a scald, or any skin injury, it relieves the pain and it sets up healing. It is a sure cure, too, for eczema, piles, ulcers, old wounds, bad leg, ringworms, scalp sores, festering, running sores, eruptions, cold sores, chapped hands, etc. Its absolute purity, also, makes it the ideal balm for babies.

Zam-Buk Soap should be used along with the balm for washing all sore places. This soap will be found excellent for baby's bath, even where the balm is not used.

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, and Zam-Buk Soap at 25c. tablet, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

A SMILE OR TWO.

"People are allus impres," said Grandpa Stubblegrass, "by what they can't see through. Many a stream gets credit fur bein' deep when it's only muddy."

"Why, papa, this is roast beef," said a little boy at the table, while company was present. "What of it?" asked the fond parent. "Well, you told mamma this morning you were going to bring a mutton head home for dinner."

A sermon was being preached on purity of heart, and the words came fast and eloquently: "Oh, Lord, give us pure hearts, give us clean hearts, give us sweet hearts." "Amen" responded every man in the congregation.

Lady (at the bottom of the steps)—I want to see you just a minute, but this skirt is so tight I can't climb the stairs. You come out, won't you?

Lady (inside)—I would if I could, but this new hat is too wide to go through the doorway!

"Why did you leave that boarding house?"

"Because the swellness was at the expense of the food supply."

"What do you mean?"

"Four kinds of forks and two kinds of vegetables."
