

- Receive simultaneously from the Parties their respective current inventories of armaments and military installations and their census of troops under arms in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (b) of the FIRST STAGE in paragraph 19 of Part I, chapter III of this Act.
- Carry out the technical studies provided for in subparagraph (c) of the FIRST STAGE in paragraph 19 of Part I, chapter III of this Act.
- Ascertain that the Parties comply fully with the maximum limits that were previously established or are provisionally in effect for the various categories of armaments, military installations and troops under arms and with the reduction timetables agreed upon or provisionally in effect.
- Ascertain that the munitions, spare parts, and replacement equipment acquired are compatible with the inventories and registers submitted previously by the Parties and with the limits and schedules agreed upon or provisionally in effect.
- Verify that no new weapons are introduced which qualitatively or quantitatively alter current inventories, and that weapons prohibited in this Act are not introduced, possessed, or used.
- Establish a register of all transfers of weapons carried out by the Parties, including donations and any other transfers of war materiel.
- Verify the fulfillment of the commitment by the States Parties to initiate and complete constitutional procedures for signing, ratifying or acceding to the treaties and other international agreements on disarmament and to proceed with the actions directed to that end.
- Receive simultaneously from the Parties the list of foreign military bases, schools and installations and verify their dismantlement, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- Receive the consensus of foreign military advisers and other foreign elements participating in military and security activities and verify their withdrawal in accordance with the recommendations of the Verification and Control Commission.
- Verify compliance with this Act in respect of traffic in arms and consider any reports of non-compliance. For that purpose the following criteria shall be taken into account:
 - (1) Origin of the arms traffic: port or airport of embarkation of the weapons, munitions, equipment or other military supplies intended for the Central American region.
