This is a day for action prompt and vigorous. The Grande Ligne Mission seeks to arrest race antipathy by bringing English and French under the harmonizing influence of the Gospel.

The resources and extent of this country are wonderful.

The climatic conditions are favourable to the growth of men. The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks to prepare young men and women for lives of usefulness by setting before them the highest conception of the privileges, duties and responsibilities of citizenship.

Hardy people do not grow under skies of eternal summer. God grows His greatest nations in the colder lands.

God is blessing us here. Bro. D. G. McDonald is working very faithfully having visited every family. He and his wife are doing good work not only in our membership but among our townsmen. We have all been blessed of late through the special meetings. Last Wednesday we had an all day prayer meeting. On Sunday last three sisters followed our Lord in Baptism, and on the same evening two sisters and a brother received the right hand of fellowship. W. E. W.

~~~~~ What our Grand-Ligne Work does.

The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks to disseminate light throughout the dark places of our land by means of schools, the press, preaching, and other modes of evangelization.

The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks to stay religious indifference and infidel-

The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks, through the spread of the Gospel of Christ, to neutralize the effects of superstition, idolatry and ecclesiastical tyranny.

The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks to foster liberty of conscience, speech and press, and to bring into recognition the rights of the individual and the supremacy of the Eternal God.

The Grande-Ligne Mission seeks to give the open Bible to Romanists, in order that they may become reconciled to God through Jesus Christ, and not through Sacraments, Saints or Priests.

The Grande-Ligne Mission above everything else, seeks to bring man to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
