TORONTO MARKETS.

The quotations previously noted in breadstuffs continue, if anything on an improved scale. Flour—Ordinary No. 1 superfine could have been obtained at 75, but there did not seem to be any buyers in the market. Good strong flour would bring 80 or around lot, but we have not heard of any offering. Fancy and extra, nominally unchanged. Wheat—The only transaction reported, was of one car of No. 1 white, at 21 1/2 in June. On the 1st of July, the market was quiet, but the price was very limited, and to make sales to any extent would be almost impossible. One car sold today at 25, on the track, and there are sellers at 26 1/2, with no buyers. Barley—There is no special demand to note. An order for a round lot for shipment, to which reference has previously been made, was filled to-day on terms not made public. Wool—The market was steady all day, 52c being the current rate at which several round lots of 2,000 to 4,000 lbs. were taken. A new rate was reported at 60c, but this is exceptional. There is very little now to come forward from farmers, but there is a good deal still held on speculation at various points throughout the country.

Special Notice.

HASTY CONSUMPTION CURED BY FELLOWS' HYPOPHOSPHITES. CARBONATE, NEWFOUNDLAND, Jan. 4, 1871. Mr. JAMES L. FELLOWS, DEAR SIR: I came to this country in May, 1869. I found a countryman of mine laboring under some affection of the lungs. I recommended your Syrup, tried it, and he recovered. He thought I was inventing the name at their expense. However, in April, 1870, Mr. Edgar Joyce rapidly wasted away with every symptom of quick consumption, and that he was unable to walk across the room, having no appetite, pains in the left side, nervous system unstrung, dry, hacking cough. Fortunately I learned that your Syrup could be obtained at Mr. Dear's, in St. John's, and immediately procured some, and sent one to W. H. Thompson, who ordered a supply from you at once. This was Tuesday afternoon, at night he took the prescribed dose, and in the morning he described the very results noted on the wrapper. His appetite soon began to return, and a voracious one it was; the dry, hacking cough ceased; his health was quite restored, and to-day not a more healthy person is to be found on our streets; and it is the opinion of all, had he not been fortunate in getting your valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites, he would now be in his grave. He happened to be in W. H. Thompson's the day your first shipment arrived, and took at once four bottles to the house, which he has since used, and to do, but had no occasion to use the same. No other medicine will ever prescribe, recommended or give, but yours. I also recommended it to another consumptive, but have not heard from him since, as he lives at a distant part of the island. Hoping this will give you some encouragement, I remain yours, D. H. BERRIDGE.

NEW YORK AND ERIE RAILWAY.

We met with a paragraph the other day, which is very descriptive of this grand thoroughfare of the world, and now give it for the benefit of the Canadian public. The railroads here, in England, are not better than our own. Either the English roads have deteriorated, or else our own have appreciated. It seems that the Eastern train of the direct line between Liverpool and London may be taken as a fair sample, and compared with similar trains on the New York and Erie Railway at home, with which I am most familiar. From Liverpool to London, two hundred and twenty miles, the first class fare is thirty-five shillings, say nine dollars. On the New York and Erie, from New York to the west end of Suspension Bridge, in Canada, distance upwards of four hundred and fifty miles, in drawing room coach, the fare is nine dollars and twenty-five cents. We ride in by far the most elegant coaches on the Erie, then here in England, and at only one-third the cost. We ride us fast, soon on the Erie as in England, about thirty-nine miles in either case. Inasmuch as there is no comparison, motion on the New York and Erie is like rolling on oil, and the ride is in our case, like the pull in a who-darrows. Here there are four wheels under a coach, on the New York and Erie, only two. Here one wheel falling necessarily disarranges the Erie, we can spin it from one side, and it will continue to run. The coach is still mobile and not a wreck. Here it is difficult to call, and impossible to write, on the Erie I do not think highly. I am greatly surprised, after an absence of some years, to find an Erie, in any way no longer superior to other, in the world in any particular that affects a traveller, no, not even in the matter of dirt and a heat.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872. Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

THE ALDINE: AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL

claimed to be the HANDSOMEST PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."—Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has one of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—absolutely unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of the paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the public mind recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standard of illustrated publications. That so many weekly weeked sheets exist, and that there is evidence that there is no market for anything better, indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons and his market, and it is indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would like to announce during the coming year, the acquisition from the following eminent American Artists:

- List of artists including W. T. Richards, Grant Perkins, W. H. Bart, F. O. C. Darley, W. H. Bart, Victor Neill, George Shiley, W. H. Bart, J. H. Beaman, R. E. Pruett, Frank Brand, J. Hows, Paul Dixon.

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the very severest critical comparison with the most successful work of the department of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, to much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings is unnecessary, since the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872.

will contain nearly 200 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and engraved at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Seis, entitled "Dame Nature's School." The chromo is 11 x 13 inches, and is an exact facsimile, in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American chromo will compare with it in beauty of execution, or in the interest of the subject. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.

NEW NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR CANADA.

Prospectus of the CANADIAN MONTHLY AND NATIONAL REVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual life of the Canadian nation ought to have some organ in the form of a good journal. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

In some measures they may have been premature, but it is believed that the intellect has been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

These requisites have now been effectually secured. The literary and material requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought without restriction, from all quarters—Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a special Canadian character, such as, it is hoped, will enlist Canadian patronage in its support.

Politics will be treated with the aim of infusing into such as possible of the historical and philosophical spirit into the popular discussion of political questions.

Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim. Mr. GOLDWIN SMITH has consented to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine.

Intending subscribers will please send us their names. ADAM, STEVENSON & CO., Publishers, Toronto.
