

THE JAPANESE

THERE has been a good deal of talk, from a political standpoint, about the "Japanese Influx to British Columbia," but not so much has been said about that interesting race as actual citizens of Canada. ¶ Margaret Eadie Henderson, a careful observer and able writer, will tell in the May number of the Canadian Magazine just how her fellow-citizens from the Land of the Rising Sun have impressed her.

ALL who have read Dr. Louis Frechette's delightful series of sketches entitled "French-Canadian Folk Lore," the last of which appears in this issue, will be pleased to hear that the May number will contain an unusually strange and semi-historical sketch by the same author, entitled 'DRAPEAU THE PATRIOT'
