

Lords of the North

By Agnes C. Laut

"The story hinges around the battle of Seven Oaks, where a monument now stands on North Main Street, Winnipeg. It deals with the period when the Hudson's Bay Fur Trading Co. and the North-West Trading Co. were struggling for the supremacy in the great Western Land."—Manitoba Free Press.

Paper, 75c ; Cloth, $1.25. Ask your Bookseller for it.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher,

29-33 Richmond Street West, TORONTO

ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE

"Chestnut Park," TORONTO, ONT.

A Presbyterian Residential and Day School for Boys.

The College has already won a name for itself among educational institutions. The attendance is now eighty-eight. Full collegiate work is done. Boys are prepared for the Universities and Royal Military College. There is also a Commercial Department. Carpentry is taught.

Separate Residence for Juniors under the care of Henry F. Meyer, Ph.D. Boys are admitted from eight years and up.

The staff is large and efficient, there being eight in addition to the principal. Five masters with the Principal live in Residence.

The College grounds are large and beautifully situated.

Attention is paid to the spiritual and physical development of boys as well as to the mental.

Boys may be entered at any time.

STRONG STAFF

THOROUGH INSTRUCTION

CAREFUL OVERSIGHT

Re-opened for Winter Term on January 9th, 1901. Send for information to

REV. D. BRUCE MACDONALD, M.A., Principal