

23.—(Chorus) “And they’ll fight for the grand old flag,
my boys,”

Step forward with right foot, raise both flags as high as possible, draw body up to its full height.

24.—“The dear old British flag ;”
(Movement same as number 9.)

25.—“And when home again march our gallant men,”
(Movement same as number 19.).

26.—“They’ll tell how they fought for the flag.”

Salute—

Let the salute be given just as before, while the pianist strikes four chords.

A patriotic march is again struck up and the girls march at once off the stage in pairs, number one pair leading off, followed by number two who fall in behind number one. The inside flags should be crossed as before.
