IN THE PRESS, AND SHORTLY WILL BE PUBLISHED,

A New and Improved Edition of THE MAP OF CANADA

AND THE LOWER PROVINCES. THIS MAP was compiled and drawn by EDWARD STAVELEY, Esq., Civil Engineer, with great care and fidelity, and engraved by Mr. Johnston of Edinburgh, (Engraver of the National Atlas, the Atlas accompanying Alison's Europe, and other celebrated works), in the finest style of the art. Round the margin of the principal Map, are ones of the Island of Montreal, the Falls of Niagara and their vicinity, Kingston, Toronto, Quebec and neighbourhood as in 1759 during Wolfe's operations. The Map has been carefully revised, and many new names added. The price has been greatly reduced, viz. to 7s. 6d. done up in neat portable shape for the pocket, and to 10s. on rollers, varnished and mounted on linen.
