NEW NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR CANADA.

Prospectus of the CANADIAN MONTHLY AND NATIONAL REVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual life of the Canadian nation ought to have some organ in the form of a good periodical. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

In some measure they may have been premature; but it is believed that their failure has been mainly due to the want of a sufficiently strong and well-organized staff of writers, and of a fund sufficient to guarantee to contributors the fair remuneration, without which, as multiplied experience proves, a periodical cannot be successfully carried on.

These requisites have now been effectually secured. The literary aid and materials requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought, without restriction, from all quarters—Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a specially Canadian character, such as, it is hoped, will enlist Canadian patriotism in its support.

Politics will be treated with the aim of infusing as much as possible of the historical and philosophical spirit into the popular discussion of political questions. Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim.

Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim. Mr. GORDON SMITH has consented both to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine.

TO ADVERTISERS. The Publishers would direct the attention of Advertisers to the importance of THE CANADIAN MONTHLY as a medium of advantageous advertising, being circulated to the foremost native writers, and being destined to circulate in extensive circles of the reading population of the Dominion.

IN ONE YEAR THE CHRISTIAN UNION

Has leaped to a circulation surpassed by only one Religious Journal in the United States, and that one over twenty-one years old.

WHY IS IT? BECAUSE, First, HENRY WARD BEECHER

is its Editor, and the Editorials, Star Papers, and Lecture-Room Talks are welcomed by thousands and thousands of Christians everywhere, who want thoroughly good and attractive reading, and who have not the interest of the whole Church of Christ; while the paper is full of admirable reading matter on every live topic of the day, the Contributors being representative men of all denominations.

BECAUSE, Secondly, ITS FORM, Sixteen pages, large quarto, STITCHED AND CUT, is so convenient for reading, binding, and preservation, as to be a great and special merit in its favor, apart from its superior literary attractions.

BECAUSE, Thirdly, It is the Brightest and Most Interesting Religious Paper published, being quoted from by the Press of the entire country, more extensively than any other, the whole editorial work being in the hands of experienced and cultivated men.

BECAUSE, Fourthly, It has something for every member of the household. Admirable contributed and editorial articles, discussing all the great topics of the day, fresh information on unacknowledged subjects, much matter of a high and pure religious tone, poems, household stories, and chat for the little ones.

BECAUSE, Fifthly, MARSHALL'S Household Engraving of Washington! A fine impression of which is PRESENTED to every new subscriber to the paper is a really superb work of art, a subject appealing to every American, and, as was said by F. O. C. DARLEY, THE CELEBRATED ARTIST, "is, beyond all question, the best head, engraved in line, produced in this country, as well as the finest copy of Stuart's portrait."

BECAUSE, Sixthly, A new and charming Serial, MY WIFE AND I: Or, HARRIET HENDERSON'S HISTORY. By HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, FREE FOR TWO MONTHS.

Send for Circulars with full particulars. All subscriptions, applications for specimen copies and agencies, etc., received and attended to by J. B. FORD & Co., Publishers, 29 Park Row, New York.

THE "NEW YORK TRIBUNE" FOR 1872.

The consolidation of Italy, so long fragments and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capture of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Spaniards from the Spanish throne and the substitution for them of a son of the most liberal among royal houses, the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., into the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to resist her proponderance in the councils of Europe, or to pre-empt her often postulated but never relinquished designs on the great continent, founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and unenriched dominion of the Sultan, all combined to excite the interest of the ever changing phases of the Old World. Our country, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points of Europe where great movements are in progress, is enabled to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-aged Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand, and Nineteenth Century skepticism and socialism on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all its proceedings, and in its looking hopefully on the conflict as destined to be a beneficent one, to involve no strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, to a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the Government of France has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of freedom which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or nation, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confining it to those worthy and ablest to wield it. To any locality or nation that is desirous of reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, and its personal interests or party predilections, obscuring the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights to the Republican party has divested our current politics of half their vigor and intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republican party are destined to be practically accepted by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and sinews—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of every citizen to guard to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty, and to forfeit it by crime—such are the broad and first foundations of our national edifice; and patrician and the humbly which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet ten years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Equal Rights, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the gains of Civilization—to stimulate industry to the production of new inventions for economizing Labour, and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grain and of Metals, and thus enhance the gains of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanges between farmers and artisans—such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain tribute to the progress of enlightenment and the good of our race. To this great and good work THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly Editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful writers of the day will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $300 worth of produce annually can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a Journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labour. We spend more money on our own country than any other country, and our generous patronage enables us to do so, and we are resolved that our issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State! help us to make our journal better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE. DAILY TRIBUNE, Mail subscribers, $10 per annum. Semi-Weekly Tribune, Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum. Five copies for $20 00, without extra copy. One copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time, or, if preferred, a copy of Recollections of a Busy Life, by Mr. Greeley.

Persons entitled to an extra copy can, if preferred, have either of the following books, postage prepaid:—Political Economy, by Horace Greeley; Pear Culture for Profit, by P. T. Quinn; the Elements of Agriculture, by Geo. B. Waring.

ADVERTISING RATES. Daily Tribune, 30c., 40c., 50c., 75c., and $1 per line. Semi-Weekly Tribune, 25 and 30 cents per line. Weekly Tribune, $2, $3, and $5 per line, according to position in the paper.

In making remittances always procure a draft on New York, or a Post-Office Money Order, if possible. Where neither of these can be procured, send the money, but always by a trustworthy letter. The registration fee has been reduced to 15 cents, and the present registration system has been found by the postal authorities to be nearly an absolute protection against losses by mail. All postal notices are obliged to register letters when requested to do so. Terms cash in advance. Address THE TRIBUNE, New York.
