

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

LIMERICK.

A movement is on foot to nationalize the names of the streets of Limerick, The tenants on the Garryleakin Prospect, and Rathard property of Mr. Michael Hartigan, George street, Limerick, have settled with their landlord on a favorable terms. The tenantry on the Lough Gur and Grange portion of the estate of Count de Sales, demands a reduction of 25 per cent. in the rents; they have declined an offer of 10 per cent. reduction.

CORK.

William Sheehan, who was hanged recently at Cork for the murder of his mother, brother and sister, at Castletown-roche, confessed that he alone was concerned in the murder. That he first murdered his brother, then decoyed his sister into the haggard where the body of the first victim lay, and murdered her, and that finally, when his mother came to see what was delaying him, and found him covering the two bodies, he murdered her also.

Tralee Board of Guardians, in order to alleviate somewhat the great distress that prevails among the laboring class in Castleisland have set the laborers to work at cleansing the two graveyards in the district.

ANTRIM.

What's this we hear? "Great destitution in Belfast"—famine almost raging in the heart of the boasted prosperous capital of the "Loyal and Imperial province!" Impossible; Nevertheless it is true—too true. Hearken to the words of the medical officer of the Belfast Board of Guardians as telegraphed from the city on Wednesday, Jan. 26: "In the Shankhill road district," he said he knew of whole families who had nothing to eat, and such destitution and misery had not been seen in Belfast for the past fifteen years." Why the world was led to believe that this community was the most thriving in the three Kingdoms—so proud that it scorned legislative alliance with quailed Dublin and provincial Cork. Where's "Bullybeg," where the the bellowing Shepherd Hanna, and where, oh, where the noble Ranfurly? Are striving loyalists to get nothing better than loyal mouthing about the "integrity of the empire" to ally their hunger?—Nation.

WICKLOW.

The death is announced at 6 Temple Road, Blackrock, of Mrs. Esther Devitt, formerly of Annamore, county Wicklow.

The tenants on the Owny Island, Cruit Island and Kineslough, estate of Mr. Walter Charley, have been granted a reduction of 20 per cent. on all rents due on the 1st of November last. It is due to the Rev. B. Walker, P.P., Burtonport, to state that it was mainly by his effort that this reduction was obtained.

DOWN.

On Jan. 23. Mr. George Gordon, J. P. Kilkeel, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

TYRONE.

A Local Government Board inquiry was held recently in the work house, Strabane, before Mr. Cotton, Government Engineer, regarding a loan of $20,000 asked for by the guardians for the purposes of piping and additional supply of water from Elish to the present reservoir. After a deal of argument on behalf of the promoters of the scheme and also on the side of those opposing it, the inquiry terminated.

Mr Montgomery Moore, landlord of the Aughnacloy estate, has offered to sell his tenants their farms at twenty-one years purchase.

TIPPERARY.

LEITRIM.

The old officers of the Rossiner J N L—Rodger Feely, president; Myles McKeon, treasurer; and William Travers secretary—have been unanimously re-elected to the ensuing year.

MAYO.

We observe from the "Express" that the receiver on Tsafe's estate, near Ballyhaunis, county Mayo, applied to Judge Boyd for leave to proceed against 422 tenants for rent, and that he calmly stated "the holdings are on an average five acres, and that the rent "was made up out of harvest-men's savings." In other words, the tenants go over to England, live there like dogs, and then come back to till their little Mayo patches which they pay for out of the grinding economies of their English trip. Judge Boyd, who waxed furious a few days before over the idea of processing "an entire countryside," of course granted the order, and thus the dwellers in the happy valley of Ballyhaunis who, according to the receiver's own statement, make their rent, not in Ireland, but in England, will now pay for the luxury of industry in British foundries and coal mines by having civil bills served on them for rent which confessedly their "farm" have not earned.—United Ireland.

The most dire distress prevails through out Mayo, and alarming consequences will it be feared, be the result if some remedial measures are not immediately adopted by the Government. The most melancholy reports prevail as to the destitution prevailing in Achill, an almost isolated and unproductive island, and several deaths are rumored to have occurred from actual starvation.

WATERFORD.

A man named James Lynch fell into the hold of the ship "Treavearn," at Waterford, on Jan. 29, and was killed.

The wife of a farmer named Gaul was arrested on Jan. 28 charged with stealing two carpets from the altar or the Dominican Church, Waterford, a few days previously. She was brought before the petty sessions and pleaded guilty. She was sentenced to two months' imprisonment.

On Jan. 25 the remains of the Very Rev. Edmond Canon Hearne, who died at Tromore on the 22d in the seventy seventh year of his age, were interred in the churchyard attached to the church of the Holy Trinity, Tromore. Canon Hearne who had been vicar-general of the diocese of West-minster under the late Cardinal Wiseman retired from active duty a few years ago and resided since in Tromore, where he was highly esteemed.

In connection with the change just announced in the British Cabinet it is of interest to know the salaries paid to the various officials. Gladstone as First Lord of the Treasury receives $25,000 a year, and the following sums per annum are paid to the officers mentioned:—Home Secretary, $25,000; President of the Board of Trade, $10,000; Lord High Chancellor, $50,000; Lord President of the Council, $10,000; Secretary for War, $25,000; President of the Local Government Board $10,000; Foreign Secretary, $25,000; Secretary for India, $25,000; Secretary for Colonies, $25,000; First Lord of the Admiralty, $22,500; Chief Secretary for Ireland, $22,125; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, $100,000.—Chicago Tribune.
