

CONTENTS.

	Page
PRELIMINARY ACCOUNT OF THE INDIANS.
Origin—Bodily and mental qualifications—Character—Language—Hieroglyphics—Wampum—Division of time, &c.—Works of art—Religious opinions—Manittos—Feasts and sacrifices—Sorcerers—Dress and ornaments—Habitations—Marriages—Education of children—Food—Hunting and fishing—Mode of travelling—Amusements—Diseases and their cure—Funeral ceremonies—National distinctions—Political constitution—Manner of making war—Treatment of prisoners—Treaties of peace	1
HISTORY OF THE MISSION.
CHAP. I.—Beginning of the Mission—The Creek Indians—The Brethren obliged to leave Georgia—Henry Rauch carries the Gospel to the Mahikanders—Conversion of Tschoop and Shabash—The Delawares and Br. Froelich—Gottlob Buettner—Tschoop's letter—Baptism at Oly—Count Zinzendorf visits the Indians	49
CHAP. II.—Progress of the Gospel among the Indians—Mack at Pachgatgoch—Zeal of the Indian Converts—Chapel built at Shekomeko—Opposition of the white traders—Pyrlæus visits the Iroquois	67
CHAP. III.—Persecution of the Missionaries—Bp. Spangenberg visits Shekomeko—Death of the missionary Buettner—Conduct of the baptized Indians—Zeisberger and Post imprisoned—Baptism of Delawares—Spangenberg's journey to Onondago	78
CHAP. IV.—Settlement of Friedenshutzen—and Gnadenhutzen—Mission at Shomokin	91
CHAP. V.—Synod in Quitopehill—The Indian Nicodemus—Death of the missionary Bruce—Visits to Meniolagomekah—Message from a Conjuror—The Chief Shikellimus	103
CHAP. VI.—Cammerhof and Zeisberger at Onondago—Death of Cammerhof—Bueninger at Pachgatgoch—Embassy of the Nantikoks and Shawanose—Indian visits—Travels of Zeisberger and others	112
CHAP. VII.—Hostile designs of the Indians—New Gnadenhutzen built—Mack visits Wajomick—Council on drunken	