

THE BOOKS OF THE SEASON!

ALDERSYDE;

A BORDER STORY OF SEVENTY YEARS AGO.

BY ANNIE S. SWAN.

12mo, cloth extra, with Six Original Illustrations. Price, $1.25.

The Authoress has received the following Autograph Letter from Mr. Gladstone:—"think it beautiful as a work of art, and it must be the fault of a reader if he does not profit by the perusal. Miss Nesbit and Marget will, I hope, long hold their places among the truly living sketches of Scottish character. I remain, your very faithful and obedient,

W. E. GLADSTONE."

Opinions of the Scotch, English, and Irish Press.

"Sir Walter Scott himself never delineated a character more true to life than Janet Nesbit; eloquent of character and well told; full of quiet power and pathos; has brought us into the presence of a pure and noble nature; this cleverly constructed story; a tale of deep interest; a work of true genius; Hurrah! our good Scotch stories are not going to die out just yet; have not read a fresher, livelier, or wholesomely stimulating story for many a day; Janet Nesbit is a fine portrait of a noble woman; the Doric is pure and cultivated, while the descriptions of border scenery are admirable; written in a style that cannot fail to interest; tells us, with much literary grace and variety, a many-sided story."

JOCK HALLIDAY;

A Grassmarket Hero; or, Sketches of Life and Character in an Old City Parish.

BY ROBINA F. HARDY,

Author of "Nannette's New Shoes," etc.

12mo, cloth gilt, with numerous Illustrations. Price, 65 cents.

Opinions of the Scotch, English, and Irish Press.

"Full of lights and shadows; written with much ability and feeling; a fascinating story of humble life; a very effective story; will assuredly take its place beside 'Rab and his Friends' and Professor Wilson's Tales; a tender-spirited story of mission work among the slums; a capably written sketch; should find a place in every Sunday-school or temperance library; never saw a better of its kind; a good and racily told tale; the Christian heart, yearning over the fallen and lost, will find in it much to enjoy and much to learn; graphic and wholesome; the story is capably told.

"The narrative is swift and flowing, lit up with flashes of humour; a very sweet little story; a simple idyll of everyday life, naturally and pathetically told; fitted to do good service like in connection with temperance and general mission work; a good stock of healthy, mischief-making, but generous good nature about the lad, he is the very soul of tenderness to the little blind girl."
