

No.	Date.	Subject.
174a	May 23, 1905...	Extracts from minutes of the special committee on legislation, Montreal. (Printed on page 881 of the evidence.)
175		Form of agreement for exchange line, post office, London telephone system. (Printed on page 904 of the evidence.)
176		Statement of gross receipts and expenditures, British post office telegraphs from 1870 to 1903. (Referred to on page 916 of the evidence.)
177		Excerpt from report (50th annual) of the Postmaster General Great Britain and Ireland, 1904. (Printed on page 919 of the evidence.)
178	Dec. 23, 1902...	Agreement between the Bell Telephone Company and Drs. Horace Bascom and Frank Forrest. (Printed on page 950 of the evidence.)
179	June 25, 1905...	Declaration of J. E. Beaubien, agent St. Lawrence Telephone Company, Sorel, P.Q., affirming that permission to lay their cable on Victoria bridge was refused by Grand Trunk Railway Company owing to agreement between latter company and Bell Telephone Company. (Printed on page 953 of the evidence.)
180		Map showing development of independent long-distance lines in state of Ohio, U.S.A. (See after page 1047 of the evidence.)
181		List of five of the largest independent telephone companies in Michigan, showing their capitalization, number of telephones, &c. (Printed on page 1039 of the evidence.)
182		Report (annual) Citizens' Telephone Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan, U.S.A., for the year ending June 30, 1905. (Printed on page 1039 of the evidence.)