GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next is wet and cold and unless the mother is on her guard the little ones are sized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mothers best friend in preventing and banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, opening the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose will prevent colds or if it does come on suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will quickly drive it. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ONE reason the cost of living was lower system of registering births, marriages and deaths will be inaugurated at the beginning of the New Year. The onus of

THE DOMINION PARLIAMENT prothe Canada Temperance Act, was amended so that importation of liquor into a province under Prohibition will only cease when the people of that province declare, through a plebiscite, that they wish such importation forbidden. The Senate passed the bills on Monday.

THERE was a splendid attendance of women at Trinity church schoolroom on Tuesday afternoon, Armistice Day, when Mrs. Shore of Watford, spoke on "The Call of the New Day" and urged all women to get a vision of the world's need of Christ. Light refreshments were served and a social hour spent. The thank-offering towards the mission work which the women are carrying on was a most liberal one.

If you wish to send a letter in a hurry write "in haste" or "rush" on the envelope. The postmaster and clerks will then fall over each other in their haste to get it in the first mail, then the postal clerk will yell to the engineer: "Pull her wide open, here's a letter to rush." And the train will just fly. It is expensive for the railroads, as accidents are liable to happen, and the officials will not thank us for giving the snap away, but this is the way to get letters through real quick.

SATURDAY is the last day on which you can become a bond holder. The 1919 loan will be the last one in which the general public will have a chance to partake. In the Watford district, which includes Watford, the objective it is hoped will be reached by Saturday night, but the loan has not been purchased as rapidly as last year's. The town of Forest has exceeded the objective by nearly three hundred per cent, and Brooke district stands next highest in the County.

merchant, "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express, and besides, you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." The farmer look-said: "Why didn't you patronize your didn't know that you had the stuff I have here."

If you plan to force bulbs in the house so far as to have a plentiful supply of flowers all winter, don't forget the necessity of getting a good root growth at the start. That is the whole secret of having blooms in plenty. After you pot your hyacinths, tulips and narcissus, bury the pots under a pile of ashes in the cellar and leave them for several weeks. When you dig them if you can see little white roots you will know that the bulbs are ready to be taken upstairs.

In the minds of many people there seems an impression that they will have to pay taxes on all the bonds of the present issue. This is entirely erroneous.
Only where a person's income is sufficient to come within the schedule for taxation will his bonds be taxed, and in that case, he would have to pay income taxes no matter what form his investment may take. Not one person in a thousand will have to pay taxation on his income from Victory Bonds. Buy a bond today.

If a foolish man wants to buy or sell anything, says an exchange, he rides all when he goes along about his business.

When any man has a cow or horse to sell, there is some other man somewhere

"Unveiling The Shield"

The service in the Methodist church last Sunday evening was attended by a very large congregation of deeply interested people. It was the unveiling of the Shield bearing the names of those who fell in the world war, who had been identified with the Watford Methodist Sunday school. The shield is of oak, dark in color, and very heavy and substantial looking. It is embellished with a dull silver ribbon mounting and plate designating its purpose and with similar maple leaves artistically arranged on the face of the shield, bearing the following names: Pte. M. B. Hagle, Flight Lieut.
H. Hanna, Sig. Roy Acton, Corp. A. W.
Lewis, Capt. E. Cunningham M. M., Newell Hastings and Corp. A. I. Smith.

The whole service was very appropriately arranged as to selection of suitable hymns and scripture lesson. The pastor was in charge of the program throughout.
The address commemorating the slain by Sergt. M. Cunningham M. M., was very fitting. The two recitations "In Flanders Fields" and the reply "In Flanders Now" were given by William Fitzgerald and Miss Evelyn Fortner.
Then followed the act of unveiling and saluting the Shield by Pte. Russell Acton, brother of Sig. Roy Acton whose name is on the shield. The vast congregation stood during this part of the service and then followed the National Anthem. Dr.
Hicks, the Sunday School Supt., paid effective tributes to these young heroes who had sealed their loyalty and patriotism with their life blood and who lie buried somewhere in France.

The service was brought to a close by an appropriate address by Rev. A. C.
Tiffin on "The Significance of This Shield," during which he reviewed the things which were in danger during the war, but which were safeguarded by these and other heroes, dead and alive. They in reality proved to be our "Shield" in defence from the Hun and the terrible consequences had the Allies failed to triumph in the struggle. The choir gave two appropriate anthems adding to the impressiveness of the service.
The standard upon which the shield rested for the occasion was heavily drap-ped in black with purple ribbon and bow thus giving appropriate setting to a very impressive and memorable service. The shield will find permanent resting place on one of the side walls and do constant honor to our hero sons.

When the infant daughter of Mrs.
Charles Liberty of Wabash was baptized in the Methodist church on Sunday, the child was dressed in a dainty lace-trimmed robe made by hand 97 years ago. It was worn by the child's great uncle, Septimus Liberty, when he was an infant.
He was present at the service on Sunday.

A very severe windstorm of cyclonic nature swept by Wyoming on Friday morning of last week about 4 o'clock, doing considerable damage to trees and line. Scantlings were broken and boards driven two feet into the ground, where they had been carried about thirty yards

The early winter epidemic of chicken thefts has again visited Kent County in general. Scarcely a day passes but some section of the county registers a complaint with the police authorities. One day a Harwich farmer reports the loss of twenty or thirty birds and the next afternoon a Raleigh man announces the informal departure of a dozen or more members of his feathered stock.

For a year or two drilling has been car-struck at 1713 feet, and it is good for struck the vein at 1611 feet, and it measured 500,000 feet a day; No. 3 produces 500,000 feet at 1,650, and No. 4, recently finished, went on the test 1,250-000 feet, with 750 lb. rock pressure. The opinion is that the last well indicates that a rich find is being approached and by next year the gas situation in Western Ontario may be relieved by this new field.

The Prince of Wales calls the Victory Loan "The Bridge from War to Peace."

In view of the number of actions for damages, the following question and answer in the legal columns of a daily paper will be interesting: "T. A. Eugenia.—Some young boys strayed away from my place. A neighbor opened his gate and let them in and advertised them.
Am I obliged to pay for the feed of the cattle while in his possession, or should he have impounded them? Ans.—Your neighbor was not obliged to take the animals to a 'pound'. He had a legal right to impound them himself, which he did; and he can retain the animals in his possession until you pay him a reasonable sum for his care and expenses in keeping and feeding them."

ONLY TWO DAYS MORE

Saturday, Nov. 15, is the closing day of the Victory Loan campaign. There are still many Canadians who have neglected to become possessors of Victory Bonds.

By the grace granted for Victory, which crowned the valiant efforts of Canadian arms. They have shared in the good times which have been the good fortune of Canadians in the period following the war. They wish prosperity to continue but they have omitted to do their part in insuring that there will be jobs and prosperity for all in days to come.

They should not let another day pass—or another hour—without discharging their debt to the soldiers who died that they might live; to the warriors who are being restored to civil life.

Let the slogan of the last days of the campaign be "Clean up the war job once for all."

The most you can scrape together is the least you can afford to subscribe to the Victory Loan.
