IMPORTANT NOTICE!

THE STRAND ART UNION ASSOCIATION,
31, STRAND. (Established 1872)

The Managers beg to call the attention of the public to the fact, that they have, at a public sale, purchased the ORIGINAL STEEL ENGRAVING by Samuel Bellin, from the original picture by Marshall Claxton, Esq., of the DEATHBED OF THE REV. JOHN WESLEY, A.M., now exhibiting at the Wesleyan Centenary Hall, London.

The Engraver has re-retailed produced on Steel that which the painter has so skillfully placed on canvas—restoring the bedchamber of the venerable Father Melkothem, who, surrounded by his friends, has just expired with the Rev. Joseph Bradford, the last of his race, and the only one of his name who was able to articulate being, "Farewell."

With a groan, this man of God, this beloved of thousands, entered into the joy of the Lord Wesleyan morning, the 2nd day of March, 1791. The great purpose of his life was doing good. For he relinquished all honour and preferment; to be re-imbued all his powers of body and mind, all times and in all places, in season and out of season, by gentleness, by terror, by argument, by reason, by reason, by interest, by every motive of every inducement, he strove, with unwearying fidelity, to turn men from the error of their ways, and to lead them to virtue and religion.

See following copy of letter:—

"The STRAND ART UNION ASSOCIATION. Gentlemen,—I have received the Engraving of the deathbed of the Rev. John Wesley, A.M., which you are publishing from the picture painted by Marshall Claxton, Esq., and purchased by the Wesleyan Association, and now exhibiting at the Wesleyan Centenary Hall, and consider it a very fine engraving."
"Yours faithfully, MARSHALL CLAXTON."
