

ST. LAWRENCE AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD.

THE 17TH of the present month of AUGUST being appointed as the day upon which the fate of this great and important enterprise is to be settled, there will be held, on MONDAY, the TENTH day of AUGUST inst. at ONE o'Clock, on the CHAMP-DE-MARS,

A PUBLIC MEETING,

To which are invited all the friends of the advancement and prosperity of the country.

The inhabitants of this Province in general, and of this District in particular, and still more so, the inhabitants of the City of Montreal, having a vital interest in this great and momentous enterprise, ought to unite with eagerness for the immediate opening of this important communication. The Citizens are therefore, earnestly invited to attend the Meeting, in order to manifest that the Inhabitants of this Province do not yield to their enterprising neighbours, with whom it is necessary to co-operate in carrying out the measures so intimately connected with the general advantage and interests of the Province.
