During the taking of the vote:

Mr. Letourneau: Mr. Speaker, I should like to correct an error. I do not mind being called Legere, but my name is Letourneau.

After the taking of the vote:

Mr. Speaker: To make the matter clear may I say this. A vote was recorded for Mr. Letourneau but not for Mr. Legere, whose name was called in error.

I declare the motion carried.

Bill read the second time.

Mr. Speaker: When shall the said bill be considered in committee of the whole? Next sitting of the house.

At one o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to order made on Thursday, May 11, 1961.
