tomers of former years had a little reason to complain sometimes when we were not as prompt as we should have been. Our facilities are better and our hands more expert than in former years.

HIVE LIDS.

For some time we have been using both flat and sloping covers for our hives. We have now thoroughly tested both and teel convinced that the flat roof is much superior to the other, as we now make it, and in future we intend to dispose of the sloping ones at less than cost and use the others almost exclusively in our own apiaries. The flat ones are more convenient for setting anything on in the yard; take up much less room when being packed; shed the water just as well, and keep the hive as dry. are much less liable to be blown off by the wind. are more easily made, etc. Some of the lids are all in one piece, others in two or more pieces. We find the latter preferable, for it matters not how dry the material may be, after standing several years exposed to the sun, a very broad board is apt to crack, while a narrow one will not, and there is less inclination to warp may say "the crack will leak where the two are joined together." So they will, ordinarily, but we make them by rabbetting each piece of the lid, with a very fine saw, and in these we slip strips of tin forming a tongue. Should the boards shrink at any time no water can get through as the tongue fits so tightly. when you are painting, (and all lids should be painted on both sides) the paint fills the cracks to the metal tongue most thoroughly. Should they at any time open slightly, one rub with a brush will completely close it. We shall send out whichever style of hids you prefer, so be sure to say when ordering. If no kind is specified, we will forward the "flat" lids.

BEES, BROOD AND NUCLEI.

We have decided to sell "bees by the pound" and in another column will be found prices and full particulars.

BOSTON.

Honey is selling very well but prices are very low, and we are often obliged to shade our prices in order to make rates, We quote 1 lb. comb, 14 to 16 cents. 2 lb. comb, 12 to 14 cents. Extracted, 6 to 8 cents.

BLAKE & RIPLEY.

NEW YORK.

Sales of comb honey the past two months exceeds largely sales of corresponding period of last year. The large stock in dealer's hands is becoming less every day, and the present outlook is that all the better grades will be closed out before the new crop arrives. There is quite a large stock of dark and off grades of white, which we apprehend will be carried over-Prices are ruling low, we quote: -White comb, 9 to 12c.; dark comb, 5 to 7c.; California extracted, 5 to 6c.; California comb, 8 to 9c.; beeswax, 23 to 241c. We beg to inform you that we have removed our place of business to 28 and 30 West Broadway, near Duane St. where we have better facilities for handling honev.
