mitted at the Session; the course pur-sion will be held at Chester on the 15th was of the most harmonious and agree-subject. able character. Several important matters were discussed with a temper and spirit rarely exhibited in deliberative bo- dies. The people in this part of the of Chebucto Division, was held in the Howard Division.

Division Room on the evening of Thurstone Division.

The next Speaker was the Grand day, April 16th; there was a good at- Worthy Patriarch, who expressed pleathoroughly at heart, and there is every tendance. Mr George Thompson, W. sure at meeting with the Division; also and the division of the Division; also are the Division of the Division of the Division; also are the Division of the Division; also are the Division of the Division of the Division; also are the Division of the spirit rarely exhibited in deliberative bonesday, and six on Thursday,—on which mentioned a few cases of intemperance abstinence in the city, and made some day the Session closed at half-past 12 which "he saw" lately. o'clock. Only three of the Grand Offio'clock. Only three of the Grand Olli-cers were present—G. W. P., G. Scribe, pally on prohibition: he believed the and G. Conductor. The G. W. P. is principal difficulty of temperance men ed the remarks of preceding speakers, in rapidly won the esteem and respect of the makers of importers there would be not his remarks were chiefly on temperance brotherhood in this province. We confident retailers; the existence of the evil rested literature, and the advance made respect-to record large accessions to the Temperance ligious people of the country; that temperance ligious people of the country; that temperance heart, have been ably seconded by the Rev cd, and faithful in behalf of those who had been reclaimed from intemperance and his remarks were chiefly on temperance his remarks were chiefly his remarks were chiefly

Upon the whole the Order is reviving, of the prophecy respecting the decline, Thursday evening, 30th April, viz., the and its prospects for the future are cheer- or extinction of the Order a few years, presentation of a National Division Reing.

April, and reviewed the remarks of prespect to the brother was indeed worthy held at Nictaux on Wednesday forenoon, ceding speakers.

April, and reviewed the remarks of prespect to the brother was indeed worthy of the Division; he is one of the Charter the 22nd. There was a large attendated Several songs were sung during the members, and the only one who has passance. Mr B. Morse, D.G.W.P., presi- evening by Mr H. A. Taylor. ded. The speakers were: Rev Mr Vidito, Rev W. G. Parker, Rev J. Robert- G. W. P. paid an official visit to Athe- various occasions, to the interest of the son, and Mr R. M. Barratt, G. Conduc-|næum Division, and gave them a brief meetings. The following address was tor. The G.W.P. being late in arriving, address: expressed pleasure at meeting presented to the brother on the occasion: and also feeling unwell, did not attend the course would continue to present the property of the course would continue to present the course was the course would continue to present the course was the course would continue to present the course would continue to the course would be continued to the course w

The next Session of the Grand Divi-the Division.

HALIFAX.

Nearly fifty Representatives were pre-sent; twenty-eight were initiated on Wed-of temperance in Great Britain—and er; he referred to the progress of total

"The Grand Worthy Patriarch, the Rev drunkerness was a crime, the man who to be the right man in the right place. Comparatively a stranger in this country he has well as the drunkard; if there were no well as the last speaker.

P. G. W. P. J. S. Thompson spoke on!

the cause would continue to prosper as it | WORTHY BROTHER,-It is our pleasing

A public meeting was held on Monday sued in reference to it, we trust, will of July. We would arge the Subordi- evening. 27th inst., by Micmae Division. prove satisfactory to all concerned. Af-nate Divisions to contribute immediately Mr Granville, P. W. P., presided and made a few pertinent remarks. Andrew ter the regular routine business of the -and handsomely too-towards the ex- B. Almon, Esq., Barrister, of Massachu-Session had been got through with, a few penses of the Representatives to the Na-setts, addressed the audience on temperhours were devoted to conversation and tional Division, as we believe the amount ance; alluded to his connection with the discussion on several important topics- already appropriated will not defray the Order in this city a few years ago; spoke the constitution, rules, usages, &c., &c., expenses of two delegates. We would sent occasion by his meeting with fellow of the Order. We agree with a writer refer members of the Order to the Letter countrymen again, and expressed a hope in the Sun, that "altogether the session of the M. W. P. where he refers to this of once more uniting with them in the promotion of the cause—should be again take up his residence in his native city. Mr A. is son of the late Hon. Dr Almon, <sup>t</sup>and, previous to his removing to the Uni-A public meeting, under the auspices ted States, was an active member of reason to believe that their labors will be P., presided, and made some prefatory luded to the proceedings of the Grand to themselves and the community in experience, both before and after taking which they reside. The visiting breth- Rev S. N. Remite 12 Change of the Grand Division at their recent session: spoke of the great advance the cause had made since the commencement of the present crowned with the most lasting blessings remarks; he gave an account of his own Division at their recent session: spoke of Rev S. N. Bently, G. Chap., spoke at since the commencement of the present ren were treated with the utmost kind- some length, chiefly on the principles of sity of prohibitory laws for the suppresness and hospitality," for which a suit- the Order—Love, Purity and Fidelity— sion of the traffic—adducing some very able resolution was passed by the G. D. and exhorted the brethren to be faithful sound arguments in favour of such mea-

remarks on the necessity of temperance gaining favor among the brethren; the lay with a different class than the drunk- a very happy manuer, as usual, when-writer in the Sun says:—

ard, viz., the so-called respectable and ever he does so, eliciting much merri-

rapidly won the esteem and respect of the makers or importers there would be not his remarks were chiefly on temperance

A pleasing scene took place at the We concur in the foregoing remarks, the progress of the cause in the Province meeting of Chebucto Division, held on ago-alluded to the article "Important galia to Past Grand Worthy Patriarch A public Temperance Meeting was Testimony" published in Abstainer for John S. Thompson. This mark of reed through the chair of the Grand Division. He has always been an active and On Friday evening, April 24th, the useful rember, and contributes much, on the meeting, which he regretted very has for the last three months. Brother duty on behalf of the Officers and Brethren much.

A. Longley, of Paradise, also addressed of Chebucto Division, to present you with this Regulin of the National Division, as a token Regalia of the National Division, as a token