

-13-

I am confident that by using our resources with vigour, determination and imagination we will be able not only to advance Canadian interests but also contribute actively to the greater good of the entire hemisphere.